Committee On Memorials

In 1952 a grand old octogenarian, Herbert Hoover, stood before the Republican National Convention receiving the applause and accolades of that energetic and influential body of party representatives. When the applause ceased, the former president addressed the delegates, expressing his appreciation for the respect and confidence which had been accorded him, not only on that occasion, but many times previously. At the conclusion of his remarks, he announced what he suspected would be his earthly farewell to a body with which he had been closely identified. The audience was hushed as the people sensed the solemnity of the occasion, and they listened attentively to his words. "According to the inexorable course of nature," he said, "this will be the last convention I will attend."

Shouts of "No" echoed from every quarter of the Convention Hall, as though the delegates felt they could turn back the advance of time, and reject the course of nature.

Herbert Hoover's use of the word "inexorable" in association with his impending death was appropriate, however, for it means: "Not to be persuaded by entreaty or prayer." It also means "unyielding; relentless." Like a planet hurling through space, only the power of the Almighty could forbid its ultimate course.

We pause now to reflect on the "inexorable course of nature" upon this convention, for time continues, and the years take their toll.

Each convention reminds us that we have lost some of our finest Baptist people, both lay persons and ministers, through death. These servants of the Lord have effectively ministered in mountain cove, piedmont plateau, and coastal plain. They have given the best of their energies in service to our Lord, and they can never be completely replaced because of the uniqueness of their personalities. They were created by the Almighty, and motivated to specific service by the power of the Holy Spirit. This is the story of the redeemed who have gone on to be with the Lord.

Wherever they have walked, their footprints have made indelible impressions. Lives have been touched by them, and directions have been altered.

Across our state there is an emptiness caused by their passing. We are adjusting with difficulty to their absence, but the impact of their personalities can never be duplicated. Dedicated replacements are enlisted so the work may continue, but new faces and new personalities bring their own unique gifts and skills.

We list in our Convention Annual the names of some of those departed personalities who made unique contributions to our denomination and its churches, though obviously every deceased Baptist could not be listed because of the bigness of state, and the numerical size of our constituency. We have leaned heavily upon our directors of missions, our pastors, and lay people to provide us with the information we have used.

When we have taken note of the departure of those whose names are written here, let us remember that the greatness of our churches and denomination has been dependent not on these alone, but more upon that host of quiet, unassuming, and dedicated Christian people who day by day and week by week have walked with the Lord and graced our church houses with their presence, graced our communities with their influence, and graced their testimonies by providing financial support through their tithes and offerings, making possible the extension of their own witness through our mission endeavors to the ends of the earth. We memorialize also these good people who have this past year completed their earthly journey.

Your committee recommends the continued practice of listing names in our Convention Annual of those who have distinguished themselves in unique service to our denomination and its churches. The list is structured from information gleaned from the pages of The Biblical Recorder, and from nominations submitted by directors of missions in our 80 associations across the state.

Your committee also recommends that the Convention Annual be dedicated to: Charles Burchette, a director of Associational Missions in Tar River Association, John Lewis Carter, a layman from Burnt Swamp Association; Ruby Davis, a North Carolina native and long time SBC foreign missionary; Bessie Campbell Lynch, a Campbell University professor; W.K. McGee, pastor and long time Director of Denominational Relations at North Carolina Baptist Hospital; J. Louis Price, Sr., retired pastor; Jay H. Waugh, Jr., blind pastor-evangelist and father of the emerging Southern Baptist program for the blind; and three Gardner-Webb professors who lost their lives in an automobile accident while on a mission of service for one of our Baptist institutions, Michael Harrelson, John Rast, and James Henson.

Charles P. Burchette

Charles Burchette was born February 23, 1912 to C.P. and Daisy Dobbins Burchette in Wilkes County. His family moved to Winston-Salem in 1915. He was educated in the public schools of Winston-Salem. He accepted Christ when he was eleven years of age and became an active member of Brown Memorial Baptist Church.

Charles attended Shenandoah Conservatory of Music in Virginia for two years. His ability with and love of good music was an added spark for all of his ministry. He was a graduate of Wake Forest College and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He was ordained to the gospel ministry in 1940 by the First Baptist Church in Winston-Salem where he was a member after Brown Memorial and First Baptist merged.

Charles married Miriam Early of Winston-Salem in 1940. Their home was blessed with a son and daughter.

After graduation from the seminary he served East Baptist Church in Gastonia as Minister of Education and Music for one year. He was called as Assistant Pastor in 1944 by the Brookland Baptist Church in Washington, D.C.

He served three churches in North Carolina as pastor: First Baptist of Bladenboro, Kernersville and Cooleemee. In all of his pastorates he showed great interest in Associational Missions.

In the providence of God, each place of service prepared him for the next. He was associated with the North Carolina Baptist Homes and was used of God in the expansion of this vital ministry. His ability to interest others in this service to the aged was far-reaching in providing more space for more persons across North Carolina.

Charles became the Director of Missions for the Tar River Association in 1970 and served in this vital area of ministry until his retirement in December of 1977. His concern for the total program of the churches was evident as he encouraged pastors and lay-persons in stewardship and missions. He led in training for personal witnessing. His optimistic and forward looking personality were used of God in a splendid expansion in the life of the churches.

He died on February 7, 1983. He is alive in the memories of countless friends who knew and loved him.

Robert L. Costner, Chapel Hill

John Louis Carter

John L. Carter, a lay member of the Mt. Airy Baptist Church, was a giant in his community, church, association and convention activities. His services were broad and abilities magnified as those he trained became leaders themselves and patterned their loyalties after his.

He led the first associational representation to the Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly in 1938 as the Associational Sunday School Director, a position he held until 1962. He was the first person to serve on the General Board of the Baptist State Convention in North Carolina from this association. He served as secretary and treasurer of the Indian Orphanage from 1942 until 1958, as associational treasurer from 1944 until 1968, and as associational clerk from 1939 until 1978. In addition, he was a trustee and served on numerous committees of the association throughout the years.

In the Southern Baptist Convention he was a delegate to the annual meeting in Baltimore, Maryland in 1940 and at San Francisco, California in 1951. By invitation, he served as a Sunday School clinician in Nashville, Tennessee in 1942 and in Alabama and Florida in 1949. A highlight was, upon invitation, to attend the Baptist World Alliance in 1955 held in London, England.

John L. Carter was ordained as a deacon in the Mt. Airy Baptist Church in 1932, and served as treasurer from 1935 and as clerk from 1938 until his death. He was also a trustee of the church and leading supporter of its benevolent ministries.

Secular activities included farming, teaching in public schools, and serving as registrar of Pembroke State University from which he retired in 1975.

Wherever he served, John L. Carter was original, bold, and brilliant. In many ways Burnt Swamp Baptist Association owes its life and magnitude today to this statesman, philosopher, and humanitarian.

Ruby Fletcher Davis

Ruby Fletcher Davis, a native of Zionsville, gave 30 years of her life as a Southern Baptist missionary to Brazil before she died of cancer June 15 in Richmond, Virginia. She was 60.

In Brazil, she used her artistic talents to design Baptist publications, bookcovers, posters and illustrations. She also was active in local church and Baptist women's groups.

Mrs. Davis attended the Carver School of Missions and Social Work, now part of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky. She and her husband of 36 years, H. Victor Davis, were appointed missionaries in 1953.

Friends and missionary colleagues remember her as a sensitive artist, a gracious hostess and homemaker, and a devoted wife and mother. Her husband and three children, Larry Davis of Atlanta, Georgia, Julie Davis and Joel Davis, both of Richmond, survive her.

After Mrs. Davis recuperated from surgery in Brazil, her doctors and therapist asked her to come by the hospital to encourage other patients. Until shortly before she died, she was an active volunteer at St. Luke's Hospital in Richmond.

Women at Cove Creek Baptist Church in Sugar Grove, North Carolina, have for several years called their group the Ruby Fletcher Davis WMU.

In addition to her other talents, Mrs. Davis made many of her own clothes, had a knack for interior decorating and grew flowers as lovely as those she painted.

Still, friends were impressed most with her radiant and gentle Christian spirit.

Soon after she died, her husband received a letter addressed to her from a Brazilian neighbor who had not heard of Mrs. Davis' death.

In her correspondence, the friend recalled a vivid red flower that grew in the front yard of the Davises' home in Rio de Janeiro. Neither woman knew what kind of flower it was so the Brazilian named it "Ruby."

"Your hillside is beginning to blossom," she wrote. "I was on the hillside...and I said good morning to the flower, Ruby, that continues to bring happiness to the hearts of all who pass by. There is a saying: 'What brings happiness to the eyes brings happiness to the heart.'

"This flower remained in your place on the hillside," she continued. "You went away but left the flower, Ruby. You, like this flower, brought happiness to the hearts of all who knew you...I want you to know you are still remembered very much."

Bessie Campbell Lynch

Campbell University and Buies Creek mourned the loss of one of its most talented and useful friends and citizens with the death of Mrs. Bessie Campbell Lynch at the age of eighty-six. The only daughter of Dr. J.A. Campbell and Cornelia Pearson Campbell, she was the sister of Dr. Leslie Campbell, former president of Campbell College and Dr. Carlyle Campbell, former president of Coker and Meredith Colleges.

Music was her life. After graduating from Meredith in 1916, she began her teaching at Buies Creek Academy and with some interruptions to meet the needs of her three children, she continued until her retirement in 1965. A superb musician, who could have been a fine performing concert artist, she always pushed her students to do better. She pursued her studies at the New York School of Music and Art and the Westminster Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey.

For forty years, she was the organist at the Buies Creek First Baptist Church. She influenced the members of the congregation and many area citizens in developing a taste for good music. Also, they were much indebted to her for her generous availability on such occasions as funerals and weddings. For years after her retirement, Campbell University continued to benefit from her talent at Commencement activities.

Mrs. Lynch was a gracious hostess, a loving mother, and an alert supporter of worthy causes. She is survived by Archibald Edgar Lynch, Jr., a Raleigh attorney and by Mrs. Frances Lloyd, Assistant Professor of Health and Physical Education at Campbell University, and by six grandchildren. Another daughter, Bonnie Royal, died in 1977.

Norman A. Wiggins, Buies Creek

William Kay McGee

"William Kay McGee's lifestyle was straight out of the kingdom of God." So stated his pastor, Dr. Charles Edwards, at a memorial service held for Dr. McGee at College Park Baptist Church in Winston-Salem on Sunday, June 19, 1983. Dr. McGee had died the preceding Friday evening after a brief illness.

He was born January 11, 1900, in Anderson County, South Carolina, where he spent his early years. He graduated from Furman University and, after receiving his Th. M. and Ph. D. degrees from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, he came to North Carolina where he served as a "three-career minister."

For fifteen years, he was a Baptist pastor serving at the Hocutt Memorial Baptist Church in Burlington and later at the First Baptist Church in Thomasville. In both of these congregations and communities, he gained a reputation as an effective preacher/teacher, a caring pastor, and a dedicated denominational leader.

From 1946 until 1972 he was Director of Denominational Relations at North Carolina Baptist Hospital. In this capacity, he traveled thousands of miles, delivered hundreds of addresses, and interrelated with numerous Baptist pastors and lay people in his efforts to gain support for the ministry of the hospital. He was affectionately known in Baptist circles across the state as "Mr. Baptist Hospital."

After retiring from the hospital staff in 1972, he devoted his energies to the chaplaincy ministry of the Forsyth County Prison System. From 1977 until his death he was president of the Forsyth Prison Chaplaincy Council. He was active in the Yokefellow Prison Ministry, and it was while fulfilling his duties in this role that he became ill just a few hours prior to his death.

Dr. McGee is survived by his wife, Mrs. Velma Preslar McGee; four daughters; seven grandchildren; and five brothers.

Calvin Knight, Winston-Salem

James Louis Price, Sr.

The Reverend James Louis Price, Sr. was a preacher, pastor, teacher, evangelist, student, scholar and administrator. He had great personal warmth and a gift for communicating the Gospel. He prepared his last sermon in the year prior to his death, June 23, 1983, at age 90 and four months.

Rev. Price was born in Wilson County, North Carolina, Feb. 1, 1893. He attended Mars Hill College and graduated from Wake Forest in 1920. He was married to Miss Dora Mae Eplee on May 21, 1917 and this union was to last for 54 years, until her death June 19, 1971. He was ordained to the ministry by the Stantonsburgh Baptist Church, Nov. 5, 1917. In 1925 he received his Master of Theology Degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

Reverend and Mrs. Price have two sons, Dr. James L. Price, dentist of Hickory and William R. Price, artist and clock maker of Hickory.

Mr. Price served the Roberts Chapel and Buckhorn churches near Murfreesboro and from 1930 to 1934 he pastored Bethel church in Bloxom, Virginia. In 1934 the Prices moved to First Baptist, Siler City, N.C. He simultaneously served three other churches in Chatham County. From 1941 to 1953 he was pastor of Penelope church in Hickory where on September 11, 1977 he was named Pastor Emeritus of that church. His tenure with Penelope was 12 years and for three years he served the Dudley Shoals church in Caldwell County.

He retired in 1956 but never ceased to study, prepare sermons and preach. He preached in revival services in several states and frequented college and university campuses as a speaker. He served in strategic places in the Southern Baptist and North Carolina Conventions.

Reverend and Mrs. Price united with the West Hickory church in 1956 and were exemplary, faithful church members attending all the services on Sunday and the mid-week time of worship.

Mr. Price was a noted bibliophilist.

Mr. Price was a preacher's preacher, always ethical, cordial, kind, patient and innately good. He was compassionate, humble and understanding with all and in all his relationships. He was the dean of pastors in the area at the time of his death.

It is unthinkable that a quality christian life such as his could be squandered in death. It is not; he has gone on to his eternal home to claim his inheritance and await your arrival and mine. His influence will live on in the countless lives he has touched.

Albert A. Young, Hickory

J.H. Waugh, Jr.

To "Jay" Waugh blindness was not a handicap; an inconvenience, maybe! He faced life with enthusiasm and optimism. Few people have collected more friends in a lifetime than he. While at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, he traveled most every week-end with fellow student pastors to all the states on the eastern seaboard to preach and to conduct revival services.

"Jay" was a multitalented person. He was a musician skilled in the use of all stringed instruments, including the piano. His lovely violin music was used in worship services throughout his ministry. He wrote several hymns, two of which were published and copyrighted.

Jay was graduated from the Morehead School for the Blind in Raleigh. He answered God's call to the Gospel Ministry, and enrolled in Campbell College. Upon graduation he transferred to Carson Newman College for one year and graduated from Elon College a year later. He was a graduate of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky with a B.D. degree. He was an excellent student using a brail slate and stylus to take notes, and a typewriter to prepare reports and tests. In his seminary years he studied Greek, receiving top grades for his work.

Upon graduation he became pastor of the Kennett Memorial Mission which grew into a thriving church with more than five hundred members. After a very successful pastorate of seventeen years, clergy friends and Christian business people formed the Jay Waugh Evangelistic Association. He served as evangelist and consultant in ministries with the blind. The last year of his ministry was given to work with the Baptist State Convention as consultant and worker with churches, associations and Baptist groups in establishing a ministry with the blind.

He served two years in pioneer missions in Vermont.

More than anyone else, Jay influenced North Carolina Baptists, the Home Mission Board, and various other Baptist state conventions to begin ministries with visually handicapped people.

He was married to Julia Mae David. They have three sons and a daughter, all of whom are involved in Christian ministries.

Michael A. Harrelson
James P. Henson
John W. Rast

Three Gardner-Webb College professors died as a result of an automobile accident which occurred January 27, 1983. All three professors were returning to Boiling Springs after teaching classes in the college's evening program in the Catawba Center at Newton-Conover High School.

Dr. Michael A. Harrelson was Chairman of the Department of Natural Sciences and Professor of Biology. He was a member of the faculty since 1968. Dr. Harrelson was active in his support of Gardner-Webb as a student, an alumnus, a parent, a faculty member.

The students who studied under Dr. Harrelson and the faculty of the department he chaired will long remember his devotion to people which was equal to his concern for his discipline of science.

Dr. James P. Henson had two different teaching assignments at Gardner-Webb. His first assignment was in the Business Department from 1957-62. Later, after completing his doctorate in psychology, he returned to Gardner-Webb to teach in the Department of Psychology. In addition to being Professor of Psychology, Dr. Henson had served as the Chairman of that department for several years.

Dr. Henson was known as a quiet and uncomplaining person whose physical infirmity due to a childhood attack of polio was never used by him to gain sympathy from others.

So quiet was he, that faculty who attended his funeral in a rural church in Rutherford County were amazed to realize the deep and profound influence Dr. Henson had far beyond the boundary of his classroom and campus.

Dr. John W. Rast was the youngest of the three professors in age as well as time served at Gardner-Webb. He came to the faculty in 1981 from a position on the religion faculty at Louisiana College. As Assistant Professor of Religion at Gardner-Webb, Dr. Rast had made a most significant contribution to the students and faculty. His measured words were carefully chosen and highly respected.

As a frequent speaker in area churches he was sought by those churches because of his intense care for people. However, Dr. Rast loved his church and will be remembered by everyone who was ever his pastor as a professor who believed and practiced what he taught.

II. Duties of the Committees

Membership on Convention committees shall not bar one from serving as a member of the General Board, or as a director of any agency of the Convention, or as a trustee of any institution of the Convention.

Vacancies occurring in committees between sessions of the Convention shall be filled through appointment of the Convention President.

Nothing contained in reports to the Convention shall be construed as an action of the Convention except the recommendations which are definitely listed and adopted by the Convention.

The committees of the Convention shall be divided into three categories:

A. Those appointed by the President and Vice-Presidents in advance of the meeting of the Convention.

1. THE COMMITTEE ON ENROLLMENT consisting of nine members, three of whom shall have served the previous year, and whose duties it shall be to provide registration cards for messengers and visitors and have them in a suitable place several hours before the meeting of the Convention. This Committee shall make a report to the assembled messengers upon the call of the President, and shall serve as a committee on credentials.

2. THE COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES, consisting of 15 members, whose duty it shall be to nominate for election by the Convention the committees listed under sections B and C below, and such other committees as may be assigned to it.

It is desirable that at least 25 percent of members nominated to all committees of the Convention shall come from churches with a resident membership under 400. No one shall be nominated to serve on more than one committee at the same time. It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one time on committees. Any addition beyond (6) must be individually justified by the Committee on Committees to the Convention.

The Committee on Committees shall include in its report as a minimum the name, church, home town, association, occupation, and sex of each nominee, the name of the committee on which he or she is nominated to serve, together with such summary information as will make clear to the Convention the diversity and breadth of representation provided by the slates of nominees.

B. Those to report at the next regular session of the Convention.

1. THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS shall consist of fifteen (15) members, ten (10) of whom shall be nominated by the Committee on Committees and elected by the Convention. The (10) members shall serve two-year terms with five rotating off each year. The five other members should be from the General Board with at least two of the five from the Executive Committee. These five should be named by the Executive Committee after the organizational meeting in January of each year.

All resolutions presented to the Convention shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the second day of the Convention, the rules may be suspended and a resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

Those who plan to present resolutions to the Convention for consideration are urged to submit a copy of the resolution to the Committee well in advance of the Convention. This will not only give the Committee more adequate time to consider the resolutions, but will also make it possible to print the proposed resolutions in the Book of Advance Reports.

2. THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS, consisting of fifteen members, five of whom shall rotate off each year. Their term of office shall begin with the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years. No person employed by the General Board or an agency or institution of the Convention shall serve as chairman of this committee.

It is desirable that the Convention shall nominate at least 25 percent of the members to the various boards, agencies and institutions from churches with resident membership under 400. No one shall be nominated to serve on more than one board at the same time. They shall also nominate members for vacancies for the twelve (12) members-at-large of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs and such other nominations as may be delegated to the Committee of the Convention. It is desirable that no church shall have more than six (6) members serving at one time on Convention boards. Any addition beyond six (6) must be individually justified by the Nominating Committee to the Convention.

a. The Committee shall begin to function upon election. It shall meet as often as needed to prepare recommendations for vacancies and shall begin not later than July 1 to prepare recommendations for the annual meeting of the Convention.

b. This Committee shall invite through letter the institutional and agency heads and associational leadership to submit recommendations for vacancies for their respective institutions, agencies or General Board occurring annually or between annual sessions of the Convention. The Committee shall invite individuals through the Biblical Recorder to submit recommendations. All recommendations shall be accompanied by biographical material, including general assessments by personal and church references. Recommendations and supporting material shall be submitted early enough for the Nominating Committee to acknowledge and carefully evaluate each recommendation and make an informed decision based upon character, churchmanship and special skills required by the particular institution. All such materials shall be kept by the Chairman of the Nominating Committee during the period of his active work up to and until the time of the convention, and all such materials received from churches and individuals shall be shared upon receipt with the particular institution involved. After the Convention has taken action on nominations, the Chairman will forward all biographical materials to the new Chairman of the Committee on Nominations.

c. When the Committee meets to do its work, it shall give careful consideration to those who have been recommended from the various sources indicated above and to the fact that the trustees of each agency or institution are close to that agency or institution, have expert knowledge of its needs and possibilities, possess a deep interest and concern for the institution, and know the men and women who can best serve the institution. The Nominating Committee shall:

- (1) Consult with the representatives of the Board of Trustees of Convention agencies and institutions for the purpose of determining the specific trustee skills needed.

- (2) Consult as needed with persons making recommendations with respect to their recommendations for membership on the General Board and the Boards of Trustees of institutions and agencies.

- (3) Share with the institutions and agencies its proposed nominations prior to notification of these nominees. This is for the purpose of further consultation if further consultation is deemed necessary by either the Committee or the Boards of Trustees.

- (4) Then it will be free to follow its own best judgement in making recommendations to the Convention or the General Board. The Committee should strive to select and nominate the best representatives of our Convention from the vast resources available to the Baptists of North Carolina.

Special emphasis should be given to:

(1) Stability of effective leadership, thus assuring the continuous work of Baptists.

(2) Demonstrated active churchmanship, thus assuring effective Baptist State Convention representation.

(3) A cross-section of membership, thus assuring representation of churches of various sizes and types, a variety of professional and educational backgrounds, geographical areas, different age groups, and both lay persons and ministers. It is desirable to avoid the concentration of leadership in too few places.

d. Consent of the nominee to serve shall be secured by the Committee prior to the recommendations to the Convention or the General Board.

e. The full report of the committee shall be published in the Biblical Recorder at least four weeks prior to the annual meeting of the Convention. The report shall include as a minimum the name, church, home town, association, occupation, and sex of each nominee, the name of the institution or agency on whose board he or she is nominated to serve, together with such summary information as will make clear to the Convention the diversity and breadth of representation provided by the slates of nominees. The name of any person to be nominated from the floor of the Convention and the name of the nominee intended to be displaced shall be published in the Biblical Recorder at least one week prior to the Convention's annual session. In addition, biographical material relating to proposed floor nominees shall be given to the agency or institution involved and to the Nominating Committee at least one week prior to such session.

Their terms of office shall begin at the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon the adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. 5. THE COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS consists of six members, two of whom shall rotate off each year. A member having served a full three-year term shall not be eligible to succeed himself. They shall prepare a report memorializing ministers and lay leaders of the Baptist State Convention who died since the adjournment of the previous annual session of the Baptist State Convention. They shall recommend names of those to whom the Annual of the Convention is to be dedicated.

6. THE HISTORICAL COMMITTEE, consisting of twelve members, three of whom shall rotate off each year. A member having served a full four-year term shall not be eligible to succeed himself.

This committee shall recommend appropriate measures for the preservation of Baptist history. It shall seek to preserve the minutes and records of all Baptist bodies, churches, associations, and conventions, historical manuscripts, printed materials, including correspondence, and museum objects. It shall encourage the writing and publication of high-standard histories of individuals, churches, associations, and conventions. It shall recommend what historic sites, including buildings, should be properly marked and preserved when these are related to Baptist history. It shall work in close collaboration with the historical researcher employed jointly by the Baptist State Convention and Wake Forest University, who works directly with the Baptist Collection in the Wake Forest University Library. The committee shall report annually to the Baptist State Convention and shall cooperate with the Historical Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention.

7. THE COMMITTEE ON PLACE AND PREACHER consisting of nine members. 8. THE COMMITTEE ON TRUSTEE ORIENTATION, consisting of nine members, three of whom shall rotate off each year. Their terms of office shall begin at the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon the adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years or one full term.

a. The committee shall be responsible for planning and promoting an annual orientation program for trustees and directors of Convention institutions and agencies.

b. The committee shall prepare a brief manual of instruction for use by trustees and directors of Convention institutions and agencies, and shall, as occasion requires, revise this manual.

9. THE COMMITTEE ON COOPERATION WITH GENERAL BAPTISTS, consisting of six members, two of them shall be elected for a three-year term, two for a two-year term, and two for a one-year term. Once the committee has been organized, two persons should be nominated each year for three-year terms. The General Secretary-Treasurer, the President of the Convention, a college student, and the Director of the Department of Cooperation with General Baptists shall serve as ex officio members. These shall form a Joint Committee with a comparable group from the General Baptist Convention. This Joint Committee shall study and recommend periodically to their respective groups areas of cooperative work, activities, and projects that will strengthen our common fellowship as well as advance the work of our Lord. The Joint Committee will serve in an advisory capacity to the Department of Cooperation with General Baptists.

C. Special Convention Committees

When a special committee is called for, the Resolutions Committee shall study the situation to see if there is a committee or group already in existence which could appropriately attend to the matter proposed, and, if there is such a group, it shall, upon recommendation of the Resolutions Committee and vote of the Convention, be referred to them. Otherwise, the Resolutions Committee may recommend that a special committee be set up by the Convention.

III. Eligibility for Membership on the General Board on Boards of Trustees and Directors of Agencies and Institutions of the Convention

In no case shall a member of any board serve a continuous term of more than four years, except the director of North Carolina Baptist Foundation, in which case the continuous term shall not exceed five years, provided, however, that any such board member who still have been elected to fill a vacancy of less than two years, shall be eligible to be re-elected to a full term of his own. No individual who is employed by the General Board, an agency or institution of the Convention shall serve on the Board of trustees of any other agency or institution.

A member of a board of any institution or agency of the Convention having completed a full term of office shall not be eligible for re-election to membership on the same board until the lapse of one year, but shall be eligible for immediate election to membership on the board of any other institution or agency of the Convention.

Dr. Campbell recalled the divisions in the church at Corinth and how Paul called the church to live together peacefully. Also, he said, "I have a dream that we will agree to walk together into the twenty-first century proudly wearing our Baptist name and boldly declaring "Jesus is Lord."

31. Jack A. Bracey, pastor, Weldon Baptist Church, Weldon, pronounced the benediction.

Tuesday Morning, November 15, 1983

32. First Vice President Belk called the meeting to order at 8:45 a.m.

33. Mr. Gatwood announced that Robert Sparks, minister of music, First Baptist Church, Burlington, would assist with the music.

34. Following a musical interlude, Mr. Sparks sang, "Morning Has Broken" and the assembly was led in singing "Great Is Thy Faithfulness."

35. Dr. Shurden spoke on "Discipleship Danger: Underexpecting."

Underexpecting is a second danger because "God often comes to us from places we would never, ever expect," Dr. Shurden said, that "underexpecting and unbelief are closely related. I believe that our unbelief comes from the notion that we can save ourselves. We come to think that we can make it on our own and then we underexpect God."

36. The two pages were presented by President Campbell: Byron Willis, McGill Avenue Baptist Church, Concord; and Billy Dennis, Pine Grove Baptist church, Rockingham.

37. President Campbell called for nominations for president of the convention.

38. Tom Freeman, pastor of First Baptist Church, Dunn, nominated Norman A. Wiggins, Buies Creek.

39. Billy Sellers, Idlewild Baptist Church, Mecklenburg Association, nominated Henderson Belk, Charlotte.

40. Ernest Glass, Shamrock Drive Baptist Church, Charlotte, nominated Albert S. Lineberry Sr., Greensboro.

41. Mr. Belk asked that, in the spirit of unity, his name be with drawn and that his support go to Dr. Wiggins. By consent of the body, his request was granted.

42. On a point of order, Warren Carr, Wake Forest Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, asked the chair to rule on the constitutionality of a president of one of the convention's institutions also being president of the convention in view of Article IX, B.6 on page 50 of the 1982 Convention Annual:

No individual shall serve on the board of an institution or agency who is at the same time holding membership on the board of any other institution, agency, or on the General Board. No individual who is employed by an agency or institution of the Convention, whether the salary be total or supplemented, shall serve on the board of trustees of any agency, institution, or General Board.

And in the Bylaws, 1A on page 50 of the 1982 Convention Annual:

He shall also serve ex officio as a voting member of the General Board and its Executive Committee. He shall also serve as an ex officio non-voting member of all Convention committees.

43. President Campbell responded that "the chair is aware of the questions and we have been reading constitutions, not only our current constitution but back issues of various constitutions ...there is an obvious conflict in our constitution. The passages just read do seem to indicate that the person who receives a salary from one of our institutions is not eligible to serve. There is another passage in Article VIII, A2. on page 47:

'2. The President and First and Second Vice-Presidents of the Convention shall be ex officio voting members of the General Board and its Executive Committee.'

It seems to indicate that one might (be eligible to serve). Our parliamentarian says they are in conflict and several people have asked that if the issue is raised, they be allowed to speak to it."

44. M.O. Owens, Parkwood Baptist Church, Gastonia, spoke on behalf of proceeding with the nomination of Dr. Wiggins.

45. General Secretary-Treasurer Ray reported on research he had been asked to do on this issue: "...One observation is very important to you. You are the architects of the constitution and when it comes to an ultimate point you must be its interpreters. Likely this morning the burden will fall on your shoulders to decide what your constitution requires and then you will act accordingly...In 1941 there was a change that wrote in 'ex officio.' Up to that time, the restrictions had been that a person would not serve who received pay in part or in full from the convention. Dr. Owens is correct in his interpretation and one further bit you need to know to interpret: one change made in interpretation of 'ex-officio' as it relates to the presidency and to the two vice presidents is not in the fraternal tie of being a visitor but in the explicit sense of being a voting person, presidents vote. I am in full agreement that there is no clarity on the part of the constitution. In my judgment, the burden rests upon the messengers to interpret their own constitution."

46. Clyde Rhyne, First Baptist Church, Sanford, and chairman of the Board of Trustees, Campbell University, spoke in favor of permitting the nomination of Dr. Wiggins to proceed.

47. Lindsay Miller III, Goshen Baptist Church, Leland, member of the Nominating Committee, spoke against nomination of an agency head for the presidency of the convention.

48. President Campbell said that "Dr. Ray has suggested, and rightly so, that you are the final arbiters and decision-makers of your own document. I have consulted with the Parliamentarian and he has told me that the best method is to let the body choose what it wants to do...On advice of the Parliamentarian and with support of the General Secretary-Treasurer, I ask you which you think is the intent of North Carolina Baptists — whether Article VIII or Article IX?"

49. Sam Branch, First Baptist Church, New Bern, asked that terminology be used rather than Article numbers.

50. President Campbell read the two Articles and in a vote by the show of hands, Article VIII (See No. 43) prevailed and nomination of Dr. Wiggins was declared valid.

51. A motion was made from the floor that nominations cease. The motion carried.

52. President Campbell announced that Ballot No. 1 would be used for voting. (See No. 132)

53. Egbert L. Davis, Jr., First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, moved that the vote be taken by standing or raising of hands rather than secret ballot.

54. President Campbell ruled that the voting would be by ballot and the motion was withdrawn.

55. General Secretary-Treasurer Ray paid tribute to staff members who had worked closely with him: Ruth Williams, administrative assistant, Margie Parker, Sally Jones (not present), Roy Smith, and others who worked to make the convention effective. The address of the General Secretary-Treasurer followed:

(1) Concern about church growth and missions.

(2) The strengthening of the team approach between the Convention staff, associational and church staff in ministry.

He further cited two disappointments as:

(1) Inability to overcome lack of trust among Baptists.

(2) Inability to have unity in our work.

He further cited accomplishments as:

(1) The Convention General Board's work among the people.

(2) The growth of teamwork between the Convention staff and the Directors of Associational Missions.

(3) The amazing progress made in church growth.

(4) The continued growth in missions.

(5) The resolving of the tension between Wake Forest University and the people.

(6) The advance planning of the Baptist State Convention.

(7) The Convention is debt free to outside agencies, but we do have some internal debts.

Finally, Dr. Ray cited the challenge of opportunities awaiting us as a Convention, such as:

(1) The clear purpose of the mission enterprise. God called us to missions. Missions was and now is our dominating purpose as Baptists.

(2) The need for greater trust and affection for each other. We need to undergird ourselves with truth and live by it and with each other.

(3) The call to a better accountability challenge. We believe in letting Committees, Boards do our work for us. There is some value of Trustees, such as:

(a) There is the value of selection/election of these people. You do well here. I give you a good grade.

(b) These trusted persons perform their work well.

(c) The accountability/reporting is not done well. You don't want to hear reports. Sometimes the trustees don't want to report. However, you are forfeiting a number one task by failing to hear reports of their stewardship in service. I give you a "lousy" grade here.

Conclusion: The "Bold Mission Theme" continues to be our theme. We need to match our theme dream with "bold giving" to support the dreams. We lack commitment here.

Our visions show growth and so should our commitments in fulfilling them under God's leadership.

The General Board recommends that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina join with the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Togo Mission in a three and one-half year partnership, beginning January 1, 1984. We recommend further that the general objectives, proposed funding procedures and the organization as outlined be adopted. The Committee will be set up by the Executive Committee.

88. Jim Greene, director of Student and Campus Ministries, and chairman of the Steering Committee of the Togo Project, spoke in favor of the recommendations and urged adoption.

89. Troy Bennett, Spilman Memorial Baptist Church, Kinston, asked if the 3½ year limit on the Togo project also applied to the recommendation on Hunger.

93. General Board President Ernest Glass read Recommendation No. 8 and moved its adoption. The motion carried.

Convention Trustees

The General Board recommends the following to serve as trustees of the Baptist State Convention for 1984: Gayle Parker; David Britt; and Gerald Arnold.

94. James Murphy, Durham, chairman of the Budget Committee, introduced members of his committee and said copies of the 1984 budget had been mailed to all churches and extra copies were on hand. He said that the budget is basically an explanation of work proposed for 1984 and an effort to fund the priorities; that staff pay increases are given on the basis of merit rather than inflation; that salary figures shown in the proposed budget are the actual salaries now being received by employees of the convention; that last year the convention approved a request that all fringe benefits be listed with salaries and this has been done; that the base budget is $23 million and the base, plus the challenge budget, is $24,475,000; that the Southern Baptist Convention will receive 35.4 per cent of $23 million; that $14,858,000 will be the state's working budget to be divided —Christian Higher Education, 33.67 percent; Social Services 15.56 percent; General Board 46.25 percent; and convention special 4.25 percent; and that goal for the N.C. Missions Offering is $2,800,000. Chairman Murphy moved adoption of the budget. (See No. 109)

95. Walter Adams, Center View Church, South Fork Association, made a two-part substitute motion: That each messenger receive a copy of the budget prior to the time for voting and that the time for voting on the budget be listed in the convention program. The motion was seconded by Ted Turner, Hephzibah Baptist Church, Johnston Association.

96. President Campbell said he understood the need for study before voting, but mailing the budget to all messengers in advance would be complicated and the cost prohibitive. He requested that these two matters be referred to the Executive Committee for the best method of implementation at next year's convention.

97. Mr. Adams and Mr. Turner agreed to withdraw the substitute motion and that it be referred to the Executive Committee.

98. Mr. Adams made a new substitute motion that the proposed salary for the General Secretary-Treasurer not be adopted.

99. M.O. Owens, Parkwood Baptist Church, Gastonia, spoke against the substitute motion.

100. Gene Booker, First Baptist Church, Robbins, commented that every church is mailed a copy of the budget and therefore every messenger has opportunity to study the budget in advance.

101. C.J. Bordeaux, Hillsborough, on a point of personal privilege, said that he has trouble convincing his church to give and that "many of the small churches do not see that the convention does them a lot of good..."

102. Mr. Adams said his substitute motion was no reflection on the present General Secretary-Treasurer but he thinks the salary is excessive and the increase should be rejected.

103. General Board President Glass, on a point of order, said that "this budget book does not list a salary increase for the General Secretary-Treasurer...(it) lists the salary that he is receiving right now...The constitution gives to the Executive Committee responsibility for recommending any salary increases..."

104. Asked to clarify the substitute motion the parliamentarian asked that it be restated.

105. Mr. Adams said that his motion is based on page 13 of the Budget book where the salary for General Secretary-Treasurer lists an increase.

106. President Campbell said that the budget book reflects what Dr. Ray is now receiving. His present salary could be cut, he added.

107. Mr. Adams asked, "What is the proposed budget (figure) for 1984?" and President Campbell replied, "What he is now receiving is the proposed budget amount for 1984. He got his raise last year, for 1983."

108. Mr. Adams changed his substitute motion to read "that this position be decreased next year to $40,000 base salary." The substitute motion failed to carry.

109. The original motion to adopt the budget carried in voting by show of hands.

110. With President Frank Campbell resuming the chair, James Langford, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, called attention to the new procedures on resolutions.

111. John Allen, Edenton Baptist Church, Edenton, read the "Resolved" part of Resolution No. 1 and Chairman Langford moved its adoption. (See No. 152)

The Definition of the Family Steve Hardy, Holly Hills Church, Burlington

WHEREAS, the family is a divinely-ordained institution; and

WHEREAS, the strength of the family institution is a basic index of the health of the society and the church; and

WHEREAS, we oppose any effort to include within the definition of family persons living together in a homosexual relationship;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the desire of this body be relayed to President Ronald Reagan, the North Carolina Congressional Delegation, Governor James B. Hunt, Jr., the President of the North Carolina Senate, and the speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives.

112. Steve Hardy, Holly Springs Baptist Church, Burlington, spoke in favor of the resolution.

113. President Campbell said that voting on resolutions presented at this time would be on Ballot No. 2. In response to a question as to whether voting by ballot is required, he said that according to the new procedures approved last night, "that is true."

114. Robert A. Jenkins, Buies Creek, read the "Resolved" part of Resolution No. 2 and Chairman Langford moved its adoption. (See No. 152)

The Responsibility of Parents

Paul Stam, Jr., Apex Church, Apex

WHEREAS, the primary financial, spiritual, emotional and physical responsibilities for children is vested by God in their parents; and

WHEREAS, contraceptives and abortions are routinely provided to minors in this state without the knowledge or consent of their parents; and

WHEREAS, parents are particularly well suited to counsel their children with respect to spiritual, emotional and moral aspects of contraception and abortion, of which health care personnel are often not cognizant; and

WHEREAS, an existing Memorandum of Agreement between the North Carolina Department of Human Resources and the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction provides for the referral by our public schools of minors for contraceptive and abortion services without the knowledge and consent of their parents;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers to the 1983 North Carolina Baptist State Convention oppose any provision of contraceptives or abortions to minors living at home with their parents without the knowledge and consent of their parents.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we oppose any government support for any program which provides such services without parental knowledge and consent.

WHEREAS, many sex education and family planning programs are conducted without adequate emphasis of the morality of chastity before marriage and fidelity to the marriage vows thereafter; and

WHEREAS, many such programs are conducted with undue emphasis on the use of contraceptives and abortions as solutions to the growing problem of pregnancies among unmarried minors;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we oppose sex education and family planning instruction for minors without a moral component that encourages abstinence among the unmarried and fidelity among the married.

FURTHER, RESOLVED that our churches supplement and reinforce the sex education taught in the home in order to strengthen the biblical teachings of chastity before marriage and fidelity thereafter.

With minor changes the Resolutions Committee reaffirms the 1975 Baptist State Convention's resolution, "Women in Ministry," which is as follows:

WHEREAS, the Scripture states: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Jesus Christ." (Gal. 3:28), and

WHEREAS, it is the right and responsibility of all Christians to witness in God's name through proclaiming the Word, offering physical and spiritual comfort to those in need and engaging in constructive participation in a Christian church, and

WHEREAS, women today are dedicating their lives to the Lord in Christian service in local churches and on mission fields, and

WHEREAS, the right of ordination lies within the jurisdiction of the local church,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Baptist State Convention in annual session, November 14-16, 1983, recognizing the freedom of conscience of the believer, affirms the right of the local church to ordain all persons who are called to a church-related ministry.

Matthew 25:14-30 — The parable of the talents was used as scripture background for the message on Underliving. He said that "underliving often stems from the sense of failure. The man who hid his talent withheld good and it was evil or sin. Many church members think that what they have to give is so little that it makes no difference." Dr. Shurden said, "it is time to get our talent up out of the ground and get it working for the God movement."

250. President Campbell expressed appreciation to Dr. Shurden for his messages, and to Sara Ann Hobbs, Frances Riley and Jimmy Allen for their work in preparing and producing the Missions Rally to follow.

"Target 2000 — Reaffirming the Dream" was the title of the missions rally, a presentation of North Carolina Baptist involvement in Bold Missions, including planned growth in giving, mission partnerships, foreign, home, state and associational missions, volunteers, church and community ministries. 252. Lloyd Elder, president elect of the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn., spoke.

(2) Be followers by obeying the message of Christ.

(3) Be followers who have builded our lives and churches upon the "solid rock of Christ."

(5) Be followers of Christ by firmly living on the solid foundation stone of Jesus Christ.

Annual Session of the
Greensboro Coliseum
Greensboro, North Carolina
November 14-16, 1983

1983 General Board Report To The Convention

The General Board met three times during 1983: January 25-26 at the new Baptist Building in Cary; May 24-25 at Campbell University; and September 27-28 at Caraway Conference Center. The Board, composed of 113 members, serves as the "Convention ad interim." In this capacity the General Board is charged with "general supervision" of the institutions and agencies, and with directing the work of the General Board staff and programs.

The Boards' ten subcommittees perform much of the Boards' function of directing the work of staff and programs. These are: Business Management; Christian Higher Education; Christian Life and Public Affairs; Christian Social Services; Church Programs; Communications; Missions; Evangelism; Stewardship; and Youth and Campus Ministries. These meet on a regular three times a year schedule and for called meetings as needed.

The Executive Committee, composed of 18 members, is the "General Board ad interim" and meets nine times a year. This group serves for the General Board and the Convention as the personnel committee, budget, plans, and policies committee.

The 1983 General Board functions include:

1. New Baptist Building

The new building located at 205 Convention Drive, Cary, NC, was completed and occupied in December 1982 by the General Board staff, Baptist Foundation, and Biblical Recorder. Dedication services were held as part of the January 25-26, 1983 Board meeting. Costs to the Convention were more than $100,000.00 under the $750,000.00 limit-of-cost to the Convention set by the 1981 Convention. This limit referred to the cost difference between income from the sale of the old building and gifts received, and the total construction costs.

During the first year more than 150 church and associational groups involving over 2000 persons have visited and toured the new facility.

2. Cecil A. Ray Resigns

Cecil A. Ray, general secretary-treasurer, presented his resignation to the General Board on September 27 to be effective December 31, 1983. He announced his acceptance of the position as National Director for the Southern Baptist Convention's Planned Growth in Giving—a 15-year Bold Mission Thrust support program.

Roy J. Smith, Associate General Secretary, was elected to serve as the acting General Secretary-Treasurer during the interim period, beginning January 1, 1984.

3. Search Committee Named

The Convention's constitution assigns to the General Board the responsibility of bringing a recommendation for a General Secretary-Treasurer position. In order to fulfill this responsibility the General Board elected a search committee composed of:

Rev. Lamar J. Brooks, chairman, Wilmington, Winter Park Church;

Mrs. Hoyle (Dot) Allred, Gastonia, Parkwood Church;

Rev. Harold Bennett, Burnsville, West Burnsville Church;

Rev. Billy H. Cline, Asheville, Merriman Avenue Church;

Mr. J. Edwin Collette, Winston-Salem, First Church;

Rev. Joe Coltrane, Lewisville, Lewisville Church;

Mrs. Frank (Betty) Gilreath, Charlotte, St. John's Church;

Rev. Ernest Glass, Charlotte, Shamrock Drive Church;

Mr. Grover Howell, Weldon, Weldon Church;

Mr. Seth Macon, Greensboro, First Church;

Dr. Burgess Marshbanks, Lillington, Memorial Church, Buies Creek;

Rev. A.L. McGee, Castle Hayne, Calvary Church;

Rev. James I. Murphy, Durham, Hope Valley Church;

Rev. Alan Sasser, Hickory, Viewmont Church; and

Rev. Leon Smith, Goldsboro, First Church.

4. Convention Debt

During the past 6 years the Convention has endeavored to pay off its indebtedness. In 1977 when this objective was set the debt amounted to almost $1,800,000.00 and was owed to Wachovia Bank. The final amount of this debt will be paid in this year (1983). During this time property assets have been increased by about four and a half million dollars including improvements at Fruitland, Caraway, Campus Student Centers (Pembroke) and the new Baptist Building. With the payments scheduled for this year the Convention will not owe funds to any lending firm. The only debts will be "internal debts." This is money owed to the Convention's general fund. The internal debts as of December 30, 1983 are estimated to be:

Fruitland Bible Institute - $282,054.39

Computer for the Convention - $119,246.05

New Baptist Building - $267,582.06

Pembroke Student Center - $7,434.15

An accurate account of the Convention's internal debts will be included in the auditor's report for 1983, and published in the 1983 edition of the Annual.

A repayment plan for these obligations is provided in the 1984 budget and will be included in the budgets of the following three years.

5. North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Caswell

A recommendation from the General Board to the 1983 Convention calls for approval of plans to upgrade the buildings at the Assembly and enter into a $3,000,000.00 capital funds campaign (see recommendation). Earlier in the year the Committee announced that interest had been expressed by potential buyers wishing to purchase the Caswell Assembly property from the Convention. The Committee indicated it would fulfill its responsibilities to the convention as the Assemblies Committee by giving careful consideration to the merits of such offers. The Committee also assured Baptists that if any offer seemed to merit consideration it would be presented to the November Convention for Convention decision. Actually the Committee at no point considered an offer as deserving the attention of the Convention.

6. Caraway Conference Center

Plans for an addition to the Conference Center were approved by the General Board and construction work has begun. The improvements will add 32 guest rooms and five conference rooms. The new construction will proceed as funds are received from Convention budget allocations, North Carolina Missions offering, and Conference Center revenue.

7. Convention Partnerships

The North Carolina/West Virginia partnership is in the third year and reports indicate an on-schedule success in the starting of new churches. During the first three years 59 new congregations have been established. This is one short of the number needed to be on schedule for the goal of 100 new churches. A new partnership with the European Baptist Convention was approved by the 1982 Convention with instructions for the General Board to formulate partnership guidelines and announce these. This has been accomplished. A third partnership with Togo is being recommended by the General Board. The 1982 Convention also approved the idea of a Togo partnership, but with the condition that details involved would be presented to the 1983 Convention. This Togo partnership is part of the General Board's recommendations to the Convention.

8. 1984 Cooperative Program Budget

The Cooperative Program budget recommended for 1984 calls for a base budget of $23,000,000.00 and with an additional challenge budget of $1,475,000.00. The proposed budget as presented to the Convention carries explanation of the General Board staff salary administration system showing present salaries as adjusted during the year by the merit system.

9. Planned Growth in Giving

This is a 15-year program designed to lead Baptists in growth in giving as individuals and churches. The Southern Baptist Convention adopted goal for this effort calls for increased individual gifts to the churches from 3 billion to 20 billion and in Cooperative Program gifts to 2½ billion. The General Board is recommending Convention adoption of this program.

1. Church Annuity Plan

The General Board recommends that the Convention adopt the proposed Southern Baptist Protection Program Church Annuity Plan as amended and restated effective as of January 1, 1988.

2. Togo Partnership

The General Board recommends that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina join with the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Togo Mission in a three and one-half year partnership, beginning January 1, 1984. We recommend further that the general objectives, proposed funding procedures and the organization as outlined be adopted. Specific guidelines and budget will be proposed by the Partnership Steering Committee, decided by the General Board Executive Committee, and publicized in every appropriate way. The Committee will be set up by the Executive Committee.

3. 1984 Budget

The General Board recommends that the proposed 1984 Program and Budget proposals be approved as printed and distributed to the Baptist State Convention.

4. World Hunger Recommendation

The General Board recommends that beginning January 1, 1984, World Hunger offerings coming to the Baptist State Convention and otherwise undesignated be divided 60 percent to the Foreign Mission Board, 20 percent to the World Hunger and NC/Togo Partnership, 15 percent to the Home Mission Board, and 5 percent to a North Carolina Hunger Fund, with the 5 percent to be distributed in accord with guidelines to be proposed by the Hunger Committee.

5. North Carolina Baptist Assembly

The General Board recommends the following to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina:

- a. That we proceed with the implementation of plans already approved for the development of the physical plant. These proposals are known to us as Phase I, Phase II, Phase III. Most of Phase I has already been completed.
- b. That we aggressively promote a three-year Capital Funds campaign, in the amount of $3,000,000.00, conducted within guidelines already established by the Convention. (In searching these gifts of cash and pledges the Assemblies Committee is authorized to employ, with Executive Committee approval, a Campaign Director, for a two-year period. Salary and expenses for this Director will be paid out of funds generated through the Campaign.)
- c. That we continue to enlist and to encourage volunteer groups in the giving of labor for special improvement projects.
- d. That we express our abiding gratitude to the Baptist Men of North Carolina for their faithfully given and well planned efforts thus far...urging them to continue in their labors.

6. Baptist Hospital Request to Borrow

The General Board recommends that North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Inc. be authorized to borrow up to $86,344,000.00 to finance an expansion program which includes the demands of an inpatient-outpatient workload, overcoming inadequacies of current space and building, and the need to improve functional relationships between and within various units.

7. Planned Growth in Giving

The General Board recommends that the Baptist State Convention join the Southern Baptist Convention in a fifteen-year emphasis called PLANNED GROWTH IN GIVING that is coordi-

East - March 9-16, 1986

Piedmont - March 23-30, 1986

West - April 6-13, 1986

10. Procedure for Handling Resolutions

The General Board recommends the following procedure on a one-year trial basis as the method for handling resolutions:

A. Time for Resolutions

The Convention Format Committee supports the 1983 Program Committee schedule of three thirty-minute periods for the consideration of resolutions. The Committee recommends that discussion and voting on resolutions be limited by the Convention to these stated times. Any resolution not acted upon may be carried over to the next year if resubmitted. The three thirty-minute periods represent more time than that allocated in previous conventions.

B. Resolutions Process

1. Submit resolutions in writing to the Resolutions Committee chairman at least 30 days prior to the Convention.

2. Determine the order of consideration depending on the number and importance of the resolutions.

3. Limit the number of resolutions giving priority to new resolutions and those that significantly change resolutions voted on in previous years.

4. Have an open meeting of the Resolutions Committee prior to the Convention.

5. Print resolutions in the Biblical Recorder in the tentative order in which they are to be considered.

6. Any resolution not included in the order of consideration could be called up by a two-thirds majority vote of messengers at the Convention.

7. Last minute resolutions may be presented to the chairman of the Resolutions Committee until 8:00 PM on Monday evening of the first session of the Convention.

C. Voting Procedure

1. Resolutions Committee will introduce the resolution and read only the "resolve" portion.

2. Limit time for debate according to the importance of the resolution, and the discretion of the Resolutions Committee.

3. Use computer ballots for voting.

North Carolina/European Partnership

The Baptist State Convention voted in 1982 to enter into partnership with the 43 English-speaking missions and churches affiliated with the European Baptist Convention. The purpose of the partnership is to strengthen the witness and ministry of the European Baptist Convention through:

- (1) Strengthening the work of existing churches
- (2) Starting new churches
- (3) Securing personnel for churches and the European Baptist Convention
- (4) Creating an awareness among North Carolina Baptists of the mission opportunities available in the European Baptist Convention

The guidelines for the partnership stipulate that the partnership will be administered by an official committee of the European Baptist Convention and the North Carolina partnership committee elected by the General Board. The Baptist State Convention will respond to specific requests initiated by the European Baptist Convention's committee and approved by the North Carolina partnership committee.

Projects approved for 1984 include:

- (1) Securing a volunteer couple to serve as office secretary and treasurer of the European Baptist Convention for a period of two years.
- (2) Enlisting teams for simultaneous revivals in the fall of 1984.
- (3) A $20,000 loan for church extension
- (4) Enlisting 14 student summer missionaries
- (5) Assistance in preparing promotional materials
- (6) The distribution of the European Baptist Convention newsletter, Highlights, to the churches in North Carolina.

Pastor/Church Relations

Pastor/Church Relations provide basic, factual informational services for pastors and churches. As churches lose a pastor by retirement or call to another church, guidance and assistance is offered in the search for a new pastor. Pastors coming to a completion of their present field of service are shared with available Pastor Search Committees.

Associational Correlation

In 1983, this department has worked in partnership with 30 Associational Directors of Missions providing literature, availability, and current data on Southern Baptist pastors and staff. Together we share the needs and hurts of ministers and churches.

Crisis Ministry

Ministry is a part of life and faces the emergencies and difficulties of broken relationships. Pastors and church staff hurt and cry and need a friend. Fifteen crisis situations were ministered through this office.

Support Ministry

All human beings need support and affirmation particularly those who may be recently retired, suddenly fired, or soon-to-begin servants of Christ. In the past year, 170 support/affirmation opportunities were provided by Pastor/Church Relations.

Ministerial Students

Southern Baptist Seminaries are leading the world in currently preparing and equipping 11,000 ministerial students. The office of Pastor/Church Relations assisted ministerial students from all of our seminaries in their beginning pilgrimage of ministry.

Career Guidance

Our office aided 60 ministers and staff personnel in their desire to retool, restructure, and reorganize their skills in outreach ministry.

Pastor Search Committees

This year 172 Pastor and Church Staff Search Committees were assisted as they began their search. Many of these were in-the-field training sessions and other conferences.

Robert H. Bruhn, director

Convention Trustees

The present trustees of the Convention were selected at the 1982 meeting of the Convention. They are: David M. Britt and W. Gale Parker of Raleigh; and Gerald Arnold of Lillington. Trustees of the Convention constitute the officers of the corporation, "Trustees of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc.". David M. Britt was duly selected to serve as president, Gerald Arnold as vice president, and W. Gale Parker as secretary.

Functions of the trustees and the corporation include the execution of deeds of conveyance, contracts and other documents pursuant to directions from the Genral Board or the Executive Committee. Between 1 August 1982 (date of last report) and 1 September 1983 the trustees were not called upon to execute any document on behalf of the corporation or to perform any other duty prescribed by the constitution or bylaws of the Convention.

David M. Britt, president

Business Management

During the past year, the Business Management Division has strived to live up to its purpose of receiving and distributing funds, and transacting the business affairs of the Convention in an orderly and efficient manner. Monthly reports of transactions and receipts are given to the Executive Committee and each department/division director enabling them to keep abreast of their budget balances. The Business Division is very proud of the new facilities provided. The space is far more enjoyable and makes for more efficient work. Minor adjustments in lighting, heating, cooling, etc. are being made as we settle into our new building.

Personnel

Experienced and well-trained personnel strengthen the business transactions of the Convention. Fortunate indeed was the addition of Forrest Russell, a CPA with exceptional capabilities in the financial field. Tom Greene, with his knowledge and expertise in auto-fleet work, plus a staff of secretaries and bookkeepers with years of commitment and experience give the business division a strong staff. Data Processing staff are growing in knowledge and providing some services that were not available in years past. The loss of a capable secretary in the Retirement Planning Department adds to the extra challenging work for Sam O'Neal in a time when more and more applicants are being enlisted in the Annuity Program.

Assemblies

North Carolina Baptist Assembly has had one of its greatest years in attendance. Many excellent reports of good programs, personal commitment, and changed lives are being received.

Attendance at Caraway Conference Center continues to increase. Construction has started on an addition which will meet needs for additional bedrooms and conference rooms.

Richard D. Smith, director

Data Processing

Expanding to new areas and improving the old are two goals of the Baptist State Convention's Data Processing Department. During the last year, several departments and agencies have been brought on-line with the Convention's IBM System/38. These include: Brotherhood, Church Programs, and the North Carolina Baptist Foundation. Training and support of these additional computer users has become an expanding area of our work as each new program is written and each new piece of equipment is added.

Even as these new areas are added, day-to-day maintenance of the old areas continues. Churches across the state help us with this maintenance by keeping us posted of corrections and changes in staff and officers in their individual churches.

Camp Caraway and Conference Center

Camp Caraway and Conference Center serves the convention and churches by making services and facilities available for camps, conferences and retreats. The youth camp is used exclusively for Royal Ambassador camps during the summer. The facilities serve approximately 100 convention meetings, and approximately 500 church and other groups during the year. All operational funds are generated, with all convention allocated funds going into debt retirement and capital improvements. An additional wing consisting of thirty-three bedrooms and four conference rooms is under construction, with completion date dependant upon available funds. Such an addition will allow us to provide better for convention planned meetings, as well as serve more church groups.

Our Mission Continues

The North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Fort Caswell is a state-wide retreat and conference center provided as a ministry of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The Assembly's purpose is to provide the facilities for the lodging, dining, classroom, and recreational needs of the guest with the challenge to blend the historical and environmental appeal of Fort Caswell with cheerful Christian service to create an environment that fosters spiritual enrichment. Through fulfilling this purpose, we express our ministry "Labor in service of men for the glory of God".

The Assembly hosted approximately 7,188 persons during the summer of 1983. The conferences focused on various aspects of Christian life including youth evangelism, music training, world missions, and youth ministries.

The Assembly continues to increase its year-round services. Spring-fall visitors to the Assembly enjoy recreational and spiritual retreats for pastors, deacons, choirs, associations, and youth groups.

Volunteer Help Rebuild

The highlight of 1983 has been the overwhelming response of North Carolina Baptist Men to the physical plant needs of the Assembly. Three projects received extensive improvements and renovations by volunteers. The old cafeteria building, replaced in 1978, was converted to a recreation center with a snack bar and an activity area. The old cafeteria had served as a storage building since 1978. The new administration building was completed by Baptist Men and the Assembly offices moved March 1, 1983. Volunteers quickly converted the old office to a church group cottage for twenty people. This renovation is the first of several planned to return the campus to much of its original condition and layout.

The Future

The Assembly is continuing to implement the long-range plan established in 1979 to rebuild the campus. The majority of the cost is renovation of old buildings. The long-range plan focuses on preserving the nature of the two hundred forty-eight acre facility to serve assembly guests while emphasizing the prophecy in Isaiah 2:4 "They shall beat swords into plow shares and spears into pruning hooks and study war no more".

Retirement Planning

As of August 31, 1983, in North Carolina there were 3,278 staff members in 2,329 churches and associations participating in the Southern Baptist Retirement Program.

As of August 31, 1983, we had processed the following:

168 - Southern Baptist Retirement Program

applications

23 - Applications for Widow's Benefits

45 - Applications for Age Retirement benefits

610 - Retirement Program Upgrades

The church's response to upgrading the staff member's retirement program continues to be encouraging. Ten (10%) percent of his/her annual compensation (salary, housing allowance) should be the minimum. In 1982 North Carolina reported 1,102 upgrades! This was the best year we have ever had.

The following Baptist agencies participate in the retirement program:

Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc.

Biblical Recorder, Inc.

North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc.

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

North Carolina Homes, Inc.

North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Inc.

Campbell University

Chowan College

Gardner-Webb College

Meredith College

Wake Forest University

Wingate College

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

1983 has been a year of change and challenge. The new Social Security laws, as well as laws dealing with retirement plans, have brought increasing demands upon this department.

Mrs. Julaine Odom resigned as Department Secretary in August, to move with her family to South Carolina. A word of appreciation is in order for Mrs. Odom, who rendered valuable service to the Baptists of North Carolina.

Six (6) VIDEO TAPES are now available for churches and associations to assist in understanding the protection programs of the Annuity Board. Order from the Film Library, Baptist State Convention.

Annuity Board

Report to the 1983 Southern Baptist State Convention

The Annuity Board continues to reinforce its position as a sound financial pension board with another year of outstanding performance.

For the first time in its 65-year history, total assets administered by the board exceed the billion-dollar mark to close 1982 with $1,057,947,515, a 17.8 percent increase over 1981.

Investment income had a substantial increase in the fourth quarter to close the year with a record total of $120,502,580.

This growth has continued thus far into 1983. As of June 30, 1983, total assets held in trust by the Annuity Board totaled $1,182,313,932. This is an increase of $243,114,736 over June 30, 1982.

Premiums and dues through the first two quarters of this year reached a record $45,775,947. A year earlier, the total was $44,090,415.

As of June 30 this year, the Board paid a record $15,188,353 in benefits to 13,891 annuitants.

Church Programs

The Division of Church Programs is composed of eight programs of work - Church Building Planning, Church Music, Church Training, Sunday School, W.M.U., Church Administration, Weekday Early Education and Church Library (Media). These eight areas of work are located within five departments (Church Administration is a part of the Division Director's job description.).

The goal for Bold Mission Thrust continues to challenge the departments within the Division of Church Programs. The following three-year goals constitute the very heart beat of interest and activity. While Strengthening Families will be the theme emphasis for 1984-85, Reaching People and Developing Believers will continue as parallel emphases.

The Minister Care Team continues to function with a great deal of enthusiasm and expectation. We met three times during the year. The recommendations of the Commission on Ministry (adopted by the Convention, November 1981) continue to be very helpful.

During the second week of May each year, associational key leaders are invited to Ridgecrest Conference Center for updating and training. Each area of work within the Division is responsible for directing the training of its particular counterparts from each association. This has proven to be a very helpful time for both state convention and associational leadership. This meeting was held May 9-11, 1983. The attendance was excellent. The spirit of joint ownership and cooperation was very good.

The personnel of the Division of Church Programs numbers 31. There are 5 department directors, 11 associates, 8 secretaries, 1 administrative assistant, 1 bookkeeper, 2 camp directors, 2 permanent part-time associates and the division director.

There were several personnel changes during the year. December, 1982 Phil Stone, Minister of Education at Wilkesboro Baptist Church, Wilkesboro, NC, began work as Associate in the Sunday School Department for Youth Work and ASSIST Development to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Bill Byrd. There were several changes in the WMU Department. Mrs. Linda Love, Secretary and Receptionist, resigned at the end of December, 1982. Mrs. Jan High began work January 1, 1983 as Girls in Action Director and Debra McGuire resigned the position of Director of Camp Mundo Vista effective August 31, 1983. Mrs. Patsy Adcock, Office Secretary in the Church Training Department, resigned March 31, 1983 to move with her husband to a church field in Gastonia. April 1, 1983, Mrs. Faye Comer transferred from the Communications Division to begin work in this position. On September 15, 1983, Gwenn McCormick resigned as Director of the Church Building Planning Department to become Director of the Department of Church Architecture at the Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tennessee.

Program directors have been ably assisted by a great host of special and approved workers throughout the state.

Burrell F. Lucas, director

Church Building Planning

The workload of this department has been heavier this year because of a generally favorable climate for church building. Lower interest rates and building costs the first half of the year have given an impetus to church construction. A pent-up demand for new facilities and a renewed emphasis on church growth have also contributed to increased building activity.

This interest in church building was reflected in high attendance at the three state building conferences at Goldsboro, Greensboro, and Asheville. These conferences are designed for building committees, church staff members, architects, contractors, and those offering products and services related to church buildings. In the conferences attention is given to organizing for a building project, to surveys and studies that are essential to the planning process, to raising funds for the building, and to principles involved in good design for educational buildings and worship centers.

Churches should be aware of the services available to them through this department and the Church Architecture Department in Nashville. These services include on-site consultation and evaluation of existing facilities, plot development plans, and floor plan studies for either renovation or new buildings. These services can contribute to well-designed buildings that meet the organizational, administrative, and ministry needs of the church.

Additional assistance is available to our churches in the area of building finance. Seven in-state consultants who work by assignment through this department offer the Challenge To Build/Together We Build program. Through this program churches can generally raise over a three-year period up to twice the amount of their annual budget income. Our consultants are now involved in a record number of these programs because churches have learned that they can save hundreds of thousands of dollars in interest, if they have a capital fund-raising campaign before they start construction. In addition to fund raising this program can also be a unitive force in bringing the church family to a new level of togetherness for the building program.

Church Music

The Church Music Department has experienced another exciting year as we have endeavored to strengthen music programs of the local churches through the training of music leaders and members in a variety of experiences.

The department participated in the SBC theme of "Reaching People Through Instrumental Music" by encouraging the development of instrumental work at the local church and associational levels. Thirty-six persons participated in instrumental work provided during the Youth/Adult Music Conference with three rehearsals each day and culminating the week's work with a special concert. An Instrumental Seminar was sponsored in October for instrumentalists from the seven Baptist colleges/universities. The seminar was held at Wingate College under the direction of G. Douglas Smith, professor of music, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

During the year, the department provided the following programs and services.

- * three retreats for 400 part-time music directors
  - * music schools in 18 small churches
  - * Methods & Materials Clinics (Raleigh, Greensboro, Hickory, Asheville) attended by 197 age-group and instrumental leaders

  - * Concert in June for the opening session of Church Music Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest
  - * October concert at First Church, Kannapolis in celebration of the church's 75th anniversary
  - * Concert in November for the Baptist Men's Convention, Greensboro

The department hosted Max Lyall, professor of music at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, in a series of appearances. He served on the faculty of Children's Choir Camp and Youth/Adult Music Conference at North Carolina Baptist Assembly; during each of these weeks, he served as choral accompanist and presented two concerts. He presented concerts for the Children's Choir Camp at Mars Hill College, for the Youth Music Week at Camp Truett, and the chapel service at Fruitland Bible Institute. Under sponsorship of the department, he presented concerts in churches in Wingate, Charlotte, Cary, Canton, Hickory, Statesville, and Sanford.

The Music Department cooperated with other departments in three major projects: the teaching of the "Understanding Books" for the various age groups, the tour of regional meetings for Directors of Missions, and The Preschool/Children Leader Seminar at Caraway.

During the past year, 161,987 were enrolled in local church music programs - a 2.2 percent increase over the preceding year. These persons were from 3074 churches - a 2 percent increase in the number of churches reporting. The greatest increase in the number of groups was in the area of youth choirs - a 20.2 percent increase for a total of 2070 reported youth choirs. Next was a 14.5 percent increase in the number of reported adult choirs.

The department staff consists of Charles Gatwood, director; Charles Storey, associate, and Becki Canterberry, office secretary. We continue to appreciate the opportunity of serving North Carolina Baptists.

Sunday School

Reaching and Teaching!
Quantity and Quality!
Birthing and Growing!
Discovering and Developing!

Good Sunday Schools are still built on two foundational concepts: "reaching all the prospects for the church" and "teaching the Biblical revelation." A church that has a quality Bible teaching program produces teachers and members who are concerned with reaching more, or larger quantities, of people for life-changing Bible study.

The Sunday School Department staff is committed to this two-track strategy. Programs are designed and implemented to help churches and associations reach more people and to teach all ages more effectively. A quality Sunday School is in the people-reaching business. However, to keep on reaching people, a Sunday School must have the quality of teaching and ministry that continues to make folk want to be involved.

Reaching-Teaching Goals

1. 855,000 enrolled by October 1, 1985! With only two years remaining in the 8.5 by '85 growth emphasis, North Carolina Southern Baptist churches are still short of the goal by 200,000. An average enrollment increase of 15% per year per church is required to reach the goal. However, with approximately 4 million unchurched North Carolinians, plus over 400,000 of our own resident members not enrolled in Sunday School, the goal is obtainable, and might be too low!

Sunday School enrollment did a .7% turn-around in 1982 from a -3.2% growth rate to over +.4%. Sunday Schools are deciding to grow again!

Enlargement Campaigns Major Factor

From the mountains to the coast, from state lines north and south, Enlargement-Improvement Campaigns will have impacted 25 associations by year's end. Included are Pee Dee, Yadkin, Alexander, Mecklenburg, Atlantic, Ashe, Catawba River, Johnston, Sandhills, Theron Rankin, Raleigh, Yates, Transylvania, Kings Mountain, Yancey, Stone Mountain, Caldwell, Truett, Randolph, Neuse, Rowan, Sandy Creek, Tuckaseegee, Brushy Mountain, and Robeson.

Check to see if your association is scheduled for 1984:

- * Chowan, January 28-February 5
- * Eastern, February 25-March 4
- * New River, March 17-25
- * Tar River, March 17-25
- * Flat River, March 17-25

Training for over 200 potential campaign directors was provided through clinics in Wilmington, Gastonia, Whiteville and Caraway.

Participating Churches Reap Specific Benefits

About one-third of the churches in the associations are participating. The Raleigh-Durham Campaign illustrates how God is blessing campaigns in the participating churches.

“The Raleigh-Durham Metro Sunday School Enrollment Clinic, held April 15-23, 1983, is history now, but the results will continue to accumulate for many years. Forty-seven guest directors, one hundred eighty-four age-group specialists, and fifty clinicians along with leaders from the Sunday School Board and North Carolina Convention came together to lead a clinic that will have a positive impact on the cities of Raleigh and Durham, North Carolina, for years to come.

Forty-seven churches participated in the clinic. On Sunday afternoon during the People Search Blitz 2,298 specialists and guest directors shared with the churches the basics of Sunday School growth. As a result of these sessions and other sessions during the week with lay leadership from the churches, 298 new units were started. These units fall in these categories: 24 new Cradle Roll departments, 13 Homebound departments, 154 new Adult units, 54 new Youth units, 31 new Children’s units, and 22 new Preschool units.

A total of 526 new workers were enlisted during the week of the clinic. This does not include the large number of new workers that the churches will enlist as a result of the growth emphasis.”

—Sunday School Growth Journal August 1983

Campaign "Coordinators" give guidance during the twelve-months of preparation for a good campaign, and during the campaign week. These are: Marvin Chapman, Alden Angline, Roy Holder, Jay Lawson, Bobby Stafford, Johnny Ross, Phil Stone, Windy Rich and Jack Bagwell.

The Kings Mountain Campaign, with 17 churches participating illustrates how large numbers of people can be enrolled with such an intensive week's work. During the People Search on Sunday afternoon 3,387 new prospects were discovered bringing the total prospects in active files in those 17 churches to 20,637. Twenty-eight new teaching units were added during the week, forty new workers enlisted, and 447 new people were enrolled.

Vacation Bible School Proven For Outreach Effectiveness

VBS summary reports for 1982 (1983 summaries are not available until January) indicate significant evangelistic opportunities. Enrollment was 282,523 with 4,269 making professions of faith. There were 2,984 church schools, 112 mission schools, and 397 Backyard Bible Clubs. Of the total number enrolled, 17,940 were adults. Total gifts to missions was $141,995. Prospects reported discovered through VBS totalled 45,113 with projected totals over 78,000 possible prospects.

In this year's VBS Associational Team Faculty Clinics 594 persons from 76 associations were trained in clinics held in Williamston, Jacksonville, Durham, Aberdeen, Hendersonville, and Statesville.

Growth With Adult Start-A-Class and Homebound

Conferences in Greenville, Greensboro, and Hickory trained 167 from 47 churches in 29 associations in how to create new adult classes using Start-A-Class teams. Special training in Homebound work was provided at Williamston, Caraway, Clinton, Hickory and Waynesville.

2. 8,500 Leadership Diplomas earned by October 1, 1985! Since there is a distinct correlation between the amount of training received and a worker's teaching effectiveness, the leadership diploma is one measurement of progress in quality improvement. So great has been the response to a new computer facilitated reporting and encouragement plan, statistics are not available at press time. This new plan allows a church to enroll every Sunday School worker in a diploma plan and receive quarterly transcripts of each worker's progress toward each diploma. The church can also receive a tabulated report of what study courses should be offered to help workers earn diplomas.

Workers With All Ages Get Specialized Training

- * Teach/Win/Develop Clinics in Marion and Oxford for 370 people.
- * Weekday Early Education conference for 151 persons from 34 churches in 18 associations.

- * August Mini-Weeks at Caraway Conference Center for 141 persons.
- * Anticipated record attendances in fall all-age training conventions for over 800 at Ridgecrest, over 300 at Caraway and over 400 in Fayetteville.
- * State Library/Media Conference in Charlotte for approximately 275 persons from across the state.
- * Assisted with personnel and finances for associational training schools in Pee Dee, Beulah, South Roanoke, Brier Creek, Kings Mountain, and Burnt Swamp Associations.

Bible Teaching Through Radio, TV

- * Weekly half-hour television and 15-minute radio International Sunday School lesson programs with teachers Frances Cooke, James Hagwood, Ray Hodge and James Murphy. Programs are released to cablevision outlets, hospitals and nursing homes, and are beginning to be requested for use in weekly workers' meetings.
- * Provision of video tapes for circulation through film library includes: "Basics of Sunday School Growth," "Guiding Preschoolers in Learning," "Guiding Children in Learning," "Guiding Adults in Learning," and "Tools For The Task."

Associates and Secretaries Do The Work

Department Directors get to write the reports, but the associates and secretaries are the real work force. My appreciation is genuine for an excellent Sunday School Department team. These are the folk to contact for answers about:

- * Adult Work, State Training Events - Johnny Ross
- * Youth Work, ASSIST Development - Phil Stone
- * Children's Work, Vacation Bible School - Janice Haywood
- * Preschool Work, Weekday Early Education, Media/Library - Bob Goode
- * Office management, campaign details, correspondence from Department Director, Preschool and Youth Associates - Linda Hicks
- * Literature and resources, VBS and state training events, correspondence from Adult and Children's Associates - Eva Teague

The volume of work is accomplished because of the work as needed of part-time secretaries Eva Hocutt, Betty Doyle, Alice Mason, and Pam Furlow.

We are committed to "Reaching and Teaching" in Christ's Name!

Woman's Missionary Union

Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, seeks to teach Baptists about missions, lead them into an active ministry of prayer and financial support of missions, and help them become more involved in missions. The following programs and activities of Woman's Missionary Union are planned and conducted with these tasks in mind.

Leader Training

A major emphasis with WMU continues to be leader training, as it is only through trained leaders that the mission goals will be accomplished.

Of special importance is the training of associational leadership, as these women have the responsibility for the WMU program in the churches in their associations.

Two training sessions were held in 1983. The first was in the spring and was held in 18 different regional locations with approximately 500 associational WMU leaders attending the two-hour training conferences. The summer training, held regionally in July and August, was attended by 578 associational leaders representing 70 associations.

Other training events included the following:

- Acteens council training for associational Acteens council members and their leaders. There were two regional meetings with 145 attending.
- A special training conference for leaders of Acteens, GAs and Mission Friends. This conference was held in three locations, and reached 480 women.
- Two missions camp workshops were held, which were designed to help churches and associations conduct summer camping programs. Fifty-one people attended.
- WMU joined with others in the Church Programs Division in conducting a seminar for workers with preschoolers and children. One hundred forty-three persons attended.

Retreats and Conventions

Each year WMU sponsors various inspirational and informational meetings for women and girls. In 1982-83, these included a Baptist Young Women and Young Baptist Women Convention, with 409 attending; a Christian Service Corps Seminar, with 26 attending; a Baptist Women Retreat for 276 women; the State Acteens Convention, with 1182 junior and senior high girls in attendance.

The WMU Annual Session was held at the Ridgecrest Conference Center, and was attended by approximately 2400 persons.

A highlight each year are the two retreats held for inmates of the two women's correctional facilities of North Carolina. One for committed youthful offenders was held at Camp Mundo Vista in July. The summer camp staff planned and assisted with this retreat. The second, held in September, is for women who have been incarcerated for longer periods of time.

Summer Camps

Camp Mundo Vista, owned and operated by Woman's Missionary Union, offered a camping experience to even more Girls in Action and Acteens than before. In addition to six regular length weeks of camp, three weeks of "mini sessions" were held. These sessions proved to be popular because they were less expensive and were shorter in length. In all, 1644 Girls in Action attended Mundo Vista, as did 343 Acteens. Seventy-one Acteens also attended a mini camp prior to the beginning of the regular camping season. Debra McGuire was camp director, and was assisted by 50 other young women who served on the camp staff.

In addition to the nine weeks of camp at Mundo Vista, WMU assisted three associational camps - Camp Cale, Camp Joy, and Camp Truett - by providing staff and programming, led by Alice King.

WMU Growth

North Carolina can be proud of the fact that Woman's Missionary Union of this state is the largest in the Southern Baptist Convention with more members and more organizations than any other state. In 1982, there were 139,705 members and 10,343 organizations.

For the second straight year, WMU experienced growth. This is significant in these days when more and more women are working outside the home and there are ever-increasing demands on their time and energies.

Part of the growth is due to a National Enlargement Plan which was concluded in September, 1983. Personal contacts have been made with approximately 300 churches that have no WMU. Over one-third of these have since begun some form of WMU work!

WMU growth is also being aided by new programs that have as a goal getting WMU in every language congregation and in every newly organized church and mission in North Carolina.

Special Emphases

A little-known but important WMU emphasis is that of individual study. While no records are kept, many hundreds of Girls in Action are involved in an individual study program called Missions Adventures, and Acteens are equally involved in their program called Studiact. These programs include scripture memorization, and a heavy emphasis on mission involvement, and for Acteens, personal witnessing. Acteens who reach the various levels of achievement can be awarded scholarships because of their work. To date, the following Baptist colleges have awarded Acteens Studiact Scholarships: Campbell University, 35; Gardner-Webb, 43; Meredith, 18; and Wingate, 12. For adult women, there are many study courses and diploma plans for individual study. From 1981 to 1982, the number of WMU course credits and diplomas awarded more than doubled.

Weeks of Prayer and Special Offerings

Woman's Missionary Union has the responsibility and privilege of promotion of the special offerings and seasons of prayer for missions. WMU seeks to make these weeks opportunities for learning and prayer as well as times to support the work financially.

In 1982, North Carolina gave the following through these offerings:

Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions - $5,621,450.95; Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions - $2,512,682.61 as of August 31, 1983; North Carolina Missions Offering - $430,688.00 as of September 22, 1983.

Organization

Woman's Missionary Union is governed by an Executive Board which is composed of the officers, age-level chairmen, and 15 members-at-large from the ten state regions. The officers are Mrs. Bea McRae, president; Mrs. Norma Lewis, first vice president; Mrs. Anne Carter, second vice president; Mrs. Mary Stan-cil, recording secretary; and Mrs. Shannon Wyrick, assistant recording secretary.

The staff is composed of Nancy Curtis, executive director; Suthell Walker, Baptist Women director; Pat Ritchie, Mission Friends/Baptist Young Women director; Carolyn Hopkins, Acteens director; Jan High, Girls in Action director; Pina Maynard, administrative assistant; Diane Hurlbut, financial secretary; and Kay Bisette, secretary/receptionist. Leland Bingham serves WMU as the resident manager of Camp Mundo Vista.

Woman's Missionary Union is committed to all programs of the Baptist State Convention, and endeavors in every way possible to fulfill the "helper" role of auxiliary status.

Communications

The Communications Division serves as the general public relations and public information service for the several General Board departments, divisions, committees, councils and task forces. In the main, this involves the production of publications and audio visual products for distribution by General Board programs of work. The Division also serves as the media relations office with both the denominational and secular media.

The Communications Division assumed responsibilities for several additional areas in connection with the operation of the new Baptist Building in Cary. The Division now operates the Quick-Copy (Print) Shop, Mail Services and Bulk Storage area, programs formerly assigned to the Business Management Division. The Mail Services Area is now responsible for all mailings conducted by the various General Board departments and divisions, including the regular mailings (Pastors' Monthly Mailing) and specialized mailings to particular publics. Communications is also responsible for the receptionist and telephone switchboard operations and the building tours and materials display area. Approximately 2,000 people in 141 tour groups have visited the new Baptist Building since the early part of 1983.

The Communications Division also provides a free-loan Audio Visual Library to Southern Baptist churches in North Carolina. The AV Library includes around 2,700 filmstrips, 225 motion pictures and 255 video tape cassette titles.

Communications provides audio cassette recordings services for a variety of Baptist programs. The statewide Evangelism Conference, Mars Hill Week of Christian Study and Fellowship, WMU Annual Session, Baptist State Convention Pastors' Conference and other major meetings are taped for sale distribution. Audio services for the blind include recording of the Biblical Recorder each week and Royal Service (WMU publication) each month.

A major emphasis of the division in 1983 was the promotion of ACTS (American Christian Television System), a satellite TV network to be produced by the Southern Baptist Radio and TV Commission. The Division is promoting the distribution of ACTS via cable television systems throughout North Carolina. This promotion involved several associational meetings to develop local ACTS support.

Several personnel changes occurred in 1983: Dan Euliss from director of Publications/Art to Assistant Communications Director; Jane Callaway from assistant director of Publications/Art to director of that area; Doris Clark from division secretary to publications associate; Sandy Pittman from part-time secretary to division secretary; and Esther Kidd from AV librarian to building receptionist/materials librarian. P.H. Smith, print shop manager, and Ed Hall, mail service clerk, were added to the division staff (transferred from Business Management Division). Lelia Crouch was transferred from secretary in the Brotherhood Department to mail room secretary.

The major areas of work in the Division are Publications/Art and Video/Audio Production. Their reports follow.

William H. Boatwright, director

Art/Publications

The Art/Publications Department seeks to support the General Board divisions and departments by producing promotional materials for various programs and projects. In 1983, materials were published in the form of posters, brochures, flyers, programs, bulletin inserts, and other specialty pieces.

In addition to the normal General Board materials, the Art/Publications Department assisted in various convention-wide projects. These included the annual Baptist State Convention materials, the Celebrating the Bible packet, and the God-Called Ministry paperback.

This year, the Art/Publications Department and the Communications Division won first place at the Baptist Public Relations Association Awards Competition in April. This award was given for the development of the Here's Hope campaign in 1982.

The production of this year's materials was greatly aided by the move to the new office space in Cary. This new space provided ample room to operate equipment without stopping other areas of production. The department is now located adjacent to the Video/Audio Department and the Print Shop which makes consultation more convenient and enhances continuous work production.

There were several staff changes in the department in 1983. Daniel B. Euliss, the Art/Publications Director became Assistant Director of the Communications Division. Jane L. Callaway moved up to become Art/Publications Director. A new position was created to include duties such as mechanical art production and maintenance of budget records for the department. This position, Publications Associate was filled by Doris Clark.

Jane L. Callaway, director

Video/Audio Productions

The Video/Audio Productions Department is responsible for working with other Departments within the Convention staff to provide video tapes, audio recordings, custom slide shows, and filmstrips which illustrate ministries provided through the Convention or promoted by the Convention. As Southern Baptists near the 1984 debuts of the ACTS television network and Baptist TelNet satellite distribution system, the Department will provide North Carolina Baptists with information about these opportunities, and will allow North Carolina to have an important role in the development of these modern ministries.

Video Productions

In 1983, the Department produced 39 original feature-length video programs for General Board staff departments. These programs helped promote special mission efforts, train workers, and alert Baptists to areas of need around them.

Fourteen of these productions were messages from the 1983 Seminar on the God-Called Ministry. In addition, three other programs excerpted portions from each of these messages so that church members might get a taste of the Seminar's impact. Other programs focused on: ministry with foreign language residents (The World at Hand); ministry with migrant workers (A Bible for Miguel); beginning new churches (From Church House to House Church); Christian Social Ministries (Organizing for Christian Social Ministries); churches meeting the needs of mentally retarded residents and their families (Do You See me Reaching Out? Do You Hear me Calling?); and the help that churches can get from an effective program of Church Training (Discipleship and the Church Training Challenge).

Each of these programs is made available to SBC churches in North Carolina through the Audio-Visual Loan Library of the Convention. There is no charge for check-out of video tapes, filmstrips, and motion pictures from the library.

In addition, each week a 30-minute presentation of the International Bible Lesson is seen on 14 outlets in North Carolina. Most of the outlets are hospital closed-circuit TV systems. With some revamping, the program should have a much wider market in the near future.

Audio and Audio/Visual Productions

The Department has several ongoing audio productions. First of all, the Biblical Recorder is provided free of charge on cassette tape to 268 visually-impaired people weekly in cooperation with the Department of Special Ministries. Royal Service and World Mission Journal magazines are also recorded and distributed in this way, in cooperation with North Carolina WMU and the Brotherhood Department of the Convention.

The International Bible Lesson is taught weekly in a 15-minute radio program currently aired on 8 North Carolina stations.

Several custom slide shows were prepared during the year to help General Board staff members illustrate programs carried on in large auditoriums. Darkroom and limited photographic services were also provided to the Convention. The Department is also responsible for the recording and sale of tapes of messages given at conventions and rallies throughout the year. Thousands of tapes are distributed in this way—2,100 in the first quarter of 1983 alone, in addition to the ongoing audio productions.

Evangelism

The State Evangelism Conference was held February 7-8, 1983 in Owen's Auditorium, Charlotte, N.C. The theme "Reaching People" was used to emphasize the following: Sin: The Tragedy of Humanity, Love: The Nature of God, Salvation: Our Only Hope, Witnessing: By All Means to Save Some, and Evangelism: The Church's Task.

In conjunction with the State Evangelism Conference a meeting sponsored jointly by the Evangelism Division of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Radio and Television Commission was held for Ministers in Broadcasting.

The Key Leadership Conference evangelism chairpersons were taught Revival Training Seminar materials which will be the major emphasis for 1984. The materials and programs available from the Evangelism Division were discussed and made available to the evangelism chairperson.

Many pastors conferences and associational meetings took advantage of the offer from the Evangelism Division to supply speakers and materials for their meetings. Some WMU conferences invited the personnel of the Evangelism Division to participate.

We took part in the orientation of summer missionaries at Wake Forest University and taught several evangelism emphasis days at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary; spoke to the lay witness foundation meeting at Caraway; worked with Northeast Thrust emphasis in training and supplying teams for Maryland in 1984; worked with West Virginia to supply teams for their fall revivals in 1983; trained Baptist Student Union leaders in witnessing at their annual meeting at Ridgecrest.

The first Mountain Pastors Evangelism Conference was planned and held at Ridgecrest October 7-8, 1983. Planned the fifteen regional evangelism conferences to be held in October across the state. We are working with the European Baptist Convention to provide teams for their simultaneous revival.

Prepared for the 1984 Statewide Evangelism Conference to be held February 6-7, 1984 at War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro, N.C.

J.W. Hutchens, Jr., director

Evangelism Development

The purpose of this department is to provide direction, strategy, and training for a broad spectrum of year-round evangelistic endeavor; i.e. encouraging aggressive pastoral leadership, rural as well as metropolitan applications, bi-vocational and ethnic leadership, spiritual awakening, and the mechanics of evangelism research, writing, and utilization of mass media.

Church Growth

Growing Evangelistic Churches in North Carolina, a five-hour seminar inaugurated this year, was the major strategy emphasis of the Evangelism Division during 1983. It was taught in 20 associations, involving 300 churches and more than 600 pastors and church leaders. Associations are encouraged to schedule this seminar, which is basic to planning for evangelism year round.

Revival Preparation

The Revival Training Seminar enables a church to organize and prepare in order to utilize the revival meeting for its maximum potential in reaching people. It was introduced to associational chairmen of evangelism at the Key Leadership Conference in May. Twelve associational and two regional seminars are scheduled for 1984, when Revival Training is the primary strategy for emphasis. Associations will want to plan for this seminar in view of the nationwide simultaneous revival crusade in 1986: "Good News, America. God Loves You."

Spiritual Awakening

The Prayer for Spiritual Awakening seminar continued to be available for churches and associations. Some churches are opting for a retreat or prayer revival format. Since its introduction in 1980, renewed interest is being expressed in using this means of establishing and implementing a congregational prayer ministry as the foundation of a church's total ministry.

Metropolitan Evangelism

An Urban Evangelism Consultation with Ralph Neighbour, conducted at Charlotte's Pritchard Memorial Church in May, drew a wide audience of lay people and church staff from as far away as Greenville, South Carolina. The content brought a focus on interfacing evangelism with Christian social ministries, new work, language, student, multi-family, and inner city work. A follow-up seminar on the Touch Ministry was conducted October 26-28 in which pastors and CSM directors from as many as nine associations received training in evangelistic outreach through cell groups.

Vocational Evangelists

The second annual enrichment retreat for North Carolina Vocational Baptist Evangelists and their families featured voices of experience from among their fellowship. Arnie Robertson, Clarence Nida, Bill Penley, and Baxter Walker were speakers. The 1984 retreat is scheduled at Caraway Conference Center, January 30-February 1, with Wayne Bristow of the Foreign Mission Board. In October of each year the Evangelism Division assists in the distribution of the annual directory of evangelists through the pastors mailing. We welcome inquiries about these evangelists and encourage churches to secure their leadership in revival meetings and other special programs.

Victor G. Cole, director

Personal Evangelism

The Personal Evangelism Department provides opportunities for witness training to Christians of all ages with emphasis given to several target groups such as youth, single adults and young adults. A major part of its work is to provide leadership training for key church and associational leaders who can continue training others at the local level.

Continuing Witness Training

1983 has been a year that may well be looked upon as one of the climactic years for witness training as we began CWT in North Carolina. Eighty-nine pastors, laypersons, and Southeastern Seminary students were certified during 3 national seminars held in Raleigh and Hendersonville. The Seminar, involving 9 sessions during four days, is the most demanding and intensive of all witness training processes. The major distinguishing factor is that this method provides for the multiplication of those trained - each one trained trains two more; those three each train two more, etc. A model presentation of the Gospel is also employed. Two seminars are already planned for February and April, 1984.

Single Adult Evangelism Conference

April 29-30 brought the beginning of an annual retreat for singles to learn to share their faith in all areas of life. The exciting dimension of the conference was to see singles of all ages - from late teens to the '70's - never married, divorced, and widowed share their needs and to learn how to share Christ with their peers! Another conference is planned for 1984.

Student Evangelism Teams

Three teams - one of which was in West Virginia - did a super job leading revivals in twenty-seven churches in two states. Youth and adults alike were challenged and trained by the teams to share their faith as a lifestyle. As the summer draws to a close, applications are now being readied for 1984!

Youth Evangelism Week

DiscipleYouth was the theme of this year's conference during July 4-9 at Caswell. Joe Ford, Home Mission Board, and co-author of the materials taught each morning. Buddy Freeman preached each evening to the 900 youth and adults attending. During commitment times, 251 youth made public decisions for Christ.

Youth Evangelism Conferences

Jimmy Draper and TRUTH teamed up to lead the 1983 version of the conferences. Dynamic preaching and inspiring music attempted to reach all who attended. Several hundred youth responded to the challenge of Christ voiced by his messengers.

A major decision was made following the events to move the 1984 conferences to the following dates and places: May 3 - Murfreesboro; May 4 - Winston Salem; May 5 - Asheville.

Richard W. Everett, director

Missions

There have been significant program successes in the Division of Missions in 1982-83 including:

- * Excellent response to Pentecost Sunday when 58 church congregations committed themselves to sponsor a new mission.
- * Completion of the 3rd year of partnership with West Virginia Baptists.
- * A study of ways that North Carolina Baptists can more effectively minister and witness to the prison population and their families.

West Virginia

In 1983 15 new chapels were started making a net gain of 52 in the 3-year period, 1980-83. Approximately 140 groups went from North Carolina in 1983 to help West Virginia churches. Seven first unit buildings were completed, eight more enlarged or completed by 43 construction groups. Sixty-one percent of West Virginia churches are involved as primary sponsors. There have been 15 associations sending workers. There are still 140 target communities in West Virginia needing new churches.

NCMO

Materials were prepared and distributed in record numbers for the Week of Prayer for North Carolina Missions. The 1982 goal for the offering was $2,750,000 and $2,105,693.52 (designated and undesignated) was received or just over 76%. This failure to meet the goal caused each recipient to curtail programs funded by the North Carolina Missions Offering by 24%. Some were cut out entirely in order that more strategic ones might receive better funding. The 1983 offering goal is again $2,750,000 and it is vital that the goal be met.

Area Missionaires

Leadership development continues to be one of the major goals of the area missionaries. Through the year several efforts on a regional basis have been made: the Week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill College, where 426 persons, pastors and their families, participated; "24 Hours at Ridgecrest", the Mountain Pastors Conference, where about 150 pastors and wives attended; the Mountain Directors of Missions meet each year in either Boone or Lake Junaluska; and the Mountain Pastors Evangelism Conference, held for the first time this year. Local associational efforts for leadership development are encouraged by the area missionaries as they help organize and teach both pastors and the lay persons in Seminary Extension classes. Other efforts in this direction are made in helping provide various training conferences and helping plan and carry out associational World Missions Conferences.

Resort missions is an important aspect of the work in northwestern North Carolina. Many people are coming to the various attractions or coming to live in the area, and it is important for Baptists to have a ministry with them, both to include them in our churches and to provide a witness in the campgrounds and tourist attractions. Active participation by the missionary takes place as well as encouragement offered to the associations and churches to be sensitive to the opportunities that are constantly present even in communities which may not consider themselves to be resort. Eleven summer missionaries worked in the Watauga-Avery counties area during the summer. Winter ministry includes using volunteers on two ski slopes.

Paula Williamson, US-2er appointed by the Home Mission Board, is working in the Yancey, Mitchell, and Avery Associations, helping develop an on-going youth ministry and using these youth in resort missions at various points.

Helping the rural and mountain churches and associations is a priority for the area missionary. Often it is possible to lead or teach or to help with resources that are already on the scene. At other times, help is given to the church or the association to know how to utilize the resources of the Baptist State Convention.

It is good to have this opportunity to "help those who have said yes, do the yes". Thank you for both the prayer and support for this ministry.

Northeastern North Carolina has many valuable resources to share with the state, nation and world. The greatest of these resources is the people. This was illustrated when the Chowan Association started off 1983 with a World Missions Conference. Over 16,000 in 42 churches shared together in the services. Over 100 committed themselves anew to the bold task of sharing the message of Jesus Christ to the whole world.

Some of the counties in northeastern North Carolina are experiencing a rapid growth in population. Areas are being surveyed for possible new work. The new Albemarle Mission is an example of great ministry being done when the local association and Baptist State Convention work together.

A pilot project among the migrant workers in the northeast has proven to be very successful this season. From this project new programs of ministry are already being planned for 1984.

Seminary Extension Centers continue to be a valuable resource in preparing pastors and lay leadership to do ministry together.

Associational Development

The Department of Associational Development provides encouragement and assistance in the 79 associations in helping them to develop a strong associational program and ministry to meet local needs and opportunities. During this year, 46 associations have received financial assistance for their basic associational program and for mission ministries. This assistance is being provided through the means of a cooperative agreement. This cooperative agreement involves a joint planning process between the association and the Convention through which the association is assisted with its basic program and/or mission ministries and special mission projects.

A significant number of associations have completed or are now in the process of doing long-range planning. This Department provides assistance in helping an association to determine its purpose, objectives, resources, goals, and action plans. Long-range planning is the process of providing the association with the best possible direction and approach in accomplishing its purpose and mission. It is the necessary process by which the association defines its purpose and mission and then develops a program to attain them. Good associational planning in both long-range planning and annual planning is necessary for the association to effectively achieve its purpose and to be on mission for Jesus Christ in its setting.

Christian Social Ministries

There are eleven full-time and seven part-time Christian Social Ministries programs now in progress and in 1984 an additional full-time program will be started. The full-time Directors of Christian Social Ministries are: Gayle Brown, Buncombe Association; Marvin Southard, Dan Valley Association; Robert Davis, Kings Mountain Association; James H. Royston, Mecklenburg Association; Ronald Loftis, New South River Association; Gerry Hutchinson, New River Association; Dennis Gabriel, Raleigh Association; and Marsha E. Cook, Wilmington Association. There are now vacancies in the Central, Gaston, and the Pilot Mountain Associations.

Resort Ministries

Resort Ministries is an effort of North Carolina Baptists to witness and minister in the resort and leisure time areas of our state. Basically, our program is during the summer weeks and in 1983 there were 24 summer student missionaries serving in resort areas across the state. Their ministries included drama, clowning, puppetry, Bible teaching activities, music presentation, worship services, and serving as campground chaplains. In the Boone area, we share in a year around ministry to the ski slopes.

With tourism up 12% in our state, the opportunities of Resort Ministries are greater than our resources and personnel. The challenge is ours to reach these leisure time people at a time when they are open and receptive to new experiences. It is exciting that more and more churches and associations are experiencing the challenge and joy of witnessing and ministering for Christ in resort areas.

Brotherhood

The basic task of Brotherhood in a church is to involve men and boys in missions. It is felt that perhaps at no time in its 75-year history has Brotherhood come closer to accomplishing that task as now. There are more men and boys, as well as more churches, showing an increase in participation in Brotherhood work than ever before.

Local Leadership

It is the belief of the state leadership that the ongoing participation of men and boys in mission involvement depends on the local leadership in the church. For that reason, there has been an increased emphasis on leadership training on both the state and the association level. More associational training events were held this past year than ever before. This will continue to be an emphasis in the years to come.

Conferences and Retreats

One of the ways in which the state Brotherhood office helps 162/Baptist State Convention the local church is by providing conferences and retreats that will enable those in the church to become more knowledgeable about ways in which men and boys can better understand their place in ministry. Conferences such as World Missions Week at Caswell drew one of the largest crowds ever as children, youth, and adults were on the campus to learn about missions from a world perspective. Also, Royal Ambassador Congresses, Lay Renewal Weekends, Lay Witness Training, See College Days for RAs, Correctional Ministries Conference were only a few that aided men and boys to become more deeply involved in missions.

Royal Ambassador Camps

Camp Caraway for boys (the state Royal Ambassador camp) enjoyed its 20th year of operation under the leadership of Richard Brunson, a consultant in the Brotherhood Department. The attendance was an increase over the 1982 camping season and the staff employed to lead the young men proved to be one of the best ever. Many life-changing decisions were made by the campers during the nine weeks of camp. In addition to the nine weeks at Camp Caraway, the Brotherhood sponsored a roving staff, which directed weeks for boys at Camp Joy, Camp Truett, and Camp Cale.

North Carolina Baptist Men

The NC Baptist Men will again receive 3% from the NC Mission Offering this year. NC Baptist Men works hand in hand with the Brotherhood Department to enlist men in various ministries of work. At the present, there are 14 different ministries that NC Baptist Men are involved in. David Langford, Brotherhood Director for the North Carolina Baptist Convention, also serves as Executive Director of NC Baptist Men. Through its overseas mission ministry, NC Baptist Men found themselves in countries such as Brazil, Chile, Honduras, Guadeloupe, Antigua, Barbados, and others. In every case, these men were using their God-given talents to share the Good News with those who needed their help. NC Baptist Men is built around the belief that God has, indeed, gifted his people and, as a result, expects them to go and share their gift! One of the most exciting events to happen was the dedication of the Disaster Relief Van. The van, along with the tractor which pulls it, is valued at over $60,000 and will be equipped to feed in times of emergencies over 3,000 meals per day. Teams are now being enlisted to help in this ministry.

Staff

For the first time in several years, the Brotherhood saw no staff change. This in itself has helped in moving men and boys in missions. Each staff member feels strongly that the Lord, through His leadership in the lives of men, is bringing a day of excitement and challenge.

David Langford, director

Chaplaincy and Language Ministries

Chaplaincy

Ministry to inmates within the prison system of our state continues to hold top priority for the department. On site chaplaincy training provides invaluable experience for seminary students. These programs are held at Central Prison and Women's Correction Center in Raleigh. Six of the seven students trained in the program have since become full-time correction chaplains. The department assists four associations with funding to provide part-time chaplains at units within the association. Ground work has been underway to provide associations with a comprehensive program for training volunteers for chaplain ministries. This will include hospitals, prisons, rest homes, small industrial and law enforcement programs. The training program will be available in 1984 for associational usage.

Twenty-eight Southern Baptist Military Chaplains have served military posts in North Carolina in 1983. The department takes pride that these missionary servants to the military are shown exceptional care and attention as your representatives as they minister in your behalf in North Carolina.

Language

1983 has been a challenging year for the Language Department. Persons assisting in an excellent program of outreach are: Rev. Mauricio Vargas, minister to Spanish persons and coordinator of the Migrant Missions program; Rev. William O. Hern, minister to Middle-Eastern persons and coordinator of Literacy and Interfaith Witness programs; Rev. Sei Hun Kim, minister to Korean persons. These persons have assisted the beginning of four new ethnic missions with the embryo of several other units underway. Migrant Missions held its second pilot program in Chowan Association with outstanding success. Fourteen associations have reported growing work among migrant persons. Interfaith Witness has expanded its focus on the cult groups of our country. Training consultants is a major emphasis for 1984.

New language units are projected for ten North Carolina cities in 1984. Twenty-four known opportunities await funding and leadership. The opportunity for this mission program for North Carolina Baptists is overwhelming.

Burke E. Holland, director

Church Extension

164/Baptist State Convention

teams of trained consultants will pour into cities in North Carolina in 1984 to help defend churches against the onslaught of community change.

The events will be PACT blitzes, intensive campaigns to help churches in traditional neighborhoods redeem their reason for being, discover needs in their churches and communities, and discover ways to intentionally be on mission.

* Church In Transitional Communities Task Force: Another team that has been assisting the churches in the changing communities and their pastors is the C.I.T.C. task force, coordinated by Clay Warf. Meeting quarterly, the team composed of Bill Alphin, Reid Keiger, Ronald Loftis, James M. McDowell, J. Howard Silver, Bruce Rabon, Morris Hollifield, Sara Ann Hobbs and Bob Watson is seeking to create a support system for the pastors of churches in transitional communities.

Conferences for the churches in transitional communities were planned and will be conducted March 12, 1984 in Charlotte, and March 13, in Raleigh. An Urban Training Conference was set up for November 27, 1984 (the place to be announced).

* PRAXIS: Student Church Planters were working in five associations this summer. For ten weeks they made evangelistic visits, cultivative personal visits and did community surveys. Over 50 Mission Vacation Bible Schools and Back Yard Bible Studies were conducted. Worship services were conducted in 40 places.

Out of these teams of student Church Planters five new works were started. Those who served as student Church Planters were: John Archibald, Melissa Bowlin, Mark Douglas, Karen Douglas, Alex Kuiran, Rick Lawrence, Larry Mayfield, Jeannie Royston, Bill Salmon, and Scott Wright.

* NEW WORK CORPS: Another group of student Church Planters worked in a special ministry of establishing new work in communities without churches. New Work Corps Student Church Planters were: Jeanne Hollifield, Jackie Davis, Billie Jeana Murray, Robert Gill Stainback.

* CHURCH PASTORAL ASSISTANCE: Assisting 63 churches to improve their pastors' salaries required funds from the Cooperative Program and the Home Mission Board.

Fifteen pastors were enrolled in the Southern Baptist Convention Annuity Program for the first time through the Church Pastoral Assistance ministry.

* CHURCH SITE ASSISTANCE: was given to 16 new works who were securing property.

* CHURCH LOANS: There is a total of 55 churches who have loans of $10,000 or less. Many of these are new works. Others are older churches who needed assistance to improve their present facilities.

* PENTECOST SUNDAY: was an event that saw 57 churches in North Carolina commit to the starting of new units of work.

* NEW WORK: As of this date (9-20-83) there have been 15 new starts. Numerous Home Bible Fellowships have been organized and house churches are being developed.

* ASSOCIATIONAL SURVEYS: continue to be completed and our goal is to complete these this year. Ernest Upchurch has done a monumental task in compiling these surveys.

* NEW WORK NEEDS: Desperately needed is the funding which would have a corpus of $500,000 for Church Site Assistance, $1,000,000 corpus for Church Loans, $200,000 annually for Church Pastoral Assistance, and $50,000 annually for Church Rental Assistance.

* CHURCH EXTENSION DEPARTMENT: covets your prayers that the challenge of the Bold Mission Partnership that we have with the people of North Carolina will be accomplished and North Carolina may become a state where the majority of the population will be Christian.

Robert E. Watson, director

Cooperative Ministries and Seminary Extension

Some of the highlights for this year have been as follows:

1. For the first time we sponsored black student ministries in predominantly black communities with the Mecklenburg Association, Charlotte, and the Green Street Baptist Church, High Point.
2. Reached a record number of 56 black summer workers under appointment. We are especially concerned about this since unemployment among black teenagers in America exceeded 50% during the summer.
3. Set a new record of 79 centers in Seminary Extension in both state conventions.
4. Provided 170 Seminary Extension courses for inmates in 12 prison units.
5. Recognized Mrs. Hyldah Shepherd of Franklin for her many years of service as Director of Seminary Extension in the Macon Association.

Summer Youth Program

Appointed 56 black summer workers who served in ministries in 31 locations throughout the state. This program involves interviewing applicants on college campuses, assigning positions, conducting orientation week, and supervision during the summer months.

Student Aid Fund

A total of $10,950. was provided for scholarship assistance (including $4,350. in matching funds) to 18 black Baptist students preparing for church related vocations in the following schools: Shaw Divinity School, Southern Baptist Seminary, Southeastern Baptist Seminary, and Fruitland Bible Institute.

Campus Ministry

- Additional programs among black college students:
- 1. Assisted 125 students from 7 campuses attending the annual National Baptist Student Retreat in Jackson, Mississippi.
  - 2. Starting new work and strengthening Baptist Student Unions among black students.
  - 3. Assisted the North Carolina Central University Christian Ministries with personnel and financial aid.
  - 4. Conducted a Christian Fellowship Conference at Camp Caraway enrolling 45.
  - 5. Assisted with a tri-state campus ministry conference enrolling 60.

Retirement Program

The General Baptist Retirement Plan has reached an enrollment of 51. Matching funds invested on behalf of the two conventions were as follows: General Baptist Convention—$11,059.82; Baptist State Convention—$2,529.81.

Seminary Extension

We set a new record with 79 centers operating throughout the state. Also, we provided 170 courses for inmates in 12 prison units. For the ninth consecutive year we have had the largest statewide program in Seminary Extension in the United States.

Nineteen (19) centers were established by the department through the Shaw Divinity School, Raleigh. Registration reached 796 among General Baptists in 45 courses. Totals among General Baptists from September, 1970, through August, 1983, are as follows:

No. of people enrolled .....	1,811
No. of registrations .....	4,641
No. of courses taught .....	206

Internships

A black seminary student was employed by the Green Street Baptist Church, High Point, to serve as pastor of the East Grimes Baptist Chapel. He is Ronald Wilkins, president of the student body at Southeastern Seminary. Another black pastor, Phillip M. Davis, was employed by the Mecklenburg Association to serve as pastor of the Galilean Baptist Mission in Charlotte. The department cosponsors these two students as a new special emphasis on black church development.

Bivocational Pastors Conference

We conducted the second annual conference for bivocational pastors and their wives at the Caraway Conference Center in Asheboro. A total enrollment of 74 represented both state conventions. The next meeting is scheduled for July 20-21, 1984, at the same location.

Staff

Those associated with this department in addition to the director are Mrs. Cecilia S. Davis, office secretary; Dr. Leo Williams, Jr.; Dr. J.Z. Alexander; Reverend A.D. Logan, Jr.; and Mr. Michael Darby.

Corbin L. Cooper, director

Deaf Ministries

For many years one of the greatest joys of this ministry has been teaching the Bible to deaf people. Classes have been conducted on a monthly basis in Charlotte, Greensboro and Thomasville for a number of years. A new Bible study group was begun in the beautiful chapel located on the campus of the North Carolina School for the Deaf at Morganton this year. On that campus, Tom and Marsha Lineberger continue to minister to the deaf students under the auspices of the Deaf Ministries Department. A large number of deaf students have accepted Christ as Saviour through their dedicated ministry.

Advanced sign language workshops have challenged the experienced interpreters to hone their skills even more so that they, the vital channels of communication between the church and the deaf members, may more effectively relay God's love to the deaf. The annual conference for these interpreters, teachers and for the deaf people evidenced a sweet spirit of love as we worshiped God together in signs, voice and spirit at Caraway Conference Center. While this conference was being held, Neal Peyton was conducting the annual Deaf youth Retreat at the RA camp. Many life-changing decisions were made by a number of young deaf people.

Several churches indicated an interest in inductive loops, an inexpensive way to help the church minister to hard-of-hearing members by permitting them to hear much better with their own hearing aid. Detailed instructions were sent to the churches on how to install the loop of wire that acts as a low powered transmitter directly to the hearing aid of the hearing-impaired member.

With a tinge of sadness, the decision was made to halt production of the television program "Light Unto My Path". The program has been on almost 25 years, but it was felt that our resources could be better used if channeled into the new Baptist ACTS network. A proposal has been made for such a program that would be more directly of interest to the deaf and to unsighted persons.

For the most part, this year has been a year of one-to-one ministry: going with a deaf man to Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute to help him plan for Bible courses; interpreting between a pastor and a deaf baptismal candidate; visiting in the hospital; counseling or just being a friend to a deaf person with a need.

It seems that each Fall as I sit down to write this report, the verse comes to my mind, "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." Jeremiah 8:20. Pray for the sheep who cannot hear the shepherd's voice.

Jerry F. Potter, director

Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

Development is now a major issue at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute as the school seeks to raise a part of the operations budget and to build a substantial endowment fund with the Baptist Foundation. Earl Haynes has been established as permanent three-quarter time director of the development department. He also serves as pastor of the Bat Cave Baptist Church near the school.

With many on-going programs beginning to grow, two major projects are receiving special emphasis. The effort to build an endowment program includes a campus center chime tower built with bricks from the Martha Sullinger Dormitory, recently replaced by the Carl Bates Residence Center. The implementation of a Board of Advisors is being done with Dr. W. Perry Crouch as Development Counselor and first member of that board.

Endowment

The campus center chime tower was built by students under the direction of Houston Rider, director of maintenance at the school. The funds for construction were provided by alumni of the former school, Fruitland Institute. Some twenty-five thousand dollars for the endowment fund came during this drive. Mr. and Mrs. John Sinclair, of East Flat Rock, North Carolina gave generously to this project.

Now alumni of the present school are being challenged to raise a minimum of one thousand dollars each for the endowment fund with the promise that all who do will have their names placed on the monument as a permanent part of that structure. At this writing more than sixty have accepted the challenge. It is hoped that at least one hundred thousand dollars will be raised for endowment with this project.

Board of Advisors

With the energetic and skillful help of Dr. W. Perry Crouch as Development Counselor and it first member, a Board of Advisors is being formed for Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. Members of the board will be selected for the purpose of contacting persons and foundations who want to support Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute with their funds and influence. The plan is to make this board a permanent functioning part of the development department.

Statistics

Twenty-five faculty members teach one day each week of school. We offer forty-eight two-quarter hour courses each quarter. There is an enrollment of 140 students. There are four full ten week quarters each year.

Some sixteen hundred graduates are serving churches in North Carolina and surrounding states.

The average ages of students is between thirty-five and forty years. Two thirds to three quarters of the enrollment is from North Carolina. Only a few non-Baptists attend. A few women attend, mostly wives of students.

The first foreign student ever to enroll at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute graduated in September and returned to Jamaica for a brief time. Steve Robinson will return to attend Campbell University in 1984. His father, Leo Robinson, a recognized Baptist Leader in Jamaica, delivered the graduation sermon.

Alex L. Booth, Jr., director

Special Ministries

The Special Ministries Department has the responsibility of helping churches become aware of and minister to the needs of those who are mentally retarded or blind and their family members. These two groups also have much to add to the ministry of the church.

Ministry With Mentally Retarded Persons

Susan Reed continues to do an outstanding job as part-time field consultant for ministry to mentally retarded persons.

Susan directed this year's Happiness Retreat at Camp Caraway (155 people attended) and helped with The Truett Happiness Retreat which was expanded to three days (30 people attended). The Caraway Happiness Retreat also had excellent classes for teachers and for sponsors and parents.

The first Special Ministries Regional workshop was conducted at the Lawndale Baptist Church in Greensboro with 40 persons present.

In response to parents requests for information about group homes with a Christian atmosphere, Susan traveled to Richmond and Atlanta to talk directly with church leaders who have helped establish group homes. That information is available from our department.

The videocassette, "No Longer An Attic Child" has been in such demand that additional copies had to be made. The pro-

Reaching Out? Do You Hear Me Calling?" was completed in August. It shows a variety of ways churches can minister to mentally retarded persons.

Campbell University, following Wingate College's example, sponsored two "day camps" (one in the spring and one in the fall) for mentally retarded persons. The Campbell BSU and the Little River Association WMU provided "buddies", lunch and entertainment for the day camp. The Wingate event had about 130 people involved, and the Campbell event about 160 people.

We promoted Mentally Retarded Sunday in March by sending information to churches about how to observe it, and sent out about 29,000 free bulletin inserts.

We worked cooperatively with the Sunday School Department in providing leadership for six "Understanding Conferences", four Vacation Bible School Clinics, and three Sunday School Fall Conventions for leadership training.

Susan edited a quarterly newsletter, "Open Doors". Six hundred copies were mailed to persons and churches expressing a need for information about activities, events, teaching materials, etc. available for ministry with mentally retarded persons.

Ministry With Blind Persons

Mrs. May Waugh served this year as a part-time field consultant for blind ministry. She traveled the state having personal conferences with more than fifteen Directors of Associational Missions. She spoke to five annual WMU Associational Meetings, and spoke in ten churches about blind ministries. She also spoke to numerous WMU and Brotherhood groups, and Pastors Conferences. May helped lead the conference for CSM Workers at the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest.

The cassette tape materials we produce continue to be very popular. We mail about 255 copies of the Biblical Recorder weekly. Twenty-eight blind persons requested the Home Mission Study Book and we expect the requests for the Foreign Mission Study Book to far exceed that. Forty-five requested the January Bible Study.

The Brotherhood Department began recording the World Missions Journal on cassette this year and mail it out along with a devotional tape each month. There are already over fifty persons receiving those cassettes.

Neal Peyton, director

Stewardship

The Division of Stewardship seeks to plan, develop, and promote a plan of biblical stewardship to aid the churches in enlisting members in the practice of and growth in Christian stewardship.

This plan of biblical stewardship includes the individual Christian's response in terms of giving, life style, and money management. It also includes the local church and its stewardship responsibilities.

Biblical stewardship also includes the support of missions through the Cooperative Program.

The Division's goal for 1983 is to fulfill this purpose and help churches and individuals to reach Bold Missions giving goals.

During 1983 Mrs. Yvonne Duke, assistant office secretary, resigned and Mrs. Joan Bullard joined the staff as her replacement.

The Division staff seeks to achieve its goals through the following programs:

Bold Missions Phase I Recognition

Special recognition has been given to the churches who reached Bold Missions Phase I goals. There were 719 churches who doubled church income in the period, and 1252 who doubled gifts for support of missions through the Cooperative Program.

Missionary-in-Residence

The missionary-in-residence program continues to utilize a flourishing missionary couple to interpret mission support needs to the churches. Robert and Joy Bates, missionaries to Chile are serving in 1983. Max and Joan Furr will serve from August 1983-July 1984.

Bold Missions Stewardship Conferences

The primary thrust of reaching Bold Missions giving goals has been in meetings with pastors and church leaders in each association. The purpose of the meetings is a presentation and discussion of the stewardship program materials in the "Give Boldly" packet developed by the Division. Conferences were held for 64 associations with more than 725 pastors and representatives from approximately 900 churches attending.

Key Associational Leadership Conference

The Division participated in the training of key associational program helps churches know of the need for ministry with mentally retarded persons. A second videocassette, "Do You See Me leadership by preparing materials for and training the 49 associational stewardship chairpersons who attended the conference at Ridgecrest.

Cooperative Program Promotion

Materials have been prepared and distributed to aid churches in emphasizing missions support through the Cooperative Program. Special emphasis was given to Cooperative Program Day in April and Cooperative Program Month in October. Reports were made to the churches on missions support through the Cooperative Program two times during the year.

The Great Challenge

The Division sponsored and provided a consultant to lead Great Challenge Stewardship Programs in approximately 50 churches. The Great Challenge is a stewardship program designed especially for smaller churches. Major emphasis has been given to this program in 1982 and 1983.

Special Seminars

Participants attended a three day Stewardship Seminar in June. The program included a biblical-theological study of stewardship and an overview of stewardship programs. A.R. Fagan, Executive Director, Stewardship Commission gave a special presentation on what is new in stewardship focusing on Planned Growth in Giving. Participants are asked to be available to assist churches with stewardship programs.

A Family Financial Planning Workshop involved 12 couples in a process of clarifying Christian commitments, financial goal setting, assessment of resources and the development of a family spending/saving/giving plan. Each couple is asked to plan and lead a church or associational Family Financial Planning Workshop within the next year.

Church/Association Staff Support

Based on new information and data church/association staff support recommendations were published in a booklet entitled "The Reapers Should Receive Good Wages". The booklet was sent to church and associational leaders as well as church and association staff.

O.D. Martin, Jr., director

Youth and Campus Ministries

The focus of the Division of Youth and Campus Ministries is diverse. On the one hand, there are statewide programs designed for inspiration and information, while on the other hand local programming is geared to assist individuals in their own Christian growth. In addition, the Division serves as a resource for those who work with youth and college students. The Division is blessed with capable, dedicated Christian ministers who help implement the aims and goals of this ministry.

In addition to the four of us who work in the Raleigh office, there are 23 ministers on campuses across the state. We have experienced little turnover among staff in 1983; the only new addition was Monroe ("Monk") Ashley at Gardner-Webb.

State Programming

Two major statewide events are planned for college students each year—one in the spring, the other in the fall. The Spring Conference focused on leadership development and discipleship. These are two major emphases in our total student program.

A major goal of campus ministry is developing leaders. This is accomplished, in part, by allowing students to assume positions of leadership both at the local and state levels. At the spring meeting, Ircel Harrison of Carson-Newman College led the students to examine their God-given leadership abilities and to find ways of utilizing these talents in service through the Baptist Student Union. In addition, Jack Noffsinger and Joan Hope, ministers at Knollwood Church in Winston-Salem, helped the students understand the total scope of discipleship and challenged conference participants to develop as disciples.

Committees to plan the state level BSU programs were formed at the Spring Conference. Mike Everhart, a Pembroke State University senior, was elected state president by the 200-plus students attending the Caraway meeting.

The Fall Convention is designed to provide information and inspiration for college students. The theme for the 1983 Convention was "The Faces of Grace." Students were led to understand the biblical meaning of grace and to find ways to appropriate this in their own lives. Esther Burroughs of the Home Mission Board was a major resource person for the Ridgecrest Conference. More than 40 pastors and layleaders also participated in the weekend as they led small group conferences for the 800 participants.

Local Programming

If one examines the personnel list and the budget of the Division of Youth and Campus Ministries, it is evident that the Division is committed to local programming. The Division has a personnel list of 23 ministers on campuses across the state. The budget for the Division is $174,000. This budget is for the 1983-1984 fiscal year.

sion, it is apparent that the major ministry thrust takes place on the local campus—where the students are. No two campuses are alike; thus, each university program is different. However, there are elements that are common to every campus program. We strive for a balanced ministry that will aid students in their inward, personal growth as well as their outreach to persons around them.

The examples of ministry cited here are just that. They are designed to give you a “feel” for what Baptists are doing on the campuses. For each illustration given, there are many, many others that are not mentioned. You are invited, even encouraged, to contact one of the campus ministers near you to get a grasp of the total campus ministry picture.

Bible Study

The inward journey focuses on helping the students understand and grow in their own faith. A primary component for this growth is Bible Study. The student-led, dorm Bible Study is prevalent on every campus. Students take the initiative to make arrangements and invite other students; the Campus Ministers provide training for the student leaders. In addition, regular weekly Bible studies led by local ministers or the campus minister are held on all campuses.

Worship

Worship is another ingredient of a balanced program. Since students are encouraged to be a part of regular Sunday worship services in the churches, BSU worship experiences occur other than 11 a.m. on Sunday. For instance, at Western Carolina the weekly “Pause” Service is at 9:00 on Thursday evening; at Appalachian, worship experiences are scheduled for Monday and Thursday mornings. Thanksgiving, Easter and other special days provide a time for meaningful student worship on all campuses.

Christian Community

Bible Study and worship help build a sense of Christian community among students. Retreats and fellowship meals are also used in many BSUs to enhance community. At UNC-C, UNC-G, and PSU local WMU groups provide the weekly meal. In addition, at UNC-C, care groups have been established to give students a certain group of people they can talk and pray with regularly. UNC-G short-term personal growth groups focus on topics of concern for students.

Personal Development

Other intentional means of encouraging students in their faith development include emphases in leadership development, decision-making, and spiritual nurture. Wake Forest has programs focused on prayer, solitude, and silence. The “Eighth Day Spiritual Growth Communities” at Western Carolina help students get in touch with and develop their own spiritual gifts.

ASU, UNC-CH and other campuses have found the prayer partner programs to be meaningful for students. Workshops in leadership training, evangelism training, and decision-making are other common means of strengthening student growth. As a result of such training opportunities, students at Western Carolina are able to plan and carry out an annual Associational Youth Retreat held at the BSU center.

Certainly, the personal growth of the students as experienced through the inward journey is important. Of equal importance, however, are the opportunities to reach out and put one's faith into action. For this reason, each campus program emphasizes this aspect of ministry.

Community Service and Ministry

There are many expressions of this outreach through community service and ministry. Student groups are involved in ministry in nursing homes, in prisons, in emergency care centers, with food collection, and in tutoring programs to mention only a few. Duke students, for instance, work with the Durham Emergency Energy Commission to cut wood and winterize homes for persons in the Durham area. UNC-G students are a part of the "Best Friend" program—Social Services assign a student to one child to be friend.

Local Church and Denominational Outreach

In addition to community outreach, BSU groups have an extensive outreach into churches as they seek to help local churches strengthen their ministries. All of the BSUs offer some type of outreach team or music group that conducts weekend revivals or youth emphases in churches. At Western Carolina, there are teams that work with the same church throughout the school year to help strengthen the youth ministry.

Social Concerns

In some instances the outreach has an impact beyond the local campus and community. An illustration of this is the strong emphasis among students on World Hunger. The emphasis includes, education and consciousness raising, but it also includes action. At UNC-CH, there is a student-led fast for hunger relief; while at WCU there is a call to sacrifice a meal to help relieve hunger in Jackson County.

Special Groups

Certain groups on campus are targeted for student outreach. At UNC-CH, a graduate student fellowship has been established. Ministry with International students is a focus on several campuses. This focus is more intense in Charlotte where there is a large population of Internationals. In addition to helping establish an International House, Baptists have also funded a couple to work in International ministry for two years. Chris and Joy Gam-

bill have begun a two year missions association program which will help train them for a position in student work with the Foreign Mission Board.

Missions

One other major outreach ministry is that of missions. In addition to the local mission involvement already mentioned, many BSUs participate in Spring break mission projects. Students from NC State and East Carolina spent their Spring break in Washington DC; at the same time UNC-G students were involved in ministry at the Baptist Center in Harlem, NY; Gardner-Webb students are regularly involved in a Spring break outreach ministry at Daytona Beach; Wingate BSU sent a team of students to Colombia, South America. Appalachian students were not only involved in doing missions, but they were also involved in teaching missions as students went into 14 churches to teach the WMU Foreign Mission Study. While all students are not able to be actively involved in the variety of mission projects available, all BSUs are heavily involved in raising money for mission causes.

It is impossible to enumerate everything that is being done in the name of Baptists on college campuses across the state. However, from the illustrations that have been cited, those of us in the Division of Youth and Campus Ministries hope that you can begin to understand the balanced approach to ministry which we are attempting to do in your behalf.

Concern for the Campus

In addition to program and ministry with students, Convention and College-employed ministers are expected to love and serve all within the institutions where they work. Most of these persons visit regularly in the infirmaries and in dormitories. They spend time with administrators (over a meal occasionally) who need pastoral care, are willing to listen to a prophetic voice, or are concerned about sharing views with a minister who is committed to higher education. Faculty prayer services and discussion groups are a part of our broader concern. In many places the Dean of Students has learned to trust your campus minister and involves her in training of dormitory advisors or refers faith-related counselors to him.

You as North Carolina Baptists have asked us to place ourselves in ministry on these campuses. We serve because of God's call and your affirmation. Our major concern is for undergraduate Baptist students, of course. The broader task given us in Christian ministry on your behalf to all within these learning communities. We whose names (and campuses) are listed here are Christ's ambassadors—and yours! We count on your prayer even as you already provide our material support.

Professional Development and Youth Ministry Coordination

Youth Ministry is coming of age among North Carolina Baptist churches. There are 356 ministers of youth serving our churches in a full-time staff position and 196 ministers of youth serving on a part-time or volunteer basis. These 552 ministers often find that leading a church to develop a healthy concept of youth ministry is a major challenge of their ministry. A major task of the Department of Professional Development and Youth Ministry Coordination is to present a balanced philosophy of youth ministry to these youth ministers and their churches.

Youth ministry in a local church is more than Sunday night fellowships, recreation, and an occasional out-of-town trip. It is, rather, the coordination of church programming, designed to help staff, volunteers, and parents guide youth into maturing Christian growth. The church's youth ministry (Sunday School, Church Training, Youth Choir, Acteens, Pioneer RAs, Church Recreation, Worship, Counseling) must grow out of the needs of youth and should include them in planning and program implementation.

To assist the local church the Division of Youth and Campus Ministry provides a strong youth ministry network for instruction and support.

Professional Development

To assist the youth ministers and campus ministers growth in their ministry, programs and materials have been provided: Youth Ministers' Workshop - More than 50 professional and lay youth ministers gathered at Caraway, March 16-19 to participate in a conference designed to (1) enlarge their knowledge about the youth development process; physical, psychological, and spiritual; (2) provide intensified study in church program areas; (3) provide a spiritual climate where personal growth would produce renewed commitment to God and to youth ministry; (4) provide a time for fellowship and community among youth ministers. Campus Ministry Development Seminar was held at Caswell May 22-25 with 35 campus ministers from North Carolina, Virginia, and South Carolina. The design of the conference was to assist the campus ministers in their spiritual development, theological growth, and program emphasis with students. Campus Evaluation has been completed at Western Carolina University, Duke University, and the University of NC, Greensboro.

Associational and Local Youth Ministry

To assist the local church and association to grow in their effectiveness Youth Ministry Conferences have been held in six associations with emphasis being given to the development of a sound philosophy of youth ministry. Associational youth ministry co-ordinators have been enlisted in 51 of our 80 associations and were provided training in associational youth ministry at the Key Leadership Conference.

During the summer a Youth Ministry Development Team comprised of five college students ministered to youth in the Liberty, Carolina, and Anson associations. The team, called "Daystar" touched more than 5,000 youth during their ten week ministry. One youth who came in contact with "Daystar" says, "the light of Christ's love was shown to me through the lives of the Daystar team. You just knew that they loved Jesus and that they loved you too. I have learned much about myself and God through them." (Picture included)

Upgrowth is a newsletter designed to provide a regular update on materials, events, and personalities that can strengthen local church and associational youth ministry. Two issues were mailed to more than 600 persons in youth ministry across North Carolina.

Two Youth Council Retreats helped 43 church youth councils with more than 300 youth and their sponsors to become Christian leaders. The retreats focused on the work and function of the youth council, new and proven ideas for youth ministry, and guidance on how to motivate youth.

A Christian Drama Conference provided entertainment and growth for approximately 125 youth and adults at Wake Forest University, October 14-16. "Curtain Call" emphasized the "how to's" of Christian drama in the local church. (Picture included)

Youth Conferences I, II, III, IV "Daybreak In The Kingdom"

"I would like to say how much the week at Caswell meant to me. I think I speak on behalf of my youth group too... One of my friends, in church today, became a Christian as well as a member of the church. I have been praying for him a long time and my prayer is now answered. I think that Caswell's atmosphere had a lot to do with his decision... I will always be a DAYBREAK as long as I live, because God will help me and will be behind me all the way." These are the words of a fifteen year old girl, one of more than 4,000 youth who participated in one of the Youth Conferences. "Daybreak In the Kingdom," the theme based on Matthew 25, was enhanced by a musical/drama written to be used at Caswell by Esther and Bob Burroughs. During the weeks 180 decisions were made, with 32 professions of faith, 130 rededications, 11 vocational commitments and 7 other.

Missions and Organizational Development

As the name would imply, a major emphasis in this area of work is that of Missions. Care is taken to provide mission education and a variety of mission opportunities for students throughout the year. However, the most concentrated time for student involvement in missions is in the summer.

More than 250 students are involved in some type of summer ministry program sponsored through the Baptist State Convention. Student raised mission money is used to fund a number of these positions.

During the 1982-83 school year, students in BSUs across the state pledged and gave more than $37,000 for student missions. This money helped fund a Christian Service Corps worker in campus ministry in the Boston area; assisted with the International ministry in Charlotte; enabled students to attend the National (Black) BSU Convention in Jackson, MS; funded students who worked in local church ministry; and supplemented local BSU Spring Beach Mission Projects. In addition, the student money made it possible for 18 students to serve in ministry positions in North Carolina as well as in other states and in one foreign country.

All of these students had positive, growing experiences as they made significant contributions to the area in which they were working. Work situations included children's homes, juvenile centers, senior citizens, as well as local churches. Some of the growth resulted in students being in a different environment: Harlem in New York City; the vast unchurched area of the Northeast; or the pioneer ministry area of Iowa.

One student in writing about her experiences, stated: "Sharing Christ with these kids is vastly different from working among 'church' kids. These children and teens have twisted ideas of what it means to be a Christian. It is a challenge to present our Lord in such a way where they can begin to understand His loving forgiveness."

One area of student missions that has been exciting in the cooperative arrangement between the North Carolina BSUs and the Baptist Mission in Togo, West Africa. Kelton Hinton, a student at UNC-CH, spent the entire school year in Togo where he worked primarily with students at the University in Lome'. The third North Carolina student to serve in Togo arrived one week before Hinton's departure. Rick Hoyle, a student at Appalachian, will continue work with the university students through December 1983.

Volunteer BSU Directors

Even though there are 18 fulltime Baptist Campus Ministers in North Carolina, Baptists are dependent upon a number of persons who serve as volunteer BSU directors. Were it not for these persons, NC Baptists would have no presence or witness on several of the small campuses in the state.

Persons serving as volunteers include: Bill Edwards at Atlantic Christian; Barba Smart and Joe Henry at Brevard; Bruce Martin and Bill Cashman at Elon; Bob Williams at High Point; Marsha Fanning at Lenoir Rhyne; Lorelle Martin and Rose Pleasants at Mt. Olive; Steve Jolly at NC Wesleyan; De Hillyer at Pfeiffer; Kathy Ratcliff, Terry Shear, and Randy Barnett at UNC-A; and Bill Abrams and Gail Spangler at Belmont Abbey.

These volunteers meet regularly with the BSU on their respective campuses. These groups average between 10 and 40 at the regular meetings. In addition to the regular meetings, students in the volunteer directed BSUs are involved in campus and community outreach. For instance, UNC-A has a team of students that works in local churches; Lenoir Rhyne's BSU sponsored a Faculty Appreciation reception; and the Pfeiffer BSU regularly visits and assists at a local nursing home.

Church Workers With College Students

The campus ministry personnel works closely with persons in local churches responsible for ministry with college students. This partnership is vital because of the vast number of college students who commute or are at home on the weekends.

One of the ways in which the staff of Youth and Campus Ministries has assisted these in local churches has been through the provision of resources and training opportunities. A resource packet of materials was made available for those who work with students in churches. In addition, three training sessions for these workers were jointly sponsored by the Youth and Campus Division and the local association. In 1983, conferences were held in Charlotte, Raleigh, and Mars Hill.

Orientation For High School Seniors

Campus ministry begins before students even set foot on the college campus. This is another way in which the division works closely with local churches.

Division personnel are available to assist local churches and associations prepare students for college. Student teams that go out from the various campuses also help in this way. A major statewide event which focuses on this is the High School Seniors Retreat. In February, more than 110 seniors attended this event designed to give them a preview of college life.

Church and Campus Program Development

A significant and major portion of ministry with college students is our encouragement in their participation in church. Though much of our work involves the church's witness on the campus on behalf of Baptists in North Carolina, our hope and efforts lie, as well, in relating students to the local churches.

Baptist Youth Corps/Local Church Ministry

An exciting program designed to involve college students in the life and ministry of the church is the Baptist Youth Corps/Local Church Ministry. Fifty-one students from the seven Baptist colleges participated in the Baptist Youth Corps, and fourteen students from other North Carolina colleges and universities were involved in the Local Church Ministry. These sixty-five energetic and committed students served churches across North Carolina for ten weeks in the summer, assisting in youth, children's and music ministries. The purposes of the sixteen-year-old program are to develop young adults for a church-related occupation or for significant lay leadership; to assist the local church in strengthening its ministries; and to promote interest in our seven Baptist colleges and the Baptist Student Unions on non-Baptist campuses.

Commuter Student Ministries

North Carolina has 120 colleges and universities, half of which are community and technical colleges. Of the approximate 230,000 students attending schools about half are commuting each day from home. Though our ministry has over the years been one directed primarily to residential colleges, we are much more aware now of this major shift of commuting in student patterns. Consequently our efforts to reach and minister to these students has meant shaping some new directions. Presently, associate pastors, youth ministers, pastors, and other lay persons are carrying the on-campus ministry in a volunteer-directed arrangement, in cooperation with this office. In some cases the shape of the ministry focuses on before-class prayer and Bible study breakfasts; sometimes luncheon meetings provide a chance for fellowship and inspiration. What we have discovered is that ministry in these settings often is “ministry on the run,” for commuting students leave campus as soon as classes are over, usually traveling home or to jobs. In other words, a “captive audience” of students, able to come back for afternoon or evening meetings, is both impractical and impossible.

In addition to on-campus ministries, we are seeking ever-effective ways to assist Sunday School teachers and church leaders in their ministry to the students, who most often have grown up in their “college church.” Workshops, seminars and personal consultations are employed to give tools, strategies and methods to these workers.

New ministries continue to develop, and established work continues to grow among several North Carolina community and technical colleges. Presently, Sandhills, Central Piedmont, Wilkes, Caldwell, Davidson County, and Coastal Carolina community colleges have functioning student ministries, and, as well does Guilford Technical College.

Partners In Ministry

The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina places ministers on college campuses to serve students and the campuses in Christ’s name. Funds are provided for salaries and facilities, but support for programs has suffered a serious decline. With a staff that is able and willing to attempt even more effective ministry, and, with the campuses open to the Gospel in a new way during the last few years, funds are needed in addition to those available from the regular Convention budget. Three years ago the General Board of the Convention authorized a planned giving emphasis, called “Partners in Ministry,” to raise endowment for programs only through the Baptist Foundation to support and supplement these programs.

Each state campus where there is a full-time Baptist campus minister has begun or is organizing a local council of “Partners in Ministry,” for the purpose of planning and projecting fund raising activities in its locale and among respective BSU alumni. Active councils exist now at Appalachian State, UNC-Chapel Hill, UNC-Greensboro, Western Carolina, and are being organized at NCSU, UNC-Charlotte, East Carolina and Pembroke State. Contributions and gifts, mostly from alumni, total through mid-year more than $25,000.

Student Evangelism

Alongside Bible study, worship, missions and fellowship, a continuing emphasis on bearing witness to their Christian faith is vital to students in North Carolina. “Share” Seminars, book studies, and other training sessions are provided and implemented on individual campuses. Under the direction and planning of a very active state Student Evangelism Committee, in early November at Caraway a conference was held to offer "hands-on" ideas for campus witness training and sharing; to provide resources of people, strategies and events that can be of assistance in such program as Evangelife, Share Seminars and Lay Evangelism; and to encourage and educate students and campus ministers regarding campus evangelism.

Council Membership

For 39 years the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina has looked to the Council on Christian Higher Education for leadership and interpretation in the mission of Christian higher education. Since 1944, the Council has been an approved and trusted link between the colleges and the Convention, holding forth the ideal that faith and learning rightfully have a living relationship in the development of a healthy, holistic world-view.

The Council membership is made up of the following persons: presidents, academic deans and chairmen of boards of trustees of the colleges/universities; and the General Board's Committee on Christian Higher Education. Ex officio members of the Council are Cecil A. Ray, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention; Ernest W. Glass, president, General Board, Baptist State Convention; Frank R. Campbell, president, Baptist State Convention; Mrs. Horace McRae, president, North Carolina Baptist Woman's Missionary Union; and T. Robert Mullinax, executive secretary, Council on Christian Higher Education.

New members elected to membership last year from the General Board are James E. Langford and E.T. Vinson.

Enrollment

The total enrollment (head count) of the colleges is 16,502. For comparative purposes, it is more accurate to list "full time equivalent" figures, based upon a 12 semester-hour class load. The following full time equivalent enrollments were furnished by the college registrars for the fall of 1983:

Campbell University	3,238
Chowan College	976
Gardner-Webb College	1,704
Mars Hill College	1,335
Meredith College	1,518
Wake Forest University	4,697
Wingate College	1,493

Baptist Student Recruitment

A subcommittee of the Council for Baptist Student Recruitment through the churches is currently working to devise more effective methods for encouraging Baptist young people to attend Baptist colleges. The importance of this committee's emphasis is heightened by the knowledge that the birth rate and the resulting decline in the number of potential college students present a threat to the health of most church-related colleges. The committee members are: E.T. Vinson, chairman; Jeff Cranford; Lloyd V. Fish; Bernard Parker; Jerry Wallace; and Bruce E. Whitaker. Serving as ex officio members are E. Leon Smith and T. Robert Mullinax.

Interesting Facts

In 1982-83, 17 per cent of all students attending the 52 colleges related to state conventions in the Southern Baptist Convention were enrolled in the seven North Carolina Baptist colleges. Church-related vocations students in the seven schools numbered 636. During the same period, 201 graduates of North Carolina Baptist colleges were preparing for the ministry at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Since their founding, the seven colleges have graduated a grand total of 102,599 persons. The total property value and endowment of North Carolina Baptist colleges is $418,192,786.

Corts to Samford University

Dr. Thomas E. Corts, president of Wingate College since 1974, has been named president of Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama. Dr. Corts' administration was marked by progress and growth, and a deep sense of involvement with our Baptist people. Samford University is to be commended upon their selection of a new president. Appropriate recognition of Dr. and Mrs. Corts was given by the Council in the May meeting.

Wingate Elects President

Effective July 1, 1983, Paul R. Corts assumed the presidency of Wingate College. Dr. Corts brings to the post a rich background of experience in higher education as a faculty member and administrator.

A graduate of Georgetown College and Indiana University, Dr. Corts earned the Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. He served on the faculty and as Associate Vice President for Instruction at Western Kentucky University. From 1978-1983, he was Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer of Oklahoma Baptist University. Dr. and Mrs. Corts are the parents of three children, Kenneth, Daniel and Susan.

North Carolina Baptists have taken pleasure in the growth and development of Wingate College, a fully accredited senior college. For 87 years the interest and support of Baptists have helped to guide and sustain the college. Baptist interest and support will continue to undergird Dr. Corts and Wingate College as, together, they seek to provide general education in an atmosphere of Christian love and sensitivity.

Retirement of President Scales

James Ralph Scales, president of Wake Forest University for more than 16 years, retired from the presidency on September 30, 1983. He will maintain a faculty connection with the university as the first Worrell Professor of Anglo-American Studies.

During the years Dr. Scales presided over the affairs of Wake Forest, he led the university to national prominence. Centers for overseas study were established in London and Venice. The Kenan and Reynolds Professorships attracted to Wake Forest several internationally known scholars. Three major scholarships were begun: the Guy T. Carswell Scholarships, the Reynolds Scholarships and the William Louis Poteat Scholarships. The Poteat Scholarships provide $2000 each year for a Baptist student from each of the state's congressional districts.

Dr. Scales will be remembered fondly for his participation as a leader in Baptist church, association and convention organizations and activities. The Council on Christian Higher Education joins with many friends in expressing appreciation for his life and work in North Carolina. We wish for him good health and the anticipated joy of returning to the classroom.

New Wake Forest President

On October 1, 1983, Thomas K. Hearn, Jr. became president of Wake Forest University. He moved to the Baptist university post from his position as Senior Vice President, University College, The University of Alabama in Birmingham.

Dr. Hearn, a native of Alabama, was graduated from Birmingham Southern College, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Vanderbilt University. He holds the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Divinity, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. He taught philosophy at the College of William and Mary, and chaired the Department of Philosophy at The University of Alabama in Birmingham. Dr. and Mrs. Hearn are the parents of three children, Thomas, Lindsay and William.

The Council on Christian Higher Education and other Baptist friends of Wake Forest University welcome the Hearn family to North Carolina, and pledge to cooperate with President Hearn in his efforts to honor and nurture the Covenant Relationship between Wake Forest and the Baptist State Convention.

Bentley Heads Southern Association

The regional accrediting association for North Carolina Baptist colleges is the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Fred B. Bentley, president of Mars Hill College, has completed a term as chairman of Southern Association's Commission on Colleges. In December, 1983, Dr. Bentley will be elected to the presidency of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. We offer congratulations and gratitude to Dr. Bentley for serving in such an important post, and to Mars Hill College upon the honor and responsibility afforded their president.

Graduate Programs at Meredith

It is the duty of the Council on Christian Higher Education to study and recommend to the General Board concerning any college requests for change of status. Meredith College's plan for graduate programs at the Master's Degree level in Business, Education and Music were thoroughly evaluated and approved by the Council and the General Board during the May 23 meetings. Those serving on the Change of Status Committee were: Jeff Cranford, chairman; Thomas E. Corts; James E. Langford; Thomas E. Mullen; and Clyde J. Rhyne. E. Leon Smith and T. Robert Mullinax served as ex officio members.

North Carolina Leaders in Christian Education

From this report it should be plain that Baptist colleges in this state are pioneers and leaders in the field of Christian higher education. Through their colleges, North Carolina Baptists have operated in the field of scholarship and enlightenment for a total of 764 years, producing 102,599 graduates. Such a record of service has been possible because Baptists have believed in their schools and have provided generous financial and moral support for them. Baptist colleges are grateful for their place in the Christian mission and look with enthusiasm toward future years of partnership.

Campbell University

Campbell University reached a major milestone in its rich 98-year history when, on August 24, it enrolled the first members of its centennial class. As the university enters its centennial celebration, it again rededicates itself to continuing Christ's ministry on earth through education.

The year opened officially with Faculty Orientation, held on August 18-19. The theme for this year's program was "The Christian Liberal Arts Tradition Integrating Faith and Learning." Dr. Hudson T. Armerding, president emeritus of Wheaton College in Illinois, was the principal speaker at orientation. Also speaking during the program were Dr. Ben C. Fisher and Dr. John D. Cave, pastor of First Baptist Church of Rocky Mount. Over 175 faculty and staff members participated in the two-day program.

Opening Convocation was held on August 30, with Dr. Albert Edwards, pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, as the guest speaker. He spoke on "What Are Your Assets?"

The University continues to grow and prosper. Campbell now has campuses located in Buies Creek; Fayetteville; Raleigh; Sanford; Rocky Mount; Fort Bragg Military Reservation; Cardiff, Wales; and Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

We continue to be proud of the fact that Campbell has in the past, and for this year again, operated and maintained a balanced budget. The overall enrollment during 1982-83 was 4786, with all one hundred counties, more than forty-two states, and twenty foreign countries represented.

After a year's leave of absence, Dean F. Leary Davis has returned to resume his duties as head of Campbell University School of Law. His place was ably taken by Professor Robert A. Jenkins. We are pleased to report that Campbell had another highly successful year in the number of students taking and passing the Bar.

Campbell University School of Law lost a good friend on April 2, 1983, when Dr. Fred O. Dennis, president of Dennis & Company of Buffalo, New York, passed away at age 91. Dr. Dennis, who was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Civil Laws by Campbell in 1979, was instrumental in helping the law school set up its library. At his own expense, he made his way from New York to North Carolina to help the fledgling school get started in 1976. In appreciation of his help and generosity, the law school proudly named its library in his honor during Commencement last May.

Campbell has just entered the fifth year of its Campbell Century Fund Campaign. The goal of raising more than 25 million dollars by January 5, 1987 is proceeding ahead of schedule, and this past year a record amount of gifts was received by the university.

During the past fiscal year, Campbell raised $6,234,996.66 in cash and pledges. A significant contributor to the advancement effort was the second annual Campbell University Alumni Phonathon. Over 9511 alumni were contacted during a three-week period, and a total of $420,705.37 was successfully raised. A full 31 per cent of all alumni contacted during the phonathon made contributions. This remarkable success resulted in the nomination of the university as a finalist for the prestigious U.S. Steel Incentive Award for Alumni Fundraising.

A significant result of the university's fundraising efforts is the soon to be completed Taylor Bott Rogers Fine Arts Complex. The contractors have made assurances that the building will be completed by March of 1984.

On the academic side, the date, October 30, 1982, will be long remembered by the school. On this day, Campbell University announced the establishment of The Lundy-Fetterman School of Business. Through generous gifts by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Fetterman and The Lundy Packing Company of Clinton, the university has succeeded in establishing a new school of business. Over the past 15 years, the business program has grown to be the largest of all Campbell's undergraduate programs.

A new acquisition for the Business Program was made this year when the university purchased the state-of-the-art IBM Series/1 computer system for use in its undergraduate data processing major. The university has also constructed a new field complex for soccer, softball, and intramural sports.

Campbell held three commencements during the past year. Winter Commencement was held on December 12, 1982. Mrs. Gladys Brooks Boroughs of Greensboro gave the Commencement address entitled "Guide Posts, Hitching Posts, and Goal Posts" to over 150 graduates. On May 9, the senior Senator from North Carolina, Jesse Helms, addressed 342 graduates of Campbell University during Spring Commencement. His remarks were entitled "The Lamp of Experience." Dr. James T. Draper, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, gave the Commencement Sermon on May 8. Campbell awarded three honorary doctorates at Spring Commencement. Dr. Draper received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. Dr. John E. Lynch, president of the North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, was awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws. Dr. Forrest C. Feezor, former executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, was awarded the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Major Sam Byrd of Spring Lake and Mrs. Kelly Alexander Arp, a student, were recipients of the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award.

Summer Commencement was held on July 23 with 159 graduates receiving degrees. Dr. Kenneth T. Whitescarver, president of Fork Union Military Academy, gave the address. This commencement was significant for Campbell, since the first graduates of the new Master of Science program in Government at Ft. Bragg received their degrees.

Campbell University was saddened by the loss of several friends and co-workers over the past year. Mrs. Bessie Campbell Lynch, daughter of the founder, Dr. J.A. Campbell, passed away on October 22, 1982, at age 86. For many years Mrs. Lynch served as a member of the music faculty and, at her death, a link with a bygone era is gone. Dr. Raymond A. Bryan, Sr., honorary alumnus, longtime friend and supporter, passed away on November 2, 1982. Mr. Robert Lane, manager of the Campbell Laundry and an employee of the university for over 20 years, died on May 16, 1982. Dr. John A. Freeman, professor of psychology for the past 18 years, died on August 3, 1983.

At the close of the fiscal year ending May 31, 1983, the Vice-President for Business reported that Campbell University's Capital Plant liabilities were as follows:

Campbell University has a net plant indebtedness of $4,182,901; the major portion of this indebtedness is in the form of residence hall bonds or notes, and carries an interest rate of 2½ to 3 per cent. The minor portion of the indebtedness, which is non-liquidating, carries an interest rate of 7½ - 11 per cent. The present indebtedness, both self-liquidating and otherwise, constitutes no threat to the sound fiscal operation of Campbell University.

Chowan College

The annual Faculty Workshop, August 19-20, 1983, marked the beginning of the 136th academic year in the life and mission of Chowan College, Murfreesboro. In addition to those regular procedural matters of orientation to and preparation for the reception of the student body, the Faculty Workshop was devoted to discussion of student retention—based upon the report of an ad hoc faculty/staff Committee on Student Retention, which had spent several months in studying those factors affecting the rate of retention. This same committee is to be retained throughout the coming months for the purpose of further implementation and evaluation of any measures adopted to enhance student retention.

New and transfer students arrived on campus on August 21. They were joined by returning students on August 22. Registration for classes was conducted on August 23, with the traditional week's "grace period" for late registrants extended until August 31-September 1. Final registration figures for the Fall Semester were as follows: freshman and transfer students, 624; sophomore and other returning students, 346; special students, 19—for a grand total enrollment of 989. With special student enrollment equated to full-time equivalency (12 credit hours, or more), a total FTE enrollment was 976.

The academic year 1982-83 was brought to a successful conclusion on May 15, with the awarding of associate degrees and/or one-year diplomas to 209 candidates for graduation. In addition to the academic attainments of these and other students, the year was characterized by various other institutional achievements and by many occasions for celebration. Moreover, examination of fiscal records at the close of the year (May 31) revealed the college's fiscal operation "in the black" for the twenty-fifth consecutive year.

The year also witnessed further attempts to up-grade and up-date both curricular offerings and physical facilities in the interests of better service to those young people who seek the educational experience which is synonymous with Chowan College. In the former regard, additional course offerings were instituted in the fields of science/mathematics and in business, as follows: "Computer Applications for Science and Mathematics Majors," "Computer Programming: BASIC II," and Independent Study Units in BASIC Computer Programming and in COBOL Computer Programming. A new curriculum was approved in Business Administration (Computer Information Systems), to be instituted in the Fall Semester, 1984-85. Also, additional course offerings were approved in the area of Secretarial Administration, in keeping with the advancement of computer technologies/programming in this particular field of study. One new course offering in the discipline of religion and philosophy—"Introduction to Ethics"—was also approved, with this course to be taught for the first time during the Spring Semester, 1984.

Movement of teaching-production equipment and faculty personnel into a new 19,000-square-foot Graphic Communications Center was completed in time for the opening of Fall Semester classes (1983) in these spacious quarters. Renovation of McSweeney Hall (the former graphic arts building) to house a campus computer center is scheduled to proceed during the current year, with this renovated facility ready for full use by the beginning of the Fall Term, 1984. Proposed renovation and expansion of Green Hall—which houses the college's Department of Art, and which was projected to get underway during the Summer of 1983—has been delayed, temporarily, due to unanticipated structural difficulties with the initial architectural design for this project. Friends of the college with particular interests in the curricular programs in Graphic Communications and in Art have provided significant support for the expansion and up-dating of these physical facilities. In the first instance, note should be taken—particularly—of the Chowan College Graphic Arts Foundation, the North Carolina Press Association, and of other individuals/corporations/foundations related to the printing and publishing industries. In the latter regard, a bequest from the estate of the late David Henry Cooper—former Chowan professor, whose wife was an artist and an alumna of the College—has provided funds for both the renovation of the current facility and for considerable scholarship aid to students in the various art curricula.

The current net indebtedness of the Physical Plant is $1,403,730. The greater portion of this debt is secured by income producing dormitories and a cafeteria. Debt retirement on these low interest, long term loans is on schedule.

Cooperative ministries or programs were conducted in 1982-83 with various divisions/departments of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Among these divisions/departments were the Council on Christian Higher Education; Youth and Campus Ministries (BSU and related work); Church Programs (January Bible Study Institute, Pastoral Preaching Workshop), Missions (Baptist Resource Center, Royal Ambassador's emphasis); Evangelism (Youth Evangelism Conference); Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs (Seminar on Aging); and Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists. The geographical location of Chowan, together with her facilities for the accommodation of both large and small gatherings, make the campus an inviting locale for regional seminars/conferences/rallies, to serve the interests and needs of our Baptist constituency in the eastern Piedmont and Coastal Plains regions of the State.

Finally, the college community and the interests of Christian higher education have suffered the loss of devoted friends and supporters during the past year, as follows: Dr. Walter Raleigh Parker, Sr., late of Woodland, who died on November 9, 1982—member of the Board of Trustees for twenty-six years, beginning in 1944; Dr. Alexander (Alex) Taylor Mayo, late of Portsmouth, Virginia, who died on February 24, 1983—a former chairman of the Board of Advisors; Mrs. Dorothy Heath Brown, late of Murfreesboro, who died on March 1, 1983—an active member of the Board of Advisors, the Endowment Committee, and of the Chowan College Alumni Association; and Mrs. Lucile Williams Beasley, late of Colerain, who died on June 20, 1983—an alumna, longtime member of the Board of Trustees, Vice-Chairman of the Board, and a member of the Endowment Committee.

Gardner-Webb College

Entering into its 78th year, Gardner-Webb College continues its commitment to providing liberal arts educational opportunities under distinctive Christian influences.

Gardner-Webb marked the beginning of the 1983 academic year with an enrollment increase. A total of 1860 students enrolled this fall, a record high for the college.

Fall 1983 also marked the beginning of a special program at Gardner-Webb. The college's program for the blind and visually handicapped enrolled its first students.

Like the college's program for the deaf, which was established in 1977, the program for the blind and visually impaired is the only program offered by a Baptist college that provides full support services to the blind.

To meet the special needs of blind and visually impaired students, the Gardner-Webb campus has undergone physical modifications. Doors and signs have been labeled with Braille and large print. Preparations are also being made for the installation of a new elevator which will have a control panel labeled with Braille (the elevator will also aid Gardner-Webb's increasing number of wheelchair students as well).

In addition to making physical modifications to the campus, Gardner-Webb is also meeting the mobility needs of blind students by providing an orientation and mobility specialist from the N.C. Division of the Services for the Blind, who can assist in orienting blind students to the places on campus where they will need to travel independently. Specialized equipment, such as Braille writers and talking calculators have also been purchased for use by blind students.

Essential to the success of Gardner-Webb's program for the blind is job placement for its students. The placement office along with the director of the program will actively seek job placement for those students after graduation as well as employment opportunities while the students are still attending college. Gardner-Webb is committed to providing educational opportunities to the blind with the ultimate objective of enhancing job opportunities for these students as well.

Gardner-Webb's "Two-Plus-Two" nursing program also began accepting its' first students during the fall semester. The new program is called "Two-Plus-Two" because it is designed for registered nurses who have earned an associate degree or hospital diploma and are interested in continuing their education toward a bachelor's degree in nursing. This is the first nursing program of this type to be offered in North Carolina.

Both the new BSN program and the college's existing ADN program have become a part of the new Davis School of Nursing of Gardner-Webb College. With funds from three North Carolina foundations, the BSN program operates on the Boiling Springs campus and in Statesville, N.C. The ADN program continues to operate on the main campus only.

Gardner-Webb College took another step forward in its effort to provide opportunities of study and growth to churches, ministers and lay people. The B.E. Morris Academy for Christian Studies of Gardner-Webb College was established in 1982. It was made possible by generous gifts in honor of Dr. B.E. Morris, a lifelong pastor in North Carolina, who for many years sought the creation of this kind of institution.

Through the academy, Gardner-Webb offers Bible studies; music studies for choir leaders and choir members; a study fellowship of ministers and tours of Bible lands, among other activities. During the spring of 1983, a 15-week sign language course was held at the Mount Vernon Baptist Church in Vale, N.C. It was sponsored by the academy and the South Mountain Baptist Association of which Mount Vernon is a member.

The academy has also begun a weekly radio broadcast entitled the "A.V. Washburn Sunday School Teachers Hour". The program is broadcast on the college's FM station in Boiling Springs and a radio station in Icard, N.C. The broadcast is available for use by other stations as well. The 15-minute lessons are based on the "International Uniform Lesson Series" and are broadcast each Saturday afternoon by a Gardner-Webb religion professor for the benefit of Sunday school teachers in preparation of their lesson the following Sunday.

The 1983 Spring commencement saw 284 associate, bachelor and master's degrees conferred at Gardner-Webb, while 80 students received degrees during the college's 1983 summer commencement.

Spring commencement was also the setting for the announcement of the beginning of Gardner-Webb's most ambitious financial development program known as "Getting Ready for Tomorrow." Dr. Timothy C. Pennell of Winston-Salem serves as the National Chairman.

The program was established by the college's board of trustees with the ultimate objective of securing $28.6 million in financial commitments. According to studies recently completed by the college, $28.6 million is needed to provide for an increase in the college's endowment fund; for the renovation and modernization of existing campus building; the development and implementation of new programs and the expansion of library resources among other needs.

Gardner-Webb concluded the 1983 year with no operating deficits at the college. The capital indebtedness of the college as of the fiscal year ended June 30, 1983 is $1,952,863. Donations, gifts and grants for the year totaled $1,912,237. The budget for the current academic year is $9,425,258, an increase of 9.9 percent over the 1982-1983 budget.

On January 27, 1983, while returning from a teaching assignment in the Gardner-Webb College evening classes held at the Newton-Conover High School, three professors were involved in an automobile accident which took their lives. The professors were Dr. Michael A. Harrelson, Dr. James P. Henson, and Dr. John Rast.

Dr. Harrelson was chairman of the Department of Natural Sciences and professor of biology. He had taught biology at Gardner-Webb College since 1968.

Dr. Henson was professor of psychology and past chairman of the Department of Psychology. He taught at Gardner-Webb from 1957-1962, and from 1967 until his death.

Dr. Rast was assistant professor of religion and was in his second year of teaching at Gardner-Webb, having come in 1981 from a teaching position at Louisiana College.

Mars Hill College

it was necessary for the college to undergo major reorganization which included significant reductions in the number of faculty and staff positions. In order to be good stewards of the money entrusted to us, we have projected a long-range plan in which the college will operate on balanced budgets even through difficult times. The college incurred its first operating deficit in over 80 years as a result of revenue shortfalls. It was necessary for the college to call upon revenue reserves and to work out a financial plan with our local bank in order to stabilize the institution. This plan has been approved by the college Board of Trustees and is working quite well.

Perhaps the most significant activity for the academic year occurred in the winter when the college was devising its long-range plan. Central to our plan was a restatement of the college purpose. Through the collective wisdom of all members of this community, the college now has a very precise, easily-understood statement of purpose in which we emphasize our Baptist founding, our Christian heritage and in fact, we state that "The life and teachings of Jesus Christ will serve as our guide in all college endeavors." We have rekindled our commitment to see to it that the students who are entrusted to us are the focus of our activities. We are determined to assist students in their Christian pilgrimage and thus state that "We are committed to nurturing the intellectual, spiritual, social and physical development of students who are entrusted to us regardless of race, creed or national origin by providing an environment which encourages students to discover their own identities and to explore their relationships with God, with other persons and with society."

Perhaps it is due to the more conservative posture of society in general and our college specifically that more vigorous religious activities are occurring on the campus. The Christian Student Movement experienced one of its most active and successful years in recent history. The most visible activity of the Christian Student Movement was the Thursday Evening Worship Service. A wide variety of speakers was utilized to provide meaningful worship experiences for our student body. Through the CSM, the Student Mission Fund had an excellent report. A check for $2,000 was sent to the Baptist State Convention in support of this Fund. Additionally, the ministry of weekend revival teams was increased. A workshop for team members was held in the fall to assist them in serving more effectively. Off-campus ministries sponsored by CSM included ministry at Oteen VA Hospital, The Baptist Maternity Home, the Western Carolina Center at Black Mountain and the Madison Manor Nursing Home.

The work of the Center for Christian Education Ministries, under the direction of Miss Sue Fitzgerald, continues to be an exciting ministry of Mars Hill College to the campus community and to western North Carolina church leaders. Pastors and church leaders fervently utilize the resources available at Mars Hill College in the form of books, filmstrips, sermons, study materials and the like. The Center has established a Pastor's Study which is equipped with an extensive library contributed by the Ronda Robbins family. Also, Mr. and Mrs. John McGee, former missionaries to Nigeria, donated an extensive collection of Nigerian artifacts which will be on permanent display and which will reemphasize Baptist mission efforts.

Major changes in the academic program which were passed by the faculty in 1981 were fully implemented in this academic year. These changes have strengthened our academic offerings and included some expansion in the area of instituting a major in Computer Information Science. The college now attracts one-fourth of its student body by offering endowed scholarships, thus enhancing the critical mix within our classrooms.

The college income for the year 1982-83 was $10,249,006, and the expenditures totaled $10,770,494, reflecting a deficit for the operating year. Mars Hill College's total capital indebtedness, which is mostly in long-term, three percent interest notes, is $2,030,281.

Mars Hill College is deeply appreciative of the support which we receive through the Cooperative Program, and we solicit your prayers for our continued effective service.

Meredith College

Meredith College is less than a decade away from its centennial anniversary. Now, as much as at any time in its ninety-one years, the college can look to the future with optimism and confidence. Meredith has resisted the trend toward coeducation; it has enjoyed a stable enrollment; it has been able to continue to integrate its Christian principles with its academic program; it has maintained its academic standing; and, under its current administration, it has increased endowment and reserves ten-fold in ten years. President John E. Weems refers to this time as a period of challenge and excitement.

In May, 1983, 356 young women were awarded degrees: 165 Bachelor of Arts, 171 Bachelor of Science, and 20 Bachelor of Music. In 1983, 1443 students attended three summer sessions on campus, and 47 were part of the Meredith Study Abroad Program which took them to London for six weeks of study. The Legal Assistants program, in existence for three years, was accredited by the American Bar Association in Spring, 1983.

The enrollment for fall, 1983 was 1695. Freshmen applications numbered 818 for the 380 spaces available.

Four additional programs have been added; a new concentration in home economics, one in church music, one in social work, and a cooperative program between the Department of Biology with Duke Medical Center to permit biology majors to elect a degree in medical technology. Starting with the fall semester, 1983, Meredith College offered graduate study in the areas of Business, Education and Music. The response to these offerings has been excellent. The pre-college music and equitation programs, as well as the non-credit enrichment courses continue to attract many young people and adults from the Wake County area.

"Educating Today's Woman for Tomorrow's World" is a phrase used to identify the Meredith philosophy. While the liberal arts concept remains the foundation for all learning, it is important to recognize the changes and challenges facing students in the working world and provide for them an education which will assist in their chosen careers. The cooperative education program permits students to experience the working world while they are still students. This program, together with career planning and placement opportunities, serves as an important effort to assist Meredith students in sensible planning for their careers.

In addition to regular students, more than 65,000 people participated in conferences, clinics, workshops and other functions at Meredith during the year. These activities included the Journeyman Training Program of the Foreign Mission Board; educator and counselor workshops; music, cheerleader and athletic campus; and leadership conferences.

Now in its fourth year, the Visions Program for faculty enrichment, capital outlay, and general endowment has realized more than two-thirds of its $20 million goal. By financial capital outlay through funds received from benefactors, the college eliminates the need for debt service as a function of current operations and allows current monies to be spent on academic programs.

The fiscal year, ending June 30, 1983, reported assets of $33,678,261 and indebtedness of $1,539,000. Gifts, grants and pledges for the year totaled $3,636,191, which figure included $716,044 from the Cooperative Program. The support from North Carolina Baptists makes it possible for the college to minister to the educational needs of the young women of North Carolina and beyond at a reasonable financial level.

Wake Forest University

General Board Report/197

and Trustee Chairman C.C. Hope, Jr. appointed a search committee at the same meeting. After the committee considered many candidates, the Trustees received the nomination of Thomas K. Hearn Jr., vice-president for non-medical affairs at the University of Alabama, Birmingham, and on June 23, 1983 unanimously elected him to succeed Scales. Hearn assumed office on October 1, and he was officially inaugurated as Wake Forest's twelfth president on November 4.

For more than sixteen years James Ralph Scales presided over the affairs of Wake Forest with grace and dignity, leading the University to national prominence. There were important accomplishments and changes during his administration, one of the most significant of which was the new covenant relationship with the Baptist State Convention which became effective January 1, 1981. Scales also established the Ecumenical Institute, which is now sponsored jointly by the University and Belmont Abbey College.

Scales led the University in establishing two overseas centers for study, one in Venice and the other in London. In addition there are study programs in France, Spain, and India.

Two major scholarships were established during Scales administration. These were the Guy T. Carswell Scholarships, which give significant support to approximately one hundred students a year, and the Reynolds Scholarships, which provide all expenses and other benefits for four highly qualified students who are selected each year to receive the award for each of their four years in school. In addition, the William Louis Poteat Scholarships for North Carolina Baptist students were inaugurated in 1981. These scholarships provide $2,000 each year for an incoming freshman from each of the state's eleven congressional districts, and is renewable depending upon acceptable academic and citizenship records.

Among other accomplishments of Scales administration were the selection of a student trustee and a black trustee, both firsts for North Carolina private institutions; completion of a new football stadium; establishment of the Charles Babcock Graduate School of Management, the Undergraduate School of Business and Accountancy, and a department of art; the institution of a Board of Visitors, and the beginning of the Kenan and Reynolds Professorships, which have attracted to the University several internationally known teachers.

Over $100 million has been raised for Wake Forest since Scales became president.

He was honored in 1982 when the Board of Trustees named the $11 million fine arts center for him.

Effective with his retirement from the presidency, Scales becomes the first Worrell Professor of Anglo-American Studies.

In February, for the first time in its history, the Trustees held a three-day long-range planning retreat, which proved helpful both in charting the course for the future and in the camaraderie that prevailed among the members of the board.

National attention during the year was directed at the work of Raymond E. Kuhn, professor of biology, who for nearly fifteen years has been involved in research which he hopes will produce a means of immunization from the devastating effects of various tropical parasitic diseases. Kuhn and his staff are optimistic that they will be successful in saving millions of lives and preventing deformity from the effects of these diseases. The work is made possible through grants from the National Institutes of Health, the National Science Foundation, the United States Army, and the World Health Organization.

Of special interest during the fall were five public lectures and ten other seminars on "Values in Teaching and Professional Ethics," presented as part of a three-year program on "Religion and the Social Crisis." This series was made possible by a $75,000 grant from the Luce Foundation in 1980. The series was concluded with a "think tank" symposium and a public lecture by the internationally known theologian Jurgen Moltmann.

"Politics and the Arts" was the theme of the Tocqueville Forum on Contemporary Public Affairs. This allowed the campus and community to hear eleven nationally known lecturers who spoke, conducted classes, and held special forums for students. The yearly forum is supported by a grant from the Smith Richardson Foundation of Greensboro.

The continued financial support of some of the churches in the Convention has much significance for the University, both for budgetary reasons and because the school is strengthened by the moral support and the friendship of the Baptist people. The Office of Denominational Relations sponsored the University's sixth Pastors School and its third preaching conference, in addition to several other activities designed to enhance our relationship with churches.

Wake Forest was pleased to announce at the beginning of the 1983 fall semester that the concession for students planning to enter church-related vocations, the children of ministers, and students with parents in certain denomination positions had been increased from $600 to $800 per year.

During the year members of the faculty, in addition to carrying their normal teaching load, presented a total of 135 papers at various meetings, published 175 articles in professional journals, and were the authors of 15 books released during the year.

Manson Meads, M.D., vice-president of the University for Medical Affairs, retired after sixteen years of distinguished service in that position. Richard Janeway, M.D., dean of the Medical School, was elected to succeed him.

The Wake Forest community was saddened during the year by the deaths of Carroll W. Weathers, dean emeritus of the Wake Forest School of Law; Grady S. Patterson, who was registrar of Wake Forest for forty-six years; Harold D. Parcell, professor emeritus of French; Elizabeth S. Drake, who worked for the University for thirty-one years and was secretary to Presidents Tribble and Scales; Nell E. Gentry, a long-time employee of Wake Forest and a prominent member of the University community; and Ethel T. Crittenden, librarian emerita who died in the Town of Wake Forest at age 102.

The development office happily reports that a total of $11,281,608 was raised during the year. For an eighteen-month period beginning in January, 1982, the alumni gave $2 million, with 40 percent of that group contributing. The Sesquicentennial Campaign to raise $17.5 million was exceeded by $2.5 million and was secured eighteen months ahead of schedule.

The budget for 1983-84 is $106,294,000 — the largest in the school's history. Of that amount, $74,224,000 is allocated to the Reynolda campus, which includes all divisions of the University's work except the Medical School. In spite of difficult economic conditions, the school operated in the black for the forty-seventh year in a row and steadily continued to reduce its debt, which now stands at $1,844,000.

Wake Forest approaches its sesquicentennial year, which will be observed officially on Founders' Day in February, 1984, with gratitude and humility, remembering the purpose and vision of its founders who wanted to provide an education for young people under Christian influences.

Wingate College

A "school of high grade" was the goal statement of the founding fathers of Wingate School, later to become Wingate College. That challenging commitment first made in 1895 has been a motivating force for the institution through its history, encouraging all those who have been a part of the school in the pursuit of excellence. As stressful as contemporary times are for independently supported Christian higher education, Wingate College in 1982-83 continued to be driven by this high ideal which called on us to give of our best to the Master. Our 1983 Commencement conferred degrees to 279 students from five states and two foreign countries. Two hundred twenty-eight baccalaureate degrees were awarded along with 51 associate degrees, reflecting the continuing change in the status of Wingate College from junior college to an institution awarding the baccalaureate degree.

International, the unique Wingate College international study/travel program which makes it possible for every student to experience another culture, gave nearly 200 students an opportunity to go to such diverse areas as Budapest, Hungary; Bucharest, Romania; Vienna, Austria; Geneva, Switzerland; and London, England. Additionally, 12 students participated in the Wingate-in-London program during Fall 1982. This commitment to a world awareness program is based upon the idea that changing the lives of students by making them aware of the world around them can indeed assist in changing the world. Consistent with our Christian commitment, this challenging task is the impetus for one of the College's major themes: "Wingate College — making a world of difference."

This past year was another recordsetting year in gifts from individual contributors with approximately 2,100 people participating in the support of Wingate College. These generous contributions of individuals are in addition to the gifts received from countless Baptists of North Carolina who sustain Wingate and other Baptist institutions by their gifts through the Cooperative Program. The College received a $175,000 gift from the Charles A. Cannon Trust No. One to support the development of the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree completion program for registered nurses. This Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree will be a new degree for Wingate College. At the conclusion of the year, the Cannon Foundation announced a $300,000 challenge grant (for two campus building projects) which will serve as a challenge for the College during the 1983-84 year. Physical improvements to the campus continued with renovations occurring in Holbrook Administration Building, Burnside-Dalton Fine Arts Center and Laney Hall. A new pedestrian mall area was created in the central part of the campus. The mall is highlighted by a statue of Charles A. Cannon, prominent benefactor of the College; the mall fronts the Ruth Coltrane Cannon Hall, a women's residence facility which was also renovated during the year. In special dedication ceremonies for these new developments on the campus, nationally-known radio commentator Paul Harvey came to the campus as a guest speaker. Miriam Cannon Hayes and William Cannon, children of the late Charles Cannon, also participated in the program.

Other prominent individuals and special programs which were conducted on the campus this past year included the Vienna Choir Boys; Evangelist Bill Glass; Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, Senior Minister, Abyssinian Baptist Church, New York City; Professor Ian McAllister, Dalhousie University, Nova Scotia, Canada; Bobby Jones, Philadelphia '76'er basketball star; Mircea Malitza, Ambassador of Romania; Frank Holder Dance Company; Sir Colin Stamp, a lecturer on Albert Schweitzer; and Eugene McDaniel, former POW and retired Navy captain.

A number of honors came to students of Wingate during the year. Three Wingate students were elected to significant state offices of the North Carolina Phi Beta Lambda, a professional business fraternity organization. These were Warren Daniel, President; Billy Ray Jordan, Jr., Vice President; and Chuck Barry, Parliamentarian. Darryl Barrino, a Wingate baseball star, was named to NAIA All-American first team status for the second year in a row and was the only North Carolina player on the team. Dianna Monroe, a basketball star, was nominated to compete for a place on the USA National Team. The College's debate team competed in national tournaments and ended the season in the top ten percent of 380 colleges and universities competing.

Several new scholarships were created including the Thomas E. Corts Scholarship established by the Board of Trustees to honor Dr. Corts who served nine years as President of Wingate from 1974 to 1983; the Sanford Morris Benton Scholarship established by his sons, Sanford Bruce Benton and Keith Vance Benton; and the Charles L. Hunley Endowed Scholarship created by Mr. Hunley.

The College awarded its first honorary doctorate to W.T. Harris, an outstanding Charlotte businessman, civic and church leader, who has faithfully supported Wingate College for many years.

On July 1, 1983, the College recommitted itself to the service of Baptist young people through Christian higher education with the appointment of Dr. Paul R. Corts to the presidency of the College. Dr. Corts succeeds his brother, Thomas E. Corts, who resigned to accept the presidency of Samford University, a sister Baptist institution in Alabama. Dr. Paul Corts has served as executive vice president and chief administrative officer at Oklahoma Baptist University and has also operated his own consulting firm, The Corts Company, as well as holding a variety of teaching and administrative posts at Western Kentucky University.

In 1982-83 Wingate continued to operate on a balanced budget for yet another year. The College has continued its policy of having no indebtedness and borrowing no funds. For this excellent fiscal record, the College is grateful to a host of Baptists of North Carolina and other friends who have made it possible through substantial gifts to enable the College to operate in this manner.

Christian Life and Public Affairs

This has been an extremely busy year for the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. Through its three departments, it has provided a variety of field service events and educational resources for North Carolina Baptists. Associational Christian Life committee members were trained and guidance on a wide range of social and ethical issues was furnished to churches and associations. June was promoted as World Hunger Month and our churches increased their giving significantly over that of 1982. Last year, the response to the hunger offering was just under $800,000, up from $500,000 in 1981. This year, by the end of August the response to the offering was up 25% over the same period in 1982. It will not be clear until the end of the year whether that increase means more giving by North Carolina Baptists or earlier giving because of the hunger emphasis in June. The Council made available bulletin inserts, posters, world hunger calendars, and hunger bank labels in addition to free offering envelopes.

Christian Citizenship Education

The Legislative Information Network has continued to provide reports on the work of the state's General Assembly to 800 contact persons in churches across North Carolina. Members of the L.I.N. have been especially involved with two major issues: drunk driving and the state lottery. Baptists were instrumental in securing passage of the Safe Roads Act, a tough and comprehensive package of legislation aimed at curbing drunk driving in North Carolina. Not only did Baptists call and write their legislators but members of the L.I.N. attended committee and sub-committee meetings at the General Assembly and communicated directly with senators and representatives at crucial points during the bill's consideration. The new law, which goes into effect in October, promises to aid in the crackdown on drunken drivers. As is always the case, however, the final version of the law was not as strong as many had wished. The L.I.N. will monitor the implementation of the Safe Roads Act to see if further changes need to be made in the law. Baptists also played an important part in defeating a proposed state lottery. Based primarily on an anticipated revenue shortage, the state lottery was suggested as a way for the state to make money off its people's urge to gamble.

The bill was defeated in the state Senate, but the state lottery is an idea certain to surface in future years, especially when financial times are tough. Other legislation covered by the L.I.N. included a package of bills to provide alternatives to prison as a form of punishment, a resolution supporting a freeze in nuclear weapons, proposals to protect the state's residents from hazardous wastes, and a bill to make it a crime to hold someone in slavery in North Carolina.

Christian Family Life

A wide variety of family events was sponsored this year. Included were eight marriage enrichment retreats, including one leadership training event; one clergy couples' marriage enrichment retreat and for the first time a pre-marital retreat; nine family enrichment conferences; six singles seminars and a single adult leadership conference; three parenting workshops and a Strengthening Christian Families leadership workshop. Cosponsored by the department were a chaplain's wives retreat; "Senior Adult" marriage enrichment and singles retreats in addition to sharing leadership in a holy land trip for senior adults. Program leadership was furnished in two Better Homes Clubs. For the first time, a domestic violence seminar was offered at the state level. Also, a Divorce Adjustment Workshop was held. Consultations by the director, assisting churches, associations and pastor's conferences in their crucial task of strengthening family life were offered. Two conferences for pastors' wives were underwritten. Family Life revivals were led in two churches.

A new pamphlet, "Senior Adults and Families", was added to the Growing Christian Families series.

Robert L. Newton, director

Aging

The department continued to expand its ministry with senior adults through new events and services. Five leadership training workshops were conducted across the state with an attendance of three hundred representing more than one hundred churches from forty five associations.

Four major conferences/retreats were held at Caraway Conference Center with close to five hundred in attendance. Additionally, two new retreats — one for singles and the other for retired couples, were added.

A senior adult tour to Egypt and the Holy land was conducted and a state-wide senior adult rally attracted an enthusiastic audience of over nine hundred.

Coordination between senior adult leaders and opportunities for training and other events was provided through Contact, a newsletter furnished by the department to senior adult clubs in the state convention.

Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

Through North Carolina Baptists, God continues to bless our North Carolina Baptist Homes with meaningful blessings, and we are grateful!

One of the most significant blessings that we have received during the year has been a 31% increase in the percentage used for distribution of funds through the Cooperative Program. This percentage change, along with strong Cooperative Program support during the first five months of 1983, has meant an increase of $29,079.73 over the same period in 1982. Total Cooperative Program funds for the period totalled $135,647.39.

For the first five months of 1983, undesignated support through the North Carolina Missions Offering provided $74,087.47 toward the Homes' benevolent care needs. Designated gifts of $42,274.58 brought the total NCMO support to $116,362.05.

Through these mission gifts of $252,009.44, we were able to provide care for over 50% of the residents in the five Homes and Nursing Care who have limited resources. Even with this mission support, benevolent care exceeded the resources by $132,975.00 for the five-month period. This gap must be bridged, and we must continue to receive more through the Cooperative program and the North Carolina Missions Offering if we are to meet the needs of residents in the Homes. This still leaves the many who are waiting to enter the Homes, but do not have sufficient funds to pay the cost of care.

The Baptist Homes have been and continue to be a benevolent care ministry throughout the 32 years of caring. Because of the over-extended benevolent care ministry, the Trustees have had to put a hold on admissions of persons who cannot demonstrate the resources to pay the cost of care for their life expectancy. Let's change this picture as rapidly as possible. The only way that it can be changed is through a concerted effort of increased giving through the Cooperative Program and the North Carolina Missions Offering.

Another step forward during May of this year was the approval by the Homes' Trustees of a Capital Funds Campaign of $2,500,000 for the meeting of needs on the Hayes Home Campus, Winston-Salem. This challenge will meet some of the very vital needs of updating the Nursing Care Unit. Included in this updating will be a physical therapy room, patient dining room/activity area, and other vital needs related to food service. A second area of need includes the building of additional rooms at Hayes Home. These rooms are desperately needed to make possible additional beds in the Nursing Care Unit. This expansion will require additional money beyond the current Capital Funds Campaign. The upcoming campaign will be the first major capital funds effort that the Baptist Homes have undertaken. We covet your prayers for a successful effort.

The needs of older persons in our nation and state become more and more acute with each passing day. It is imperative that we focus more on the needs and that we provide as wisely as we can for them in the family of our North Carolina Baptist Homes, now and for the future.

We believe that the future of the Homes' ministry is in God's hands. We shall continue to trust Him for our needs, and urge you to join Him and us as we strive to meet the needs of this vital ministry to older persons.

W.A. Poole, executive director

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

The foundation of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina rests on the knowledge of God's past acts during its ninety-eight years of quality child care, an awareness of His contemporary guidance and presence, and a strong hope based on His promises for the future.

Currently we are in the best position in our history to offer services to dependent, neglected and homeless children, unwed mothers and their children and the rendering of related services to their relatives. This position of strength is derived ultimately from God upon whose grace and truth we depend, the commitment of our dedicated staff and the many friends who continue to support us financially.

The lives of more than 5,000 people were affected in a significant way by the services of Baptist Children's Homes during the past year.

The Homes provided care and related services for 1,556 children and young people. Of this number 1,185 received continuing services while 371 received social work, counseling and referral services.

Through members of the staff, a close working relationship was maintained with more than 2,000 adults who were important in the lives of the children in care. These were parents, relatives, custodians, and guardians of the children.

An additional 402 individuals were provided counseling services through the Child Development Center and the Family Services Centers. More than 1,325 adults were enrolled in workshops in family education and parenting across the state.

Services of the Baptist Children's Homes are delivered from seven Family Services Centers. Four are located on our campuses: Mills Home, Thomasville; Odom Home, Pembroke; Kennedy Memorial Home, Kinston and Broyhill Home, Clyde. Three additional centers are located in Charlotte, Raleigh and Jacksonville. It is the hope of our trustees — as resources become available — to activate family services areas in Hickory and Williamston. The placement of Children as well as individual and family counseling are all within the scope of each Family Services Center.

The Homes experienced a changing of the guard in 1983 as Dr. W.R. Wagoner retired at the end of twenty-five years of faithful and devoted service.

The trustees, staff and children in care, welcomed Dr. Michael

C. Blackwell as the eighth President of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina on July 1. Dr. Blackwell is a native of Gastonia, N.C. He graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and received the Master of Divinity, Master of Theology and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. Dr. Blackwell is married to the former Catherine Kanipe of Charlotte. They have two children, Julie, 13, and Michael, Jr. 10.

Dr. William Brown, Chairman of the Board of Trustees said "that the board in electing Dr. Blackwell as president evidenced a conviction that he will continue to lead this vital ministry in an exemplary manner, in keeping with the wondrous and distinguished heritage of our Children's Homes and his distinguished predecessors. His unique talents, personality and commitments will assure that this ministry remains in the vanguard of excellence in child care, in meeting the challenge of resolving the hurts of children and families in need."

Dr. Olin T. Binkley, Chairman of the Trustees Selection Committee, said that "Dr. Blackwell has a rare combination of theological insight and professional skills. He cares deeply for children and their families. He will render outstanding service as president of the Baptist Children's Homes."

With combined thought from Dr. Blackwell, trustees, and staff, careful plans are being made for the Centennial observance of Baptist Children's Homes in 1985.

The future of child care will present new challenges, heavier demands and mounting financial costs. However the future will also afford unlimited opportunities for North Carolina Baptists and other friends of the dependent and homeless child. This is a challenge that has been kept before our people for ninety-eight years.

We are grateful to North Carolina Baptists for their faithfulness in this ministry as expressed through the financial support of the North Carolina Missions Offering and the Cooperative Program, as well as individual gifts from friends and supporters. We commit ourselves anew to honor their trust and our noble heritage as we remain faithful to our mission of serving children and their families.

Dr. Michael C. Blackwell, president

North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Inc.

Baptist Hospital has celebrated its sixtieth anniversary during 1983 by continuing to expand and improve its services.

General Board Report/209

During the year, the hospital has installed a nuclear magnetic resonance machine in the Department of Diagnostic Radiology. With the use of radio waves, this machine produces pictures as good as or better than standard x-rays and can also provide valuable information based on the body's chemistry without posing any radiation hazard.

Baptist Hospital is also providing a new treatment aimed at finding and removing the cause of heart attacks. The procedure attempts to dissolve clots in the coronary arteries feeding blood to the heart muscle by injecting a clot-dissolving drug through a catheter.

During the past year, a survey team from North Carolina Department of Human Resources designated the hospital's Emergency Department as a Level I trauma center which indicates that the department offers all major services for serious injuries twenty-four hours a day seven days a week.

Because of these and other services provided by the hospital, a total of 23,903 patients were admitted to its approximately 700 beds during the year for a total of 213,021 days of patient care. An additional 66,039 persons visited the hospital's emergency room and outpatient clinics.

The Department of Pastoral Care provided more than 14,000 hours of pastoral service to hospital patients, their families, and the Medical Center staff besides leading at least four worship services each week in the Davis Memorial Chapel. The Pastoral Counseling division provided 14,493 hours of counseling to persons who had individual or family problems or concerns. The Clinical Pastoral Education division provided training at some level for more than 100 students. During the past year, Dr. Mahan Siler, who has been with the department for ten years, resigned as its director in order to return to the pastorate.

In order to provide adequate care of its patients, Baptist Hospital employs approximately 3,500 people and has buildings and equipment valued at more than $100,000,000. The operating budget for 1983 was $101,000,000.

During the past year, the hospital trustees have reviewed plans for another major capital expansion program to begin when construction funds are available.

Careful management with continuing emphasis on cost-containment projects has made it possible for the hospital to operate in the black with only a 4 percent room rate increase during the past year.

During the 1982 fiscal year, the hospital received from the churches of the Baptist State Convention a total of $512,536 through the Cooperative Program and $351,801 through the North Carolina Missions Offering. Cooperative Program funds helped to underwrite the budget of the Pastoral Care Department and the gifts received through North Carolina Missions Offering assist financially needy patients in paying their hospital bills.

The hospital administration and staff are deeply grateful to the Baptist State Convention and all its constituents whose leadership and support make it possible for the hospital to provide these ministries.

Gerald Quinn, chairman, Board of Trustees
John E. Lynch, president

North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Incorporated

As the trustee agency of the Baptist State Convention, the N.C. Baptist Foundation, Inc. distributed to beneficiaries of trusts held by the Foundation $385,000 during the past year. This brings the total income paid to all beneficiaries since the Foundation was established in 1920 to $2,732,021. The total fund balance increased by $715,953 during the year.

The accompanying charts state real estate values at current market value and bond values at market value at date of maturity.

The total value of assets held in trust by the Baptist Foundation has steadily increased since 1962 when the first Executive Secretary was appointed.

(Several trusts include substantial real estate holdings.)

Investment Income Earned
In 1972, 1977, 1982
(Thousands)

Growth in the Foundation's total assets comes basically in two ways: (1) Gifts and bequests from donors, and (2) Realized gains generated internally from the management of assets entrusted to the Foundation.

The investment philosophy of the Foundation involves investing assets to generate maximum income for the charitable beneficiaries while providing maximum protection of the trust corpus. An investment committee of the Board of Directors periodically reviews the investing philosophy in keeping with economic and investment conditions.

Income is distributed according to terms set forth in the governing instruments.

No management charges are made by the foundation for charitable trusts. Investment policies are set by the Board of Directors upon recommendation from an investment committee.

Income distributed through 1982 to all beneficiaries totalled $2,732,021.

To fully accomplish other objectives of the Foundation, continued emphasis was given during the past year challenging North Carolina Baptists to accept estate planning as a normal stewardship responsibility. Individual, confidential assistance was provided to many who had recognized this responsible role to be good stewards of what they leave at time of death as well as of gifts God had placed in their care during lifetime.

The promotional aspect of the Foundation's work centers around estate planning seminars, distribution of materials relative to Wills and trusts, and the promotion of a January Wills emphasis in the churches.

Estate planning seminars, two nights in length, have been conducted for twelve associations. Professional persons from the communities were used with the staff of the Foundation, to lead the discussions.

Summary: 1,590 persons enrolled; 227 churches represented through attendance.

During the past year the Foundation offices were consolidated in one suite in the new Baptist Building located in Cary, N.C. The suite was designated as the C. Gordon Maddrey Suite, honoring the Foundation's first elected Executive Secretary who served in that capacity from 1962 - 1972. Another accomplishment has been the programming of all accounting information on computer providing "finger-tip" access to volumes of statistical data on all trusts held by the Foundation.

Biblical Recorder

The Biblical Recorder is celebrating 150 years of service to North Carolina Baptists. Founded by Thomas Meredith while he was pastor of the Edenton Baptist Church, the Recorder is the fourth oldest among the 34 state Baptist papers in the Southern Baptist Convention, exceeded in age only by the Georgia, Kentucky and Virginia papers.

The past twelve months have been a time of transition for the Recorder. R.G. Puckett became editor upon the retirement of Marse Grant in September, 1982. Larry E. High came as managing editor of the Recorder from the editorship of The Maryland Baptist. Puckett is the only man in Southern Baptist life to have served four different state Baptist papers. High and Puckett are the only team of editors who have both served as editors of other state papers before coming to North Carolina.

The cost of second-class postage threatened the very survival of the state Baptist papers in 1982, including the Recorder. However, with the faithful support of subscribers, assistance from the state convention and tight management of finances, the paper is now stable and as secure as possible under present economic conditions.

Because of this stable condition, the Recorder is pleased to announce that subscription prices will not be raised this year. The editors and staff of the Recorder thank North Carolina Baptists for their support and prayerful concern during these difficult days.

The format of the paper was changed to tabloid from the magazine style which had served for approximately 40 of the 150 years of the Recorder. Economy of production and increased space by approximately 50 per cent were the deciding factors. Those readers who preferred the magazine style have generally accepted the tabloid because of the money saved and the added amount of news coverage of North Carolina and Southern Baptists.

In March, the directors of the Recorder approved a plan to make circulation the highest priority in 1983. Churches are urged to put the paper in the budget so that every resident family receives a copy. Club plans are available for interested persons and key leadership in the church.

When the Recorder is sent to every resident family or at least 20 per cent of the total resident membership, the subscription rate is just $5.00 per subscription, plus tax. When four or more people in a church form a club, the cost is only $6.00 per subscription, plus tax. Additional subscribers can be added at any time. Single subscriptions are $7.00 per year, $13.50 for two years and $20.00 for three years, plus tax, payable in advance.

The editors and staff of the Recorder are grateful for the opportunity to have this ministry among North Carolina Baptists. We invite your news items, letters to the editor and items of general interest to all North Carolina Baptists. Most of all, the staff requests your prayer support and faithful reading of the Biblical Recorder, one of the largest and most influential Baptist papers in the history of Baptists in the United States.

Historical Committee

One of the major activities of the Historical Committee of the Baptist State Convention during the past year was the sponsoring on June 25, 1983, of a Baptist Heritage Festival at historic Sandy Creek Baptist Church in the Randolph Association. Founded in 1755 by Shubal Stearns and his associates, Sandy Creek is often and with good reason called the mother church of Southern Baptist churches. James P. Cain, pastor, and D.O. Wright, former pastor, led in preparing for the visitors by redecorating the attractive church building (the sixth since 1755) and beautifying the spacious grounds, which include Stearns' grave and the old log church now belonging to the Primitive Baptists.

Lewis E. Ludlum, who had introduced the idea of the festival to the Historical Committee three years earlier, presided over two of the sessions. Addresses entitled "Shubal Stearns: Sandy Creek's Separate Baptist Leader" and "Separate Baptists and Bold Mission Thrust" were delivered by Henry S. Stroupe and Cecil A. Ray respectively. Louise Noffsinger, Judy Cunningham, John Woodard, and others explained the intricacies of writing and performing historical drama.

Encouraged by the reception given the Sandy Creek Festival, the committee has decided to sponsor, probably on a biennial basis, future gatherings at different places over the state. Among the events or locations being considered for possible commemorations are the Western Baptist Convention (formed in 1845 at Boiling Springs Camp Ground near Hendersonville), the Greenville site of the formation of the Baptist State Convention, Shiloh Church (1729, Chowan Association), and the Jersey Settlement on the Yadkin. The committee would like to hear from those interested in working with it in sponsoring festivals.

The Ethel Taylor Crittenden Collection in Baptist History at Wake Forest University, another activity of the Historical Committee, continued to grow during the year 1982-83. The collection now contains 10,576 printed volumes plus thousands of biography files, indexes, church history files, and miscellaneous files. The rate of growth and the types of material may be seen in more detail in the following summary. Although only about two hundred printed volumes were added in 1982-83, there were in the one year 13,149 additions of clippings, bulletins, correspondence, folders, microfilm reels, photographs, audiorecordings, phonograph records, history sketches, and record center cartons.

The quarters of the Baptist Collection occupy 3,065 square feet of floor space in the Z. Smith Reynolds Library, but the lack of sufficient space is rapidly becoming a problem. Additional mobile shelving and greater use of magnetic tapes will help for a time, but the collection will have to find space outside the present area before long.

Director John R. Woodard, his full-time assistant Mrs. Myrtle L. Lytle, and Wake Forest student assistants on irregular part-time schedules constitute the staff of the collection, working under the general supervision of the Historical Committee and the Wake Forest Library. During the April, 1983, annual joint meeting of the Historical Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Historical Society Woodard was elected president of the latter for the next year. He speaks widely in North Carolina on the work of the Baptist Collection at Winston-Salem and is eager to microfilm, at no expense to the church, the records of those churches which have not sent the original or a copy of their records to the collection. At this time the depository contains the original records of 100 churches and microfilm records of 726 churches. A brochure entitled "Preserve Your Church Records by Microfilm" is available to those who request it.

The collecting of the minutes of North Carolina Baptist Associations goes on constantly and the collection is now making a special effort to collect the papers of North Carolina Baptists who served as missionaries. Among the missionaries whose papers were added last year were the Pritchard-Taylor-Duggan family, Jesse C. and Rebecca Owen, Nannie S. Britton, George Pleasant Bostick, Arthur S. and Pauline Gillespie, and Ezra Francis Tatum. Families are reminded that papers taken from the attic trunks and placed in the collection are not only safer but are still available for their perusal as well as for the use of other interested persons.

Trustee Orientation Committee

The Trustee Orientation Seminar was held on November 29-30, 1982 at Caraway Conference Center. This was the first experience in having the meeting in November which had previously met in January. Due to many bad weather conditions it became necessary to schedule the meeting earlier in the year with the 1983 meeting to be held November 28-29.

The attendance of the meeting was excellent with 88 present. The format of the meeting has changed from a speaker oriented session to a work session where an attempt is made to instruct the new members as to their responsibilities as Trustees of Agencies and Institutions. A very useful Orientation Manual prepared by Ben C. Fisher has been most helpful for these sessions. It has been the attempt of the committee to provide a planning time for all areas of trustee responsibilities and their relationship to the Baptist State Convention, anticipating that useful dialogue will enlighten our trustees.

Jo Anne Alexander, chairperson

Cooperative Ministries Committee

Cooperative Ministries means sharing the work with two Conventions — the Baptist State Convention and the General Baptist Convention working together in winning the lost and in discipling the saved. Evangelism and Christian education are primary assignments for each Convention and every church. For 26 years we have worked together, sharing work we now call Cooperative Ministries.

The Joint Committee met April 26, 1983, and offers the following suggestions to the churches of both Conventions:

1. Seek to revive an emphasis on the second Sunday in February as Christian Fellowship Day.
2. Suggest that the editors of The Baptist Informer and The Biblical Recorder meet and discuss the exchange of news items relating to Cooperative Ministries and other interracial activities.
3. Continue exploring the possibilities of a joint effort in some special ministries, such as an outreach to the deaf, blind, mentally retarded, etc.

The Joint committee met again September 20, 1983, in the General Baptist Headquarters in Raleigh. Following an interesting exchange of ideas and a session with the editors of The Baptist Informer and The Biblical Recorder, we recommend that a joint committee be elected between local associations. We request a resolution from both Conventions calling for the establishment of local joint committees. Since different areas have varying experiences, a local committee may plan better to meet current needs. It is further suggested that the leadership in local associations be encouraged to invite their counterparts to participate on programs with a sermon or words of greeting.

Your committee urges better understanding of what it means that together we are co-laborers with God. Baptists, black and white, are engaged in God's redeeming ministry. Continue to pray for an effective ministry.

Memorials Committee

Each year our Convention elects a Committee on Memorials. This committee has the delicate and sensitive responsibility of honoring those of our Baptist constituency who have distinguished themselves in service to the denomination and its churches, and who have gone on to be with the Lord.

We lose thousands of our finest Baptist people each year, and local churches and communities pay strong tribute to them. It requires miraculous power and direction from the Almighty Himself, and cooperative endeavor from His churches, for the places of service made vacant by the passing of these faithful servants to be filled. We commend our local congregations for the Christian testimonies they bear when they pay tribute to great Christians who have departed this life.

Your Committee on Memorials takes particular note of the passing of those who have served as ministers in our churches, and those who have labored in our denominational offices, our agencies, and our institutions. It also reminds us that family circles are broken in the passing of spouses and children, and that painful suffering is experienced by those who remain.

Where would we be without those who have gone on before us? They dreamed, they worked, they prayed, they sacrificed, and they suffered to build great churches and a great denomination. If you would see their memorials, look about you for they are staunchly and securely structured across our state and around the world in flesh and blood, in brick and mortar, and in word and deed.

Your committee recommends the continued practice of listing names in our Convention Annual of those who have distinguished themselves in unique service to our denomination and its churches. The list is structured from information gleaned from the pages of The Biblical Recorder, and from nominations submitted by directors of missions in our 80 associations across the state.

Your committee also recommends that the Convention Annual be dedicated to: Charles Burchette, a long time director of Associational Missions; John Lewis Carter, a layman from Burnt Swamp Association; Ruby Davis, a North Carolina native and long time SBC foreign missionary; Bessie Campbell Lynch, a Campbell University professor, W.K. McGee, pastor and long time Director of Denominational Relations at NC Baptist Hospital; J. Louis Price, Sr., retired pastor; Jay H. Waugh, Jr., blind pastor-evangelist and father of the emerging Southern Baptist program for the blind; and three Gardner Webb professors who lost their lives in an automobile accident while on a mission of service for one of our Baptist institutions, Michael Harrelson, John Rast, and James Henson.

Statistical Reports Associational and Convention

Prepared by The Department of Data Processing

HAL ALDRIDGE, Director

The following information was supplied by the clerks of the seventy-nine (79) Baptist Associations in North Carolina. We greatly appreciate the faithful service they have rendered in compiling the statistical data. These reports are based on the associational year.

The Cooperative Program figures are from records in the Convention's Business Office and are for the calendar year.

Executive Committee of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheet of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as of December 31, 1983, and the related statements of changes in general fund balances, receipts and transfers by funds, activity of restricted reserve funds, general fund income and expenses and divisional summary departmental income and expenses of General Board and Convention and education and social services institutions funds income, expenses, distributions and fund balances for the year then ended. Except as explained in the first two sentences of the following paragraph, our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of receipts and transfers by funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. Our examination as detailed by Note 3 was, in some instances, limited to recorded receipts. The statements presented in this report are in our opinion in accord with generally accepted accounting principles and with statements prepared on the accrual basis except for differences explained in Note 1, relating to income, expenses and depreciation. Additions to fixed assets are recorded at cost; dispositions of fixed assets are deleted from fixed asset accounts to the extent known; and provision is not made for depreciation (Notes 1 and 2).

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph, the aforementioned financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at December 31, 1983, and the results of its operations and the changes in fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The financial information presented in Schedules 1 and 2 has been subjected to the same auditing procedures that were applied for the aforementioned financial statements. In our opinion, it is fairly presented in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole, although it is not necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and the results of operations of the Convention.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 1983

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The Convention is on a modified cash basis and adheres to the principle of fund accounting. The financial statements presented in this report are in accord with generally accepted accounting principles and agree materially with financial statements prepared on an accrual basis, with the following differences:

- (a) Income is recorded as received in cash because it is not generally susceptible to accrual.
- (b) Expenditures for inventory type items, prepaid expenses and new fixed asset outlays are recorded as expenses when paid, in the account in which originally budgeted.
- (c) There is no provision for depreciation of fixed assets.
- (d) Interest on long term debt is recorded when due and paid and charged to a budgeted account.

Financial transactions are controlled by a Convention passed budget and accounted for within budgetary accounts. Distributions of income to Southern Baptist Convention areas or accounts and other external recipients are charged to the same period as the income. Salaries are expensed as paid; however, payment dates always correspond to the period in which salaries are earned. Other policies are described below:

- (a) Notes and accounts receivable not involving income accruals are recorded.
- (b) In a few instances, inventories and prepaid expenses at year end are recorded at cost in asset accounts and are charged to the following accounting period. Amounts in this category are not material and are recorded to conform to budget procedures.
- (c) Investments are recorded at cost. Earnings thereon are added to the investing fund.
- (d) Purchases of fixed assets and improvements are charged to operating expenses as they are paid. The assets are also recorded at cost in the fixed asset accounts of the general fund and credited to the fund balance. No consideration is given to depreciation. Leasehold costs are amortized over the life of the leaseholds or extension thereof. Real estate disposed of is deleted from the fixed asset accounts at the time of disposition. Personal property is also deleted from the fixed asset accounts when disposed of, if complete information is available. Detailed subsidiary ledgers are not maintained.
- (e) Current unpaid expenses are not accrued and do not involve an expense accounts payable account. As a practical matter, at the end of the year most creditors will have been paid up-to-date and the unpaid amounts

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
Notes to Financial Statements

are not material to the statements. Long term notes and other liabilities not previously referred to in this paragraph are recorded on the Convention books and appear on the balance sheet. Interest expense on debt is recognized in the period paid.

- (f) The Convention contributes to retirement plans for its own employees and shares in the cost of the plans of ministers and employees of participating Baptist churches in North Carolina. All such costs are charged to operations in the year paid. The retirement plans are administered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Required contributions by the Convention for 1983 as determined by the Annuity Board were $875,802.
- (g) The Convention routinely receives contributions designated for specific uses. From time to time, the Convention or General Board designates certain funds for special purposes. All designations are recorded in restricted fund accounts so that charges to the accounts can be restricted to the designated purposes.
- (h) The Convention is a tax-exempt organization and does not, therefore, have to account for income taxes.

2. DEPRECIATION:

Fixed assets are valued at accumulated costs for prior years, plus costs of additions for the current year, reduced by dispositions when ascertainable, and with no consideration given to depreciation. As a result, the values do not reflect depreciated costs or net costs where complete information on dispositions has not been known.

3. FUNDS SENT DIRECT AND RECORDED RECEIPTS:

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of receipts and transfers by funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. As a routine procedure, funds are received by the Convention business office from various departments within the Convention covering registration fees, miscellaneous sales, expense reimbursements and other such items. Our examination of these items was limited to receipts as recorded in the business office receipt books. Our examination of receipts for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and Camp CaRAway and Conference Center was limited to amounts recorded in prenumbered receipt books and did not include reconciliations to separate records of registrations, enrollments and attendance.

4. NOTES AND BONDS RECEIVABLE - CHURCHES:

Notes receivable resulting from loans to churches bear low interest at varying rates and are secured by deeds of trust. Loan provisions generally require repayment over a period ranging from three to ten years according to terms of the individual notes.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
Notes to Financial Statements

4. NOTES AND BONDS RECEIVABLE - CHURCHES: (Continued)

Bonds receivable consist of investments in church coupon bonds and bonds with interest compounded semi-annually until maturity. Interest rates range from six and one-half to thirteen percent. Maturity dates range through 1993. All are first mortgage bonds. They are as follows:

Bonds Issued By	Interest Rate	Date Issued	Maturity Date	Face Value at Year End
Crabtree Valley Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina	8%	10-1-74	1983-84	$ 2,026
Carroll Memorial Baptist Church, Fayetteville, North Carolina	6 1/2%	1-1-74	1983	9,007
Matthews Baptist Church Matthews, North Carolina	13%	4-1-82	1993	3,020
Total				$ 14,053

5. OTHER NOTES RECEIVABLE:

- (a) The note receivable from Caswell Water Systems, Inc., for $21,000 is a noninterest bearing demand note. In 1969, Caswell Water Systems, Inc., was set up as a nonprofit corporation to purchase and operate the water system supplying water for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. The original loan of $25,000 from the Convention to Caswell Water Systems, Inc., was made for the purpose of providing funds for the purchase of the water system and related property and expenses connected therewith.
- (b) The note receivable of $1,106 was a bequest of the Julia G. Pearson Estate. The note receivable is a promissory note from Ben L. Myers with interest at 4% per annum on the unpaid balance. The note is being paid in monthly installments of $10 to principal and interest. Collections of principal and interest will be credited to Cooperative Program income.

6. RESTRICTED RESERVE FUNDS:

Restricted reserve fund balances as reflected by Exhibit D amounted to $968,373 at December 31, 1983. These funds have been reserved for specific uses due to action of the General Board or Convention or, in some instances, due to a designation accompanying the funds upon receipt.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA
Notes to Financial Statements

7. CONVENTION RESERVE:

The Convention (1976 Annual Session), recognizing the need for reserves to meet emergencies or decreased income, made provision for the establishment of a reserve fund as early as feasible. Therefore, during the year 1978, the Convention Emergency Fund reserve was set up as provided for by the 1976 Annual Session. The fund is being invested by the Baptist Foundation. The activity for 1983 was as follows:

Balance December 31, 1982		$ 294,821
Add:
Earnings	$ 19,817
Allocation of North Carolina Missions	19,097
Prior Years Loan Repayments	25,000	63,914
Balance December 31, 1983		$ 358,735

8. UNPROVIDED FOR (NOT BUDGETED OR FUNDED) CAPITAL COSTS:

The unprovided for costs are summarized as follows:

	Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute Building	Pembroke Baptist Student Center Building	Baptist State Convention Computer System	Baptist Building
Unprovided for Costs - December 31, 1982	$ 398,692	$ 35,034	$ 119,246	$ 445,689
Deduct:
Funds Provided in 1983	140,439	27,518		179,432
Unprovided for Costs - December 31, 1983	$ 258,253	$ 7,516	$ 119,246	$ 266,257

Each of the projects was authorized by the Executive Committee.

The unprovided for costs at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute were for the new cafeteria building and the new dormitory. The cafeteria was approved in May 1978 by the Executive Committee and the dormitory was approved on April 7, 1981 by the Executive Committee. The Convention in session in November 1981 authorized borrowings of $333,576 for Fruitland additions to be repaid within three years by payments on pledges and, if necessary, by budget allocations in 1983, 1984 and 1985. In November, 1982, the Convention authorized the Executive Committee to borrow $489,000 for Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute with the understanding that the balance of outstanding pledges would be applied when received and that the balance will be repaid by budget allocations during the years 1983 - 1987.

Notes to Financial Statements

8. UNPROVIDED FOR (NOT BUDGETED OR FUNDED) CAPITAL COSTS: (Continued)

The Pembroke University Student Center Building was authorized on August 19, 1980 for an approximate cost of $185,000. The building was to be financed from an $85,000 allocation of the Duke Center sale monies and from loans up to $100,000 for two years. Repayment would come from gifts and possible allocations from the North Carolina Missions Offering.

The purchase of an IBM Systems computer was authorized by the Executive Committee on October 14, 1980. Costs would be provided from funds on hand and to be located and from the North Carolina Missions Offering. The computer costs amounted to $225,839 and at December 31, 1981, 1982 and 1983 the unprovided for costs were $119,246.

The 1981 Convention, in the November session, approved the sale of the Baptist Building at 301 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, and the construction of a new one at a cost of not more than $750,000 above the proceeds from the sale of the Raleigh building and any gifts received. In early 1982, the Executive Committee approved a contract to sell the Baptist Building in Raleigh and to construct a new building on a Cary site. The new building in Cary was occupied in December 1982. The Convention in November, 1982 authorized the Executive Committee to borrow as needed up to $280,000. At December 31, 1983 no borrowing had taken place and the unprovided for costs amounted to $266,257.
